

THE LAD WHO THIRSTS FOR A WATCH

There is many a boy in this town who really thirsts for a watch. Nothing in all this world that you could buy him for Christmas would please him half so well as a watch he could really be proud of—some one of the make-shift watches sold for a tiny sum, such as half the boys in the school carry, but a really dependable timepiece that he can carry till he reaches manhood, and longer still if he wishes. The Barr Store has a good many watches in stock that would exactly fill these requirements and that are by no means too costly for such a purpose. Some of them cost $3.50 and $10.00 or $15.00. There are a good many parents in Salem who, if they once saw them, would doubt no longer what they had better buy the boy for Christmas. Does this apply, to you?

We expect to sell a good many Ladies' Watches for Christmas also. Scores of beautiful specimens await the choicer, at all the way from $9.00 to $50.00 each.

LODGE OF SORROW SUNDAY

Brotherhood of Elks Hold Annual Memorial Services

Ceremonies Will Be Conducted at the Grand Opera House Sunday Afternoon at 1:30

The beautiful custom of holding memorial services for the departed brethren on the first Sunday in December, as practiced by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, wherever there is a body of the great brotherhood, is one of the features that attracts the thinking people to this fraternity, and invitations to their services are always eagerly sought. In accordance with this custom, Salem Lodge, No. 336, will hold its annual Lodge of Sorrow next Sunday afternoon, and elaborate preparations have been made for this function. The opera house has been donated by Manager J. F. Cordray, himself an honored member of the order, for the services, and here the Elks will hold their memorial services in honor of the deceased members.

John E. Lathrop, of Portland lodge No. 142, will deliver the memorial address, while Hon. T. L. Davidson, of Salem Lodge No. 336, will pronounce the eulogies.

The stage will be beautifully and tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the service will be an elaborate and impressive one.

Admission to the lower floor of the opera house will be by ticket only, as the seats on that floor have all been reserved. The general public will be admitted to the balcony and gallery.

The deceased members of the lodge, for whom the services will be held, are:

B. M. Wood, A. Benicke, C. Hemphill, F. S. Dearborn, E. F. Parkhurst, S. L. Hayden, F. H. Campbell, W. G. Westacott, Finley C. Perrine.

Elected Officers.
At last night's meeting of the Oregon Cedar Camp, No. 5246, Modern Woodmen of America, and Oregon Grape Camp, No. 1360, Royal Neighbors of America, officers were elected for the new year, and steps were taken for energetic work. The newly appointed state deputy, Mr. Dickey, of Portland, was invited to visit the local camp, and deliver an address at the next meeting, and steps were also taken to install the officers at a public meeting in January, when several of the state officers of the order will be in attendance. The officers chosen last night were:

Modern Woodmen—E. E. Mattson, venerable consul; B. F. West, advisor; A. L. Brown, clerk; E. L. Irvin, banker; F. A. Sutton, escort; C. M. Parmenter, secretary; P. A. Turner, watchman; F. A. Baker, manager; Dr. W. S. Mott, physician.
