Clearance Sale And Sale of White

The most substantial of all foundations for a great mercantile institution is constructed of fair and honest dealing with the public. We are proud of the patronage accorded us during the short time our new enterprise has been in existence—proud of the enormous following our store owns today.

This good old homestead store has been the favorite shopping place ever since Salem was a town. But never in all its history has there been such remarkable money saving opportunities as we offer today, and all because we bought over $50,000 worth of goods at a great sacrifice.

A New Concern.
In the Y. M. C. A. building Emil Koppe, late of the Brownville Woolen Mill company, has opened a clothing and furnishing goods business. The room has been remodeled and fitted up in comfortable shape for a retail business. Mr. Koppe is a practical man and will in addition to his retail business operate a few hand knitting machines in the rear of the building which will occupy leisure time. He invites the custom of his old and new acquaintances, and will make a special effort for German trade.

PLACED UNDER BONDS

Roy Orey, of North Salem, the young man who was a few days ago arrested on the charge of enticing away the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Murray, of Pratum, on the 5th of December, last, had his preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon in the justice court. The girl in the case and her parents were about the only witnesses placed on the stand. The girl testified that she had been engaged to be married to the young man, who is but 19 years of age, and that she had told him she was about 17 years old; that he had come to see her often, and on the day named he had called during the absence of the parents, and they had decided to go away and get married. Accordingly they had gone to Roseburg, and, meeting with some difficulty, they had gone to Oregon City, where they had remained until coming to Woodburn early this week, when the boy was arrested, and she had gone on home. She stated in a simple and unaffected manner that they had lived as husband and wife since leaving her home on December 5th. Her testimony disposed of the charge of enticing away a child, but as the testimony of the parents showed that the girl was under 16 years of age, Deputy District Attorney C. L. McNary moved the court to hold the boy to the circuit court on the charge of statutory rape, and this was done, bail being fixed at $500. This was readily given, the boy's mother succeeding in securing bondmen within a few minutes. Miss Murray has more the appearance of a young woman of 18 than a girl of 15 years. Efforts are being made by the friends of the two families to bring about a marriage between the two, but the parents of the girl oppose this course.

DIED.

SMITH.—At the farm home of the family, near Sublimity, Oregon, Thursday, January 14, 1904, at 10:30 p. m., William H. Smith, aged 63 years and 17 days, of stomach trouble.

Deceased was a member of a pioneer family well and favorably known throughout this county, and for many years had been a resident of the Sublimity section. He was a native of Missouri, coming to Oregon with his parents in 1848, when but eight years of age. He leaves five sons and several brothers to mourn his death. H. W. Smith, of Turner being one of the brothers. His wife died 15 years ago. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. lodge at Aumsville, and there the funeral will be held next Sunday at 10:30 a. m., in the Christian church, and burial will be had in the Butler cemetery near that place.
Deceased was prominent in the section he called his home, and served his neighbors in positions of honor and trust in many ways. He was an ardent and loyal Republican, and prominent in the affairs of the party, having been a member of every Republican convention in this county for many years, and was often proposed for county and legislative honors, but, being of a generous disposition, he always stepped aside for some friend, preferring to fight in the ranks and allowing others to carry off the honors.

HART.—At the family home on North Commercial street, Salem, Oregon, Thursday, January 14, 1904, Miss N. Adda Hart, of a complication of diseases, aged 41 years.

Deceased is well and favorably known in this city, where, for a number of years, she was one of the most successful teachers in the public schools, and her death will be generally and sincerely mourned by a large circle of warm and devoted friends, including many of her former pupils. She was born in Decatur, Illinois, and later, with her parents, moved to Kansas, where she received her education. Eight years ago she came with her mother and sister, Miss Marie, to Oregon, her father having died in Kansas. She was an earnest and consistent member of the Baptist church. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed, and will not be until relatives, who have been notified of her death, have been heard from.

SCHUTZ.—At the farm home 1 1/2 miles east of Pratum, Oregon, Friday, January 15, 1904, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schutz, aged one month.

The funeral will be held from the farm home of the family tomorrow at 2 p. m.

SMITH.—At the Clawson home, on 15th street, between Trade and Mill streets, Salem, Oregon, Friday, January 15, 1904, at 8 a. m., Theodora M. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, aged 2 years and 6 days.

The family recently came from Illinois. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Noordland Is Safe.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—The steamer Noordland, from Liverpool, which was sighted a few days ago in a disabled condition, passed the breakwater at 10 o'clock this morning, three days late.

MAKE PEACE WITH YOUR STOMACH

You Are Certain to Lose if You Attempt the Use of Force and Violence.

You cannot force your stomach to do work that it is unable and unwilling to do. It has been tried time and time again with always the same result. The stomach is a good and faithful servant; but when pushed beyond the limit it rebels. Some stomachs will stand much more abuse than others, but every stomach has its limit; and when that limit is reached it is a very dangerous and unwise procedure to attempt to force it into doing further work. The sensible and reasonable course is to employ a substitute to carry on the work of digestion and give the stomach an opportunity to recuperate and regain its lost strength.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only perfect substitute to take up and carry on the work of the tired, worn-out stomachs. They are natural and easy in their work and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They contain all the essential elements that make up the gastric juice and other digestive fluids and will digest any food that a strong, healthy stomach will, and do it in the same time and in the same way. They work independently of surrounding conditions and the fact that the stomach is weak or diseased does not influence them at all in their useful and effective work. They will digest food just as well in a glass jar or bottle as they will in a stomach. You can see that for yourself by putting one of them into a jar with a square meal and some water to enable it to work. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by thus relieving the stomach of its work, enable that organ to rest and recuperate and regain its health and strength. The process is perfectly natural and plain. Nature will heal the stomach just as she heals a wound or a broken limb, if she is not interfered with and is permitted to do her work in her own way. All interference is prevented by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by druggists everywhere at 50 cents a box and if you are afflicted with dyspepsia, one box will make you feel fifty times better. You will forget you have a stomach and rejoice in the forgetfulness. No druggist would be so shortsighted as to try to get along without Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are so popular and are so well known for the good they have done and the happiness they have caused that any druggist caught without them would lose the confidence of his customers and be regarded as below the standard. His business would suffer as a result and his patrons would go to other stores and buy their other drugs there as well as their Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

STRAIN TOO GREAT.
Hundreds of Salem Readers Find It So.

The hustle and worry of business men, The hard work and stooping of workmen, The woman's household cares, Are too great a strain on the kidneys. Backache, headache, sideache, Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow. A Salem citizen tells you how to cure them all.

Jacob Morelock farmer residing on Rural avenue, between Hazel and Laurel streets, in Nob Hill addition, South Salem, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Dr. Stone's drug store did me good. I had been bothered off and on for quite a long time with pain through my back and kidneys. I have always worked hard at farming and think the trouble was originally caused from a strain. The secretions from the kidneys were annoying at times and caused me considerable inconvenience. Before I had taken one box of Doan's Kidney Pills the pain in my back and other symptoms of kidney trouble had passed away. I am pleased to recommend this remedy to others."
Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the United States. Remember the name DOANS and take no substitute.
