WILL EAT AND TALK

Young Republicans Will Have a Dinner Next Friday

Will Discuss the Bill of Fare Politics Republicanism and the Coming Election

The executive committee of the Young Men's Republican club met in Justice Morgan's office last night and discussed plans for the future of the organization. It was determined to celebrate the victory in the recent city campaign by a banquet at the Willamette hotel next Friday evening, when a "four-bit" dinner, similar to the famous "dollar dinner" of the first Bryan campaign, will be given. The time fixed for the dinner was 8 o'clock next Friday evening, and tickets are now on sale in the hands of members of the executive committee, to be placed in the hands of members of the club and the republicans generally. A number of prominent young Republicans from various parts of the country are expected to be in attendance and following the feast of good things to be prepared by Landford Conner, there will be a program of short musical numbers and short speeches by leading workers in the party.

The dining room, which will accommodate about 150 persons, will be elaborately decorated for the occasion, and everything will be done to make the affair one of the most enjoyable political gatherings in the history of the Republican party of Salem. Covers for 150 will be laid, and all arrangements for the success of the affair will be looked after by a committee of members of the executive committee, consisting of H. D. Patton, R. L. Stinson, J. G. Graham and J. C. Goodale, Jr., from whom tickets can be purchased at 50 cents.

This promises to be the beginning of a new era in Republicanism in Salem, as the purpose of the dinner is not so much to celebrate the victory of the past month, as to enthrone the membership for the future, and especially to thus early create an interest in the ensuing state and county campaign, when it is determined Marion county shall give a majority for every Republican candidate named at the convention. The purpose is to thoroughly enthrone the members of the party, and to be prepared to present a united front to the opposition next spring.

Plans for Future.
At last night's meeting the members of the committee discussed the future action of the club, and adopted a resolution, that it was "the sense of the executive committee that endorsement and support of the club be withheld from any person seeking appointment or patronage at the hands of the new city administration." The purpose is to keep the club and committee free from the charge of spoils or graft.

It was also decided to appoint a committee to correspond with young Republicans throughout the county, and take steps toward organizing Young Men's Republican Clubs in every portion of the county before the next campaign. The committee named to take this work in hand consists of Ellis Richardson, J. W. Reynolds and J. C. Goodale, Jr.

Albany Gambling Shut Off.
The "moral wave" has struck Albany, as the following dispatch of December 12th indicates:

"The gambling games opened up last night. The Bureau saloon opened with a poker game, but it was short-lived. Chiswell & Bullis, the proprietors of the game, were 'testing' the new city administration, but soon found that open gambling would not be tolerated. The rooms are rented by the proprietors of the saloon, Collins & McAlpin, and embraces several back rooms, together with an upstairs entrance. The saloon never closes, three bartenders being employed. On Sunday the bar is moved upstairs into a side room and, under the one government and city license, two bars dispense liquor to the thirsty. Gambling has received a severe setback in Albany, and it is doubtful if any games will be running during the winter. A number of people are ready and willing to swear out warrants against the green cloth men."

Booth Must Go.
The Washington correspondent of the Oregonian news bureau on December 12th, says:

"The Oregon senators are likely to be called upon to recommend a new man for receiver of the Roseburg land office in place of James H. Booth whose reappointment, as well as that of Register Bridges, they requested some time ago. A careful and thorough investigation has been made into the records of both men. No objection is raised to Bridges, but Booth is shown to be a prominent officer in the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, and his relations with that company, which has been extensively operating in timber lands in Southern Oregon and Northern California, leads Secretary Hitchcock to believe that Booth should not hold a government and private office simultaneously. Booth has already served a year and a half beyond his appointed term."

Only a Stockholder.
The Eugene Register, commenting on this, adds:
"J. Henry Booth, register at Roseburg, is a brother of State Senator R. A. Booth. Previous to his appointment he was connected with a lumber concern at Grant's Pass. It is understood that he urges in his defense that his connection with the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company is simply that of a stockholder, his brother being the manager of the business.

"The late Congressman Tongue was largely instrumental in having Mr. Booth appointed."

Newspaper Attack on Booth.
The Roseburg Plaindealer has made a hard fight against Henry Booth, and it is supposed that this is probably the cause of Secretary Hitchcock's investigation. The Plaindealer made statements, which, if they could be verified, it does not seem possible that an official could do and hold his position.

"The Plaindealer made many broad assertions, and stated that the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, in Douglas county, are Democrats; that county officials had private keys to the land office, and were often examining public records during the midnight hours, when the land office records were supposed to be locked up.

"If these allegations are true, it does not seem possible that Mr. Booth can hold on to his position."

The Two Sisters.

The present tour of "The Two Sisters" will extend from New York to Halifax, thence west to the Pacific coast and return to New York, visiting all important cities enroute. Over twenty thousand miles will be traversed and to a person who wants to see the country this will be quite an object lesson as every state and territory will be visited. On previous seasons an arrangement like this was impossible on account of the long runs the play enjoyed in the principal cities, notably New York, Boston, Chicago and San Francisco and it was against the managerial policy to put out what is called a number two company. When you see "The Two Sisters" you see the real and only company that plays it and the present arrangement of tour does not provide for runs of over two weeks in a place and this only in four cities. The usual bookings will run from one day to a week. Managers all over America have written to the management a New York office for it. Many communities have never seen it and in a sense are clamoring for it, so with a view to giving all America a chance to admire and applaud it, the present tour has been arranged. The distinguished author, Denman Thomson has carefully rehearsed the present company and equipment, and supervised all details, so that the public may reasonably look for a perfect performance of "The Two Sisters" to-night. Curtain at 8:15.

Afraid to Drop Out.

"Hello, Senator Hanna! How do you feel after your strenuous campaign in Ohio?" asked a Western member of congress in Washington the other day.

"I am feeling all right, except a little tired and run down—a sort of reaction after the battle," replied the senator.

"Why don't you go away for a week's rest?"

"I can't. I am like the chap who was out one night playing poker, and when he got home the next morning his wife noticed stains on his waistcoat. She asked what they were, and he said he supposed they must be tobacco juice."

"But can't you turn your head when you expectorate?" she inquired.

"Not while sitting in the game with that crowd of fellows," he replied.—The Lyre.

THE PET STOCK SHOW

All Kinds of Pets Barring Only the "Curs of Low Degree"

Kittens and Cats Puppies Dogs Chickens and the Proud Owners Are All on Exhibition

The pet stock and bench show, to be held this week at the large store rooms in the Klinger building, on State street, promises to be an unqualified success, as the entries for the show already exceed anything of the kind ever hoped for by the most enthusiastic promoters and supporters of the proposed show.

All kinds, classes and conditions of pet stock will be on display there, and especially will the poultry department be a most valuable and interesting portion of the show. Cats will be entered by the score, many of them of the finest breeds, and they will attract their portion of the interest. But the most important of the show promises to be the collection of dogs. The Salem Kennel Club, in connection with the Poultry and Pet Stock Association, will give a bench show that has already interested the owners of fine dogs everywhere. Some idea of the interest taken can be had when it is known that the Portland owners of fine dogs will attend and have their dogs on exhibition here. The Oregonian, in speaking of the bench show, says:

"The owners of all the Portland dogs expect to be in Salem to see their respective dogs on the bench. This is the first bench show to be given by the Salem Kennel Club, which was only recently organized, and local fanciers are anxious to lend every assistance to the enthusiasts in the Capital City. The show will be governed by Pacific Kennel League rules, and will stimulate interest among the valley dog fanciers that will tend to swell the entry list at the bench shows to be held in this city by the Portland Kennel Club in April."

A Pleasant Meeting.

A most enjoyable and entertaining time was had by the members of Valley Lodge, No. 18, A. O. U. W., and Viola Lodge, No. 88, Degree of Honor, in the Holman halls last night, the occasion being a banquet to the officers of the first named lodge. After the usual lodge work of the evening the members of the two orders met in

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicle on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicle speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it always that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicle effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicle stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. the larger of the two halls, and there sat down to an elaborate spread, and in the discussion of the good things provided a most happy hour was spent. The officers of the lodge were provided with a special table at which Mrs. Amanda Anderson, lady of honor of Viola Lodge, presided, and a good deal of merriment was created when one of the veterans of the lodge facetiously remarked that if the lady at the head of the table were taken out of the group, "what a fine picture of a regent's gallery it would make," but the good brother was promptly squelched, and the only effect of his remark was that the fun of the occasion was only increased. It was a most enjoyable evening, and all those present will long remember the genuine good fellowship manifested.
