

LOGAN GOES FREE

Toledo Lawyers Put up a Strong and Winning Fight

Faced a Combination of Circumstances That Seemed Insurmountable, but Won Out

Abe Logan, who was tried in the United States court at Portland last week, accused of murdering U. S. Grant, was acquitted by a fair jury as can be found in Oregon. Abe defended by B. F. Jones and C. E. Hawkins, our local attorneys, and no man, Indian or white, has ever gone to trial for his life facing greater difficulties.

Abe Logan and Albert Martin were jointly indicted for murdering Grant in a drunken row, the indictment being for murder in the first degree. Albert's friends, Indians and whites, believing to clear him, the crime must be fastened on Abe, and that they must be tried separately. They secured as they supposed the ablest counsel to be had, W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, and Mr. Green, of Portland. They had Albert's trial set first, to accommodate Mr. Green, who had to go East. All Albert's friends, Indians and whites, with the prosecution were in Portland nearly two weeks before the time of Abe's trial, having the best of success in moulding sentiment against Logan, as is evidenced by the prattles of that sensational reporter who gave a column a day to the readers of the Oregonian. One day would be "The Murder of Tom," "Revenge, etc.," next "They Are Making Evidence Stronger Against Logan." The changes each day varied as he rubbed against another one of the push. He was so certain he was leading court and public sentiment with his articles that he never even mentioned that Logan was represented by counsel.

It must be confessed that Jones and Hawkins made a great fight to save the life of their client under such adverse circumstances. He only an Indian and as the reporter says, "he was told even the Indians don't like him, and one government official said he would not be surprised if the Indians killed Logan for revenge."

It is a matter of regret that the judge should have allowed his feelings to mislead his dignity in reprimanding the jury, because the 12 men who were the exclusive judges of the evidence did not decide to suit him. Thus he impugned their motives, claiming there was undue sympathy for Logan's family. All this is very bad, as it is hard at our best to sustain proper respect and reverence for our courts of justice. Yet through it all they were cleared.

After listening to the verdict the judge turned to the jury and said: "This has been a failure of justice. Out of respect and feeling for the wife and little ones of this defendant you have been led to acquit. Such a verdict as this must result disastrously to all residents of the Siletz reservation."

Under date of November 29, one of the jurors in an open letter says:

Did the Best They Could.

"Portland, Nov. 29.—In your issue of today you gave the account of the findings of the jury in the Abe Logan case. The article says: 'How the jury could have found Logan not guilty is more than those who listened to the testimony can figure out.' This, to the jury, seems very unjust, and is a direct reflection not

"I wrote to Dr. Pierce for his advice."

The lady, from whose letter we quote, got what she wrote for, and is a well woman to-day as a result of following Dr. Pierce's advice and using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the medicine which makes weak women strong and sick women well. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invented to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I can truthfully say that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine and deserves the praise given it," writes Mrs. Emma Spooner, of Lakeview, Montclair Co., Mich., Box 288. "I was sick four months, and the medicine prescribed by the doctors did me no good. Finally I wrote to Dr. Pierce for his advice. He answered in a very kind letter instructing me what to do. I followed his advice and to-day am a well woman, thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

only on intelligence, but on their honor. The reporter who wrote this article should have borne in mind the fact that the evidence in the Martin case, which convicted him, was excluded from the Logan jury, as was also all hearsay talk that was bruited about by the many visitors from the Siletz reservation, who had more or less interest in the outcome of this trial, and from which many made up their minds that Abe Logan was not only guilty, but should have been hanged, drawn and quartered.

We all regretted very much that his honor, Judge Bellinger, should feel that the ends of justice had not been subserved in the rendering of the verdict, and it shows plainly to the minds of the majority of this jury that the American jury system is a failure, for in this case what was considered a "reasonable doubt," in the minds of 12 intelligent men, was not so considered by an eminent jurist as Judge Bellinger, and for this reason we think that the judges are far better qualified to render an impartial verdict than is a jury of 12 men who are not versed in law."

It is hard to imagine a case of more animus, and, therefore, the greater credit is due the "burnt woods" attorneys for their able defense.—Toledo Reporter.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the overfed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 25 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system, and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

A COUGH CONUNDRUM

When is a cough more than a cough?

When it's a settled cold. When it hangs on in spite of all you can do. Cough mixtures won't cure it because they are merely for a cough and this is something more.

Scott's Emulsion cures the cough because it cures the something more. It heals and repairs the inflamed tissues where the cold has taken root and prevents its coming back.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York

We do what We Claim

We kill and remove cancers and tumors without the aid of a knife.

Read the testimony of a prominent Salem man:

TO THE PUBLIC. In justice to Dr. Cook, and that the world may know what great work he is doing, I wish to inform them that I have been taking treatment from him for the past fifteen months and in that time he has removed from my alimentary canal three tumors of cancerous growths, as large as a man's hand, all from the larger intestine. Also another cancerous growth from off my right right foot and another from my right thumb. This has all been accomplished through medicines alone, they killing the growth and the spider like roots and nature itself casting them off, without the aid of knife or surgery. I do not believe I could have found equally successful treatment anywhere in the world and cheerfully recommend Dr. J. F. Cook, the Botanical Doctor, to all who read this testimonial. R. J. Spencer. We can do as much for you or more if you need it.

J. F. COOK

Botanical Doctor. Cures all Diseases. Salem, Liberty St.
