JOURNAL DIAMOND UNKNOWN NUMBER GUESSING CONTEST

EVERY SUBSCRIBER TO HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO GUESS ONCE ON A $150 DIAMOND RING

Beautiful First Water Stone Set in a Tiffany Gold Ring Given Away as An Expression of Good Will Toward Subscribers

Your Choice of 975 Numbers, Any One of Which May Be the Unknown Number That Gets the Glittering Diamond ---No Possibility of Any Crooked Work.

The Journal has placed an order through the C. H. Hinges Jewelry House for a $150 diamond of the finest water, to be given away to subscribers to Daily or Weekly Journal—for each dollar paid the subscriber is to have one guess at an unknown number of three figures, that will be placed in a sealed envelope. This is not a drawing, lottery, or gift enterprise of any kind—but a mere innocent, harmless guessing contest that will make some one richer by a present of a fine $150 diamond set in a Tiffany gold ring.

How to Participate.
 For each receipt of one dollar for the Daily or Weekly Journal, to any address, the person to whom the receipt is issued, will be given an opportunity, absolutely without cost, to have a guess at the unknown number, and the person or persons guessing nearest that number will receive as a present, and without compensation whatever, and merely as an expression of good will on the part of The Journal toward its subscribers, the $150 diamond Tiffany ring advertised in this paper and on exhibition at the jewelry store of C. H. Hinges, 88 State street, Salem, Oregon. The party paying one dollar or more shall receive a receipt for each dollar paid, and have the opportunity to guess a different number for each such receipt paid. No commission is allowed to any agent or solicitor for securing subscribers, and the person so subscribing does it with the understanding that the Daily or Weekly Journal is accepted as payment in full for the money paid.

Unknown Number—How Prepared.
 The unknown number that is to be guessed will be made up in the following manner. The ten numbers from 0 to 9 will be put on separate slips of paper and folded so as to be unseen, and a committee of subscribers will be asked to conduct the assembling of the unknown number. This unknown number will be formed at The Journal office on Monday, January 11, 1904, in the following manner: The ten numbers from 0 to 9, inclusive, on separate slips of paper, in small sealed envelopes, will be placed in a box, shaken, and a blindfolded person in the presence of the committee will draw out three of these ten numbers, marking the first one, the second two and the third three in figures, and they will then be placed in a large envelope, sealed up and placed with the diamond on exhibition in the jewelry store show window each day during the guessing contest, and will not be opened until the contest is closed, when the diamond will be given to the nearest guesser. The unknown numbers will be formed by putting together the three numbers in the order as marked, one, two, three, on the envelopes in which they are contained. The unknown number will not be assembled until the guessing contest is completed, and publicly announced to subscribers.

Limited Competition.
 The number of receipts issued in this contest will be limited to the number of guesses possible in the range of the numbers between 012 and 987, as the unknown number must be composed of a figure within those limits. The unknown number cannot be less than 012 nor more than 987. To be a perfectly harmless and innocent and amusing guessing contest the number to be guessed at must be and remain absolutely unknown. There must be no chance for any crooked work on the part of The Journal publishers, of the jeweler furnishing the diamond, nor on the part of any subscriber. The receipts for this guessing contest will be numbered in duplicate, but the stub will be only for the purpose of identifying the subscriber who is the successful guesser—each subscriber writing the guess number on the back of his receipt—each one making his or her own guess at the unknown number. As soon as the receipts are all sold the guessing contest will be over and the nearest number awarded the diamond.

How the Guesses Are Made.
 On securing a receipt for one dollar or more, the person wishing to guess will write his guess between the above numbers on the back of the receipt in ink or indelible pencil, writing only one guess on each receipt, and depositing the same in the soldered tin box provided at The Journal office for that purpose. Subscribers out of town will be allowed to make their guess in the same manner, and send the same in a sealed envelope plainly marked "Journal Diamond Guessing Contest," and they will be deposited in the box. The soldered tin box will not be cut open until all the receipts in the guessing contest are sold—975 receipts in all.

Subscribers can now get their receipts and begin making guesses to secure the $150 diamond, which has been ordered from San Francisco, and will be set and put on exhibition as soon as it arrives. Subscribers by mail and at Journal special delivery stations in the suburbs of Greater Salem will all be given the same opportunity to guess.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.
 by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MORE ABOUT ROLLERS

F. E. Creffield and Maud Hurt were united in marriage at the court house at 11:20 o'clock this forenoon by Judge H. M. Palmer. Frank C. Hurt and wife, Mollie, were the witnesses. These are members of the famous band of Holy Rollers, of Corvallis, about which there has been so much talk, of whom Creffield is chief. This is one chapter. Last night the most sensational chapter in the mummy story was enacted. About 10 o'clock a band of about 30 prominent Corvallis men crossed the river on the ferry boat, took Creffield and his fellow apostle, Brooks, conveyed them to a place near the sawmill, near Corvallis, where they stripped them and applied a liberal dose of tar and feathers, and then permitted them to return home, which they did, and spent the remainder of the night in cleaning themselves, but not so well but what the tar could be smelled on Creffield this forenoon when married. Brooks skipped out, but Creffield seems to have appreciated one of the things the people objected to, the free love part of the establishment, which has been disgracing the outfit, as well as the entire community, and early this morning left for Albany, resolved in getting that much out of the way. The Democrat has received a private letter from a Corvallis friend, who was probably one of the crowd who mauled the tar, who confirms the above. When covered with tar and feathers they were told that if they ever came back again they would wake up some morning hanging to a telegraph pole. Creffield wanted to pray, but they told him he had done enough of that. Then he said: "Lord forgive them, they know not what they do." Two are reported insane from the doings, one already in the asylum, besides all the things destroyed. During the tarring the women followed praying and singing. This afternoon the couple and Mr. and Mrs. Hurt got in their hack and left for the Beach farm, where they will do well to behave themselves, as there is said to be more tar and feathers left.—Albany Democrat, Tuesday.

The Excitement Not Over.
 The rush to the drug store still continues and daily scores of people call for a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Kemp's Balsam, the standard family remedy, is sold on a guarantee and never fails to give entire satisfaction. Price 25c and 50c.
