ENJOYED A DUTCH EVENING

Novel Entertainment at the Purdy House Last Night

Misses Ruth Purdy and Lena McIntire last evening entertained a number of their young friends at the Purdy home, at 320 Mill street. The entertainment took the form of a Dutch party, and it is the first of a series of the young ladies will give.

Little Miss Bessie Goodhue, attired in a typical Dutch costume, received the guests at the door. Everything was carried out in Dutch ideas, and the guests, coming attired in full Dutch costumes, caused much merriment.

In the guessing contest Miss Una Baker received first prize while Miss Hattie Odekirk received the consolation prize. A unique Dutch luncheon was served to the guests.

When the guests departed for their several homes all expressed themselves as having had a most enjoyable time. Those present were: Misses Mata Klein, Maude Butler, Daisy Morgan, Della Briggs, Maude Morrison, Una Baker, Laura Sharp and Hattie Odekirk.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Katie Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Savage, last night entertained about 40 of her young friends, at her home on the Garden Road. The guests reported a very pleasant time.

An official visit.

An official visit was last night paid to Court Sherwood Forest, No. 19, Foresters of America, by several grand officers, and the occasion was made one of great interest. The visitors were Grand Chief Ranger W. H. Klepper, of La Grande; Grand Treasurer Bergeoise, of Portland, and District Organizer W. H. Campbell, of Albany. The visitors attended the regular lodge session, and later a social time was had, refreshments were served, and the presence of the visiting dignitaries was made the occasion

Say Mr. Husband

You.
You're the man we mean.
How's your wife's machine?
Ever ask her if she'd like a new one?
No?
Thought you couldn't afford it, so said nothing.
Well, now.
Do you smoke?
Only three a day, eh? Well that's not as bad as some men. Some eat um—six or eight or a dozen a day; all good too, ten cents, "three per" and better.
Now that's your business.
Only—
Don't tell your wife you can't afford her a nice new machine when you could pay for it in three months with tobacco money.
This is Christmas.
And you said you'd love, honor and cherish.
Just throw away the cigar for three months and do a little cherishing; you'll enjoy it.
Speaking of machines, our machine trade is splendid, especially the last week. Christmas sales are good. Our White Rotary Shuttle takes the eyes and the Wheeler & Wilson, too.
Drop in and look them over at your leisure.
