

CHOICE CLOCKS, YET NOT COSTLY ONES.

The Barr Store has never been able to make a more beautiful display of fine mantel clocks than is the case at the present time. There is goodly variety of choice, many sorts of different designs, all of the handsomest and most tasteful sort. Some are finished in the rich black enamel, and others in various handsome color tones. The workmanship and material are of the best; they are splendid timekeepers, and they will withstand a lifetime's usage. Yet we are selling them from $6 to $9—undoubtedly the lowest prices ever quoted in Salem for clocks of such real beauty and such marked intrinsic value. How would a fine new clock look on your mantel?

SALEM SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

The two local Odd Fellows lodges—Chemeteta No. 1 and Olive No. 18—will hold a joint meeting tonight in the Odd Fellows' temple for the purpose of installing the officers for the ensuing term, and to confer the final degree on a newly-initiated member. The occasion will be the gathering of a large crowd of the members of the order in this city, and elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of the fraters. Otto Shultz, district deputy grand master for this district, will come down from his home in Jefferson this afternoon, and will have charge of the work of inducting the officers into their stations, and he will be assisted by some of the leading members of the craft. After the joint installation and the degree work, the members and visitors present will find the banquet hall, adjoining the lodge room, an attraction second to none in the city, for a banquet has been prepared and will be enjoyed, when the work of the evening is done.

The Lions Install.

The local lodge of the Order of Lions has installed its officers for the ensuing year. The work was done by Deputy Supreme President W. T. McPherson, of Portland, last Wednesday evening, and the meeting was made one of the happiest gatherings ever enjoyed by the local lodge of this new and popular organization, as it was the first meeting in the new quarters—the Grange Hall. A large attendance of the members greeted the distinguished visitor, and the evening's ceremonies were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. After the installation ceremony, an oyster supper was served, and the evening spent in pleasant social intercourse, and all enjoyed the presence of the supreme officer, who, in turn, exerted himself to make the work as impressive as possible. The officers installed by him were: H. B. Munson, president; N. J. Judah, vice-president; Mary Sheridan, chaplain; Celesta M. Liston, secretary; Elizabeth T. Adair, treasurer; Margaret Jacob, sergeant-at-arms; Margaret Munson, assistant sergeant-at-arms; J. T. Arthur, doorkeeper; Martha Sheridan, sentinel; Jennie Hutchins, musician; Dr. W. S. Mott, medical examiner; J. J. Loncor, trustee.

Alice R. Society Meets.

The Alice R. Debating Society of the Salem high school held their regular meeting at the East school Friday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Ralph Moore. An interesting literary program followed. The following officers were elected for the coming term: President, Effie Boggs; vice-president, Curtis Cross; secretary, Myrah Hatch; assistant secretary, Mildred Bagley; treasurer, Bertha Damon; sergeant-at-arms, Prof E. W. Emmett.

Pendo Installation.

The installation of the new officers of the Pendo lodge was held last night at their hall. The membership was largely represented, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The officers installed were: Consulor, C. L. Johnson; vice-consulor, Mr. Howell; secretary, Silas Howard; past consulor, Mrs. L. B. McClaine; guide, Mrs. Guise; warder, Mr. Wagner; sentinel, Mrs. Chas. McCarthy; chaplain, Mrs. C. L. Johnson; trustee, Mrs. Osborn. After the installation a most sumptuous banquet was served by the lady members, to which all did ample justice. The Pendo order, though not an old one, is steadily growing in membership, and has already gained the reputation of being a most social one.

Enjoyable Social Event.

The home of R. B. Fleming was the scene of a very pleasant social event on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Mrs. J. G. Graham entertained a large number of their lady friends. The ever-fascinating game of Pit was played, and the parlors were appropriately decorated in bunches of wheat, flax and oats, to represent the articles called for in the game. The first prize was won by Mrs. L. F. Griffith, the second by Mrs. E. C. Patton. The hostesses were assisted in serving the refreshments by Misses Cora Talkington, Ella Rineman and Ruth Gabrielson. McElroy's orchestra discoursed sweet music during the afternoon. About 50 ladies were present, and enjoyed one of the most successful affairs of the season.

Those attending voted this one of the most unique and successful parties ever given in the Capital City. The lady who was awarded the second prize was unfortunate enough to be on the wrong side of the market during the afternoon, and was declared insolvent. A new and novel feature for Salem society was tried during the afternoon for the first time, that of the ladies wearing their hats, and the innovation was very pleasing to those present. Many handsome hats and gowns were worn, and the floral decorations were Oregon grape, potted ferns and red carnations.

A Rose in January.

James Penland, of South Salem, this morning brought into The Journal office a full-blown beautiful red rose, grown out of doors at his home on the South Salem hill. The flower is as fine a specimen of the rose family as can be seen here, or anywhere, for that matter, at any time of the year, and shows the mildness of the climate of this section. Blooming roses are not confined to California, and Eastern visitors can see roses such as the one described above in the Willamette valley at any time of the year. Mr. Penland has made a specialty of growing fine roses, and his example will, in time, be followed by many people who believe in beautifying their surroundings.

Juvenile Birthday.

A juvenile party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Ferguson, at their home, No. 58 Division street, last night, in honor of their son, Everett, who celebrated his 14th birthday. The evening was spent in games by the little ones gathered there, and one of the most enjoyable evenings of the winter was spent, and, when tired of play, the juvenile guests were regaled with a tastefully arranged and toothsome repast. The celebrant was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, many of which will for long be a substantial reminder of the pleasures of last night's social gathering. There were 15 of the neighbor's children present, who enjoyed the evening's festivities.

Shakespear Class.

Salem Woman's Club.

The Salem Woman's Club met at 2:30 this afternoon to hear a lecture on Shakespear from Mrs. R. W. Wilbur, of Portland. An informal reception was given Mrs. Wilbur by the ladies of the club. The club has appointed a committee to place a few good works of art in each of the Salem public schools.

The Eugene High School football team held a business meeting Wednesday evening for the purpose of electing a manager for the 1904 team. Sidney Smith, of the Junior class, was chosen unanimously. He was field captain of the J. A. C. Last season, and it was his excellent generalship that won the team two victories over the Cottage Grove team.
