

POPULAR LOAN IS CARRIED

By a Vote of Nearly Six to One Against

The Bonds Will be Issued on the Same Plan as Two Former Loans

By a vote of nearly six to one, the proposition to fund the $30,000 of old bridge bonds, that fell due the past year, carried at the recent city election, and the council will proceed to submit a subscription for a popular loan for the above amount. Following is the registered decree of the voters in favor of the popular loan:

First ward	74
Second	204
Third	99
Fourth	108
Fifth	99
Sixth	114

There were 434 more votes cast for mayor than on the bonding issue. Inquiries are already being made at The Journal office for information as to the bonds, and inquiry at a city hall shows that Recorder Judah is preparing to have proper steps taken to issue the bonds on the popular loan plan, that was such a great success every time it was undertaken by this city.

On that plan they will be ten-year, non-taxable bonds at 4 per cent, interest payable semi-annually, and if the people are given a full and fair opportunity to subscribe they will be taken several times over, as they are as good as a government bond, and the people will be giving a vote of confidence in the future of their city government by becoming stockholders in its indebtedness.

A FAREWELL PARTY.

Miss Alice Meyer Entertains Before Leaving for California.

Miss Alice Meyer last night gave a very delightful "at home" to a large number of her young friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Holman. Miss Alice, who is a great favorite among the younger set, leaves soon for San Francisco for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Lusa. She goes from there to Oakland, where she will enter Mill's Seminary, and took this manner of bidding her friends good-bye. The Holman home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with mistletoe, smilax and cut flowers. Misses Ryth Gatch and Wilda Roland very ably assisted the hos-tes in entertaining, while Master George Lunn and dainty little Miss Margaret Rodgers received the guests at the door. In a guessing contest Miss Bessie Eakin carried away the first prize, Miss Leah Bell second, and among the young men Eldon Damon won first and Mac Hofer second. Very dainty refreshments completed a most delightful evening's entertainment. All voted it a grand success, and wished Miss Alice much happiness in her new home. Those invited were: Edith Ragan, Bessie Eakin, Leah Belle, Jennie Fry, Marie Hofer, Minnie Perrine, Crissie Clarke, Olive Riddell, Bessie Schultz, Wilda Roland, Ryth Gatch, Ama Strong, Olive Mitchell, Bertha Allen, Gertrude Gray, Clare Jones, of Brooks; little Miss Margaret Rodgers; Eldon Damon, Warrent Hunt, Robert McCarl, Hermann Baker, Otto Miller, Blaine Hubbard, Howard Catlin, Frank Catterlin, Ralph Dorcas, Mac Hofer, Harry Winstanley, Curtis Cross, Ralph Moores, Frank Rhodes, Harry O'Riely, John Holman and George Lunn.

"KOKO," BABY GORILLA.

Only Young Animal of the Kind in America.

The only youngster of the gorilla family in Uncle Sams domain is in Oregon, learning such infantile accomplishments as drinking milk from a cup and eating rice with a spoon. He is the queerest baby in America, for he looks like a little old man, whereas he is only eight months old. "Koko" is the name of the baby gorilla, and he has come all the way from the banks of the Congo river, in Western Africa.—San Francisco Examiner.

IS NOT A HIGH FLYER

Langley's Airship is of Submarine Variety

The Artificial Bird Evidently Belongs to the Aquatic Family Species Hell-diver

Washington, Dec. 9.—Under weather conditions regarded as perfect the Langley airship Tuesday was given a second trial, a short distance from Washington down the Potomac, the result being the complete wreck of the airship. Everything had been in readiness for the trial for some days, so it was felt all that was needed for the test was the right sort of wind and weather. This afternoon these conditions presented themselves, and the test was made under auspicious conditions. On the word being given to launch the aeroplane, it glided smoothly along the launching tramway until the end of the tramway was reached, when, on being left to itself, the aeroplane broke in two and turned completely over, precipitating Prof. Charles M. Manley, who was operating it, into the icy water beneath the tangled mass.

A number of launches, containing newspaper men and others, immediately steered for the spot, but before they could reach Prof. Manley, one of his assistants had leaped overboard, and brought him aboard the houseboat, on which the launching tramway was laid. Professor Langley was present to witness the test, and appeared crestfallen, when he saw the product of months' study and labor, combined with an enormous expenditure of money disappear beneath the water, close to where he was standing aboard a tug.

At 4:40 o'clock, when all was ready, Prof. Langley gave his last instructions to Mr. Manley. The latter then donned his life-jacket and entered the car. After a few moments he set the machinery in motion, and the propellers rapidly revolved. Then he gave the signal, and an instant later there was a crash. The after part of the ship fell upon the deck of the boathouse, while the forward part, in which Prof. Manley was seated, was seen to rise slightly, then turn completely over and drop into the water, a few feet away, without having flown even the slightest distance.

The failure to fly was total, and the wreck of the aeroplane was complete.

Prof. Langley, after witnessing the disaster to the flying machine today, said the machine itself was not at fault. The accident, in his opinion, was caused by a defect of the launching apparatus, and was not due to any weakness in the machine itself.

A Ministers Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected, and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over and found on the other side the matter intended for reading.

Many Railroad Schemes.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 9.—Delegations from many quarters, seeking aids to railways, make the life of the McBride government uncomfortable. The Nicola, Kamloops & Similkameen Railroad Company is asking for government support, while advocates of a more direct line from the coast to Kootenay are pressing against it. A. F. Gwinn, formerly of the Yreka mine at Quartzino, but now of Princeton, is heading the latter, and has brought here a petition in favor of a line from Princeton to Vancouver over the Hope Mountains. The Kootenay Central Railway, which proposes to connect with the Hill system near Morrissey, and to build from there to Fort Steele and so to Golden, also wants provincial aid. If it gets the promoters say they can raise capital in the East, because the Dominion has already promised a subsidy of $2200 per mile.

A Slow Race.

New York, Dec. 9.—Eight teams are tied for first place in the six-day bike race. Twelve teams are still going. The leading score is 1024 miles and eight laps, at 8 o'clock this morning, as against the record of 1131 miles and one lap.

Battle in May Wheat.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Wheat, 82@80 1/2 c. There was a terrific battle in May wheat, and Armour threw between seven and eight million bushels on the market. The price broke a cent and five-eighths within a few seconds.

Brief Season of Bliss.

Last Monday afternoon, during the hours of the election, City Recorder Judah was called upon to perform a wedding ceremony. J. W. Conner, of Polk county, and Miss Mary Morgan, of Salem, being the candidates for matrimony. They were married at 2 o'clock that afternoon, and this morning, after a honeymoon lasting less than 40 hours, the bride appeared in the recorder's office and announced that she had left her husband, and would not live with him. The man later also came in, and made the same statement. It seems there had been a misunderstanding, and the girl declined to go to Sheridan with her husband, where it was planned they would reside. The bride brought in her wardrobe to the city hall, where she left it temporarily, before returning to her parents' home.

A PASTOR WHO WAS BEFRIENDED BY AN EMPEROR SAVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Elkhorn, Wis., is pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Church of that place. Rev. Stubenvoll is the possessor of two bibles presented to him by Emperor William of Germany. Upon the fly leaf of one of the bibles the Emperor has written in his own handwriting a text.

This honored pastor, in a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, says concerning their famous catarrh remedy, Peruna:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
Gentlemen: "I had hemorrhages of the lungs for a long time, and all despaired of me. I took Peruna and was cured. It gave me strength and courage, and made healthy, pure blood. It increased my weight, gave me a healthy color, and I feel well. It is the best medicine in the world. If everyone kept Peruna in the house it would save many from death every year."—H. STUBENVOLL.

Thousands of people have catarrh who would be surprised to know it, because it has been called some other name than catarrh. The fact is catarrh is catarrh wherever located; and another fact which is of equally great importance, is that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.
