THE NEW YORK RACKET

PRETTY BEULAH THOMAS

Is Kidnapped by a Neighbor to Prevent Her Testifying

Kept Two Weeks in an Upstairs Room, but Was Treated With Greatest Kindness

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 8.—Beulah Thomas, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of a York county farmer, who disappeared from her home two weeks ago, was found last night in the house of John Blair, a neighbor of the Thomas family, where she had been held a captive, kidnaped by John Blair, against whom in a criminal case she had been the principal witness for the prosecution. Blair was suspected when the girl disappeared, but bloodhounds failed to locate the girl. Neighbors told the sheriff their suspicions, and last night he, with a posse, forced an entrance to the house and found the girl in an upstairs room. The girl says she was kindly treated, but kept in the closest captivity. Blair was immediately arrested and taken to the York jail. The farmers threaten to lynch the prisoner.

Jessie Carr Dying.

San Francisco, Dec. 8.—Jessie D. Carr, one of the best-known citizens of California, who celebrated his 89th birthday last June, suddenly collapsed last night, and is reported as sinking rapidly, with no hopes of recovery. He is semi-conscious and is aroused with difficulty. Mr. Carr was one of the pioneer star route contractors west of the Mississippi. He has large land interests in California and Oregon.

KILLED THREE ITALIANS

Guard at Colorado Coal Mines Fire on Strikers

One Dead Two Dying and a Fourth Wounded and in Jail. The Result

Denver, Dec. 8.—One report, giving details of the fight which took place last night between the Colorado Fuel Company's guards and the striking Italians at Seguno, shows the guards were patrolling the plant, when the strikers rushed toward them, firing a volley. The guards returned the fire, bringing down three of their assailants, one of whom died at 10 o'clock this morning, and the other two are dying. A fourth man, who was captured and jailed, was shot through the wrist. The wounded man says there were but seven strikers in the fight, instead of 30, as at first reported; they also claim the fight was started by the guards, without provocation, and that the latter did all the firing. All roads leading to the Seguno coke ovens are now heavily guarded, as more trouble is feared. The dead and wounded are said to have been members of the gang which fired on four strike-breakers from an ambush, shooting one in the foot. The strike-breakers were being conveyed to Primero. A sawed-off shotgun was found on the spot, where one of the strikers fell.

Ambassador Recalled.

Paris, Dec. 8.—The Russian ambassador to Paris has been recalled this morning. He presented the orders for his return to President Loubet.

TROUBLE WITH TURKEY

American Consul Attacked by Turkish Police

Turks Claim Davis Struck the Police and Guards and Smashed Jail Windows

Constantinople, Dec. 8.—The American consul, Davis, has left his post at Beirut, and caused the American flag at Alexandretta to be lowered, in consequence of being insulted and assaulted by Turkish police. Minister Leishman has made earnest protestations to the porte, and it is believed when a more complete report has been received the United States will demand the fullest reparation. The affair has grown out of the arrest of the Armenian A'trian, a naturalized American, who was imprisoned at the Aleph, but released on condition that he immediately leave the country. Davis was escorting him, when the police attacked and assaulted Davis and rearranged A'trian. Davis then lowered the flag and broke off relations with the authorities. Later a mob of Moslems made demonstrations against the consulate and Christians generally. The Turks claim Davis struck the police and guards, and broke the prison windows. A'trian had $2500 in his pockets when arrested. The Turks claim they believed him to be a revolutionist.

Family Burned to Death.

Clarksburg, N. J., Dec. 8.—Five persons were burned to death in a fire this morning, which destroyed the residence of Clayton Flower. The dead are Flower and his wife and three children; one son escaped.

TEDDY LOST HIS TEMPER

General Reyes Calls on the President and Angers Him

Told to Transact Business With the Secretary and Not to Visit White House

Washington, Dec. 8.—Gen. Reyes, special representative of Colombia, called at the White House today, and it was given out later that, for five minutes, the interview was extremely pleasant. Later information, which is perfectly reliable, indicates there was no pleasure in it for Reyes, who evidently made some remark which aroused the Roosevelt fighting blood. The latter went for him rough-shod, and his angry words were heard in the adjoining rooms. The President concluded his denunciation with the statement that if Reyes had any more business to transact with America it would have to be with the secretary of state, and he was told not to enter the White House again.
