JOURNAL DIAMOND UNKNOWN NUMBER GUESSING CONTEST

EVERY SUBSCRIBER TO HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO GUESS ON A $150 DIAMOND RING

Beautiful First Water Stone Set in a Tiffany Gold Ring Given Away as An Expression of Good Will Toward Subscribers

Your Choice of 975 Numbers, Any One of Which May Be the Unknown Number That Gets the Glittering Diamond—No Possibility of Any Crooked Work.

The Journal has placed an order through the C. H. Hinges Jewelry house for a $150 diamond of the finest water, to be given away to subscribers...

nought to nine were put on separate slips of paper and folded so as to be unseen, and a committee of subscribers was asked to conduct the assembling of the unknown number. This unknown number was formed at The Journal office on Monday, January 11, 1904, in the following manner: The ten numbers from naught to nine, inclusive, on separate slips of paper, in small sealed envelopes were placed in a box, shaken, and a blindfolded person in the presence of the committee drew out three of those ten numbers, marking the first one, the second two and the third three in figures, and they were then placed in a large envelope, sealed up and placed with the diamond on exhibition in the jewelry store show window each day during the guessing contest, and will not be opened until the contest is closed, when the diamond will be given to the nearest guesser. The unknown number will be formed by putting together the three numbers in the order as marked, one, two, three, on the envelopes in which they are contained. The unknown number will not be assembled until the guessing contest is completed, and publicly announced to subscribers.

Limited Competition. The number of receipts issued in this contest will be limited to the number of guesses possible in the range of the numbers between 012 and 987, as the unknown number must be composed of a figure within those limits. The unknown number cannot be less than 012 nor more than 987. To be a perfectly harmless and innocent and amusing guessing contest the number to be guessed at must be and remain absolutely unknown. There must be no chance for any crooked work on the part of The Journal publishers, of the jeweler furnishing the diamond, nor on the part of any subscriber. The receipts for this guessing contest will be numbered in duplicate, but the stub will be only for the purpose of identifying the subscriber who is the successful guesser—each subscriber writing the guess number on the back of his receipt—each one making his or her own guess at the unknown number. As soon as the receipts are all sold the guessing contest will be over and the nearest number awarded the diamond.

How the Guesses Are Made. On securing a receipt for one dollar or more, the person wishing to guess will write his guess between the above numbers on the back of the receipt in ink or indelible pencil, writing only one guess on each receipt, and depositing the same in the soldered tin box provided at The Journal office for that purpose. Subscribers out of town will be allowed to make their guess in the same manner. Receipts will be mailed them, and they can return the same, with their guess written on the back, in a sealed envelope plainly marked "Journal Diamond Guessing Contest," and they will be deposited in the box. The soldered tin box will not be cut open until all the receipts in the guessing contest are sold—975 receipts in all.

Receipts Now Ready. Subscribers can now get their receipts and begin making guesses to secure the $150 diamond. Subscribers by mail and at Journal special delivery stations in the suburbs of Greater Salem will all be given the same opportunity to guess.

LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM

Cupid Gets Busy and Plays Some Naughty-Pranks

Foolish Youngsters the World Forgetting, Are Not by the World, Or Constable, Forgot

Roy Orey, a 19-year-old boy of North Salem, was last evening arraigned in Justice Horgan's court on the charge of enticing away a girl under the age of 16 years, and he was held in $250 bail, pending the preliminary hearing of the case, which is set for tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., and the young man was released from custody on furnishing the required bail for his appearance.

The story on which the charge is based is a romantic one. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Murray reside on a farm near Pratum, seven miles east of this city. Their daughter, Wanda Etta, said to be but 15 years old, but a large, well-formed young woman, appearing fully three years older, has for some months been keeping company with young Orey, who frequently visited her at her home, and on several occasions escorted her to entertainments and parties. On December 5th, last, he drove to the Murray home, and brought the girl to Salem, to attend the presentation of "Said Pasha," at the opera house, and that was the last seen by the girl's parents of their daughter and her escort until yesterday. The parents, after a few days' anxious waiting, enlisted the services of the officers, Mr. Murray swore out a warrant in Justice Horgan's court for the arrest of the youth, and efforts were made to locate him and the girl, but they failed until yesterday, when Constable Malarkey, of Woodburn, knowing of the warrant, picked up the boy and girl at that place, and Constable Lewis, of this city, being notified, went down and brought the boy here, the girl, meanwhile, having been sent to her home under the escort of her brother.

When the two disappeared early in December, the young man had some money. On reaching Salem on the evening of their leaving they took the night train for Roseburg, and here the boy attempted to secure work, but failed. The young couple traveled from place to place, finally winding up at Oregon City, where the girl secured a place in a private boarding house, and the boy did odd jobs. Sunday night, the girl, seeming to have tired of roaming, left for Woodburn, and Monday the boy followed, and was arrested. He had planned to go to the lower Columbia river, where he expected to secure work in a lumber camp.

The two young people have always stood high in the estimation of all who knew them, and efforts will be made by friends of the two families to secure a marriage of the two, and thus quash further proceedings.

Bacache, headache, sideache. Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow. A Salem citizen tells you how to cure them all.

Jacob Morelock farmer residing on Rural avenue, between Hazel and Laurel streets, in Nob Hill addition, South Salem, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Dr. Stone's drug store did me good. I had been bothered off and on for quite a long time with pain through my back and kidneys. I have always worked hard at farming and think the trouble was originally caused from a strain. The secretions from the kidneys were annoying at times and caused me considerable inconvenience. Before I had taken one box of Doan's Kidney Pills the pain in my back and other symptoms of kidney trouble had passed away. I am pleased to recommend this remedy to others."

When You Eat

Do you have a feeling of undue fullness in the stomach, belchings, or sour or bitter risings? These are but a few of the symptoms of the diseased stomach. The worst thing which can be done for the stomach in such a case is to take some tablet or powder which merely gives temporary relief from discomfort. The best thing to do is to begin the cure of the disease by beginning the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It makes the "weak" stomach strong, and puts the body in a condition of vigorous health.

"I was troubled a long time with dyspepsia, torpid liver, and constipation," writes Mrs. Julia E. Deal, of Oswego, Fredell Co., N. C. "I could scarcely eat anything at all, would have attacks of pain something like colic, and sometimes it seemed as though I could not live. I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, stating my condition, and in a few days received a kind letter of advice, telling me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took four bottles, and one vial of Dr. Pierce's Peppermint, and now I can eat anything, I want and it doesn't hurt me. I have not been in bed a day since I took your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I have not since felt any symptoms of disease. I have not taken any medicine in twelve months."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.
