a Santa Claus Face.

HOW TO DO IT.

If there is one thing more than all others that will give a man a forlorn and friendless appearance and make him morbid and "cranky" and disagreeable, that thing is dyspepsia. It makes one forget his friends and become morose and irritable. He is so wrapped up in his own misery that he is inconsiderate of every one else. Believed of this terrible and depressing ailment, he again becomes a good fellow and a man among men.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are beyond question the most effective and popular remedy ever offered to the sufferers of this terrible disease. The thousands and thousands of cures they have brought about and the enormous increase of their sales fully attest the truth of this statement.

They are, above all, a natural remedy. They possess exactly the same properties that the gastric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach possess and they actually do the digestive work of the stomach and enable that organ to rest and recuperate and become sound and well. They act in a mild, natural manner and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They prevent any fermentation of the food which causes sour stomach. In fact, under their influence the subject forgets that he has a stomach and his resulting cheerfulness presents a great contrast to his former dejection.

Millions of boxes of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold annually and they are but in the dawn of their popularity. Every mail brings letters of thanksgiving from grateful ones who have been cured of this terrible disease. The following is one of hundreds received each week:

Rev. J. R. Hoag, of Wymore, Neb., writes: "For six years I have been troubled with dyspepsia. Last fall I became very much alarmed at some symptoms of heart trouble and came to believe there was a sympathetic relation between the two diseases, or rather, that the stomach trouble was the cause of the heart disturbances. I hit upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for a remedy and invested a dollar and a half for three boxes which lasted me three months and I can eat any kind of food I want and have a good, vigorous appetite. Although I am 77 years old, now I feel well and without being requested by anyone I make this statement as a compliment to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50c a box.

Work on Bohemia Railroad.
The fine new Oregon & Southern railroad bridge across Row River above the Red Bridge station was completed this week and trains will soon be running beyond this point. The bridge would have been completed earlier had not an early winter fresh swept the falsework away. The railroad grade has been thrown up some distance beyond this bridge and a force of men is progressing with construction work and driving a rock cut in the vicinity of Wildwood postoffice. As soon as spring opens up the construction crew will be greatly increased and the new road will be completed to the Bohemia mines warehouse, some 10 or 12 miles beyond the present terminus with all haste. The steam shovel has suspended operations for the winter, but ballasting will be resumed early in the spring. In the meantime fills, ballasting and general improvements are being made in the company's yards in Cottage Grove—Lane County Leader.

The Doctor vs. Editor.

If an editor makes a mistake he has to apologize for it, but if a doctor makes a mistake he buries it. If the editor makes one there is a lawsuit, swearing and a smell of sulphur, but if the doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers, and a smell of varnish. The doctor can use a word a mile long without knowing what it means, but if the editor uses it he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit, but if the editor goes to see another man's wife he gets a charge of buckshot. Any old medical college can make a doctor, but it can't make an editor; he has to be born. When a doctor gets drunk it is a case of being overcome by heat, and if he dies it is heart trouble; when an editor gets drunk it is a case of too much booze, and if he dies it is a case of delirium tremens.—Exchange.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaires unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system, and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

Ashland "Dry."

The last night of open saloons in Ashland was not marked by any festivity or incident of interest. At midnight last night they closed their doors for the year. This morning a strip of crepe was noticed on the door of one of the Main-street saloons.

E. D. Briggs, assignee of the Riddle Fourth-street saloon, turned over the business to the owners, and E. Riddle and Joe DeGuire run the place the last two days. The habits of some of the old places miss the warm stoves and the comfortable chairs, and some of them are lined up against the outside walls today. Their forecasts for Ashland's future are gloomy. Ashland is a pretty "dry" town today. How long it will remain strictly so is yet to be demonstrated.—Tribune, January 16th.

WOMEN'S SYMPATHY.

is Proverbial. Salem Women No Exception.

How much we owe to the sympathetic side of womankind. When others suffer they cheerfully lend a helping hand. They tell you the means which brought relief to them that you may profit by their experience. Read the testimony given here by a Salem woman:

Mrs. Needham, wife of W. S. Needham, painter, residing at the corner of Fourth street and Jefferson avenue North Salem, says: "Like almost all painters my husband has been troubled with his kidneys for years. The exposure, the reaching, the stooping, combined with the turpentine and materials in the paint, all tending to put the kidneys out of order. His back often ached badly at night when he came home from work and when he caught cold it always aggravated the trouble. He read an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at Dr. Stone's Drug Store and used them. They did good work by helping him at once and he continued their use until relief was obtained."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, DOAN'S, and take no substitute.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Train Delayed by a Kiss.

The clock in the waiting room at the union depot said the time was one minute to four, says the Oregon Daily Journal. The Albany local leaves at four. Three very excited young ladies made their way at a canter down the corridor, and one said "Salem" weakly to the window clerk, while she fumbled for the change. The other two, with satchel and bag rushed straight for the gateman, and shot by him before he could say "ticket."

The other young lady came crashing through, and ran for the train.

When a dozen feet from the steps the train started. She bravely clambered on, and was safe.

"Get on," shouted the brakeman, as he prepared to stop the train. The girls just trudged along on the platform. The brakeman pulled the rope and the train stopped stock still.

The young lady on the steps then stooped gracefully over, puckered her lips, and gave each parting comrade a farewell kiss.

"Thanks, awfully," said the girls on the platform to the brakeman.

That's a pretty good story, and the horse editor of this paper, who confesses ignorance, is convinced that if the kisses are as good as the lips are tempting, stopping the train a half hour would be inadequate compensation.

The Armstrong Case.

Saturday afternoon Chief Justice Moore, of the supreme court, handed down his decision in the application of Pleasant Armstrong for a certificate of probable cause for an appeal, the court denying the certificate, holding that, after an examination of the record, no error was found in the proceedings of the circuit court in sentencing Armstrong to be hanged on the 23d inst, and that, therefore, on the showing made, no stay of proceedings could be granted. The court instructed the clerk to notify G. J. Bentley, attorney for Armstrong, at once, and to inform him that the case would be heard on its merits next Wednesday. The notice was immediately sent by telegraph.

There are now two avenues open to the attorneys for the convicted man, either to argue the case on appeal, and take a decision from that appeal (if it is adverse) to the United States court, or to go into the federal court at once with a habeas corpus proceeding. It is not likely that the supreme court will change its position if the case is heard on its merits here, after the denial of the certificate of probable cause, and the only advantage there would be for Armstrong in such a proceeding, would be the fact that the record in the state courts would be complete before going into the federal tribunals.

A Good Roads Club.

A goods roads club was organized at the Pettyjohn school house Saturday night by the residents of that portion of Marion county, for the purpose of securing the improvement of the roads south of Salem, between the city limits and Hall's ferry. An enthusiastic crowd gathered for this occasion, and it was determined to secure subscriptions to aid the county court in at once permanently improving the main road from Salem to the ferry, so as to make that one of the best drives in the county. H. B. Thielson and Secretary J. G. Graham, of the Greater Salem Commercial Club, addressed the club on the matter of road building, Mr. Thielson giving those present many valuable suggestions, from the standpoint of a practical engineer. The desire to improve the roads was unanimous, and a considerable amount was pledged by those present toward making the desired improvements.

Stage Takes a Tumble.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says that the out-going stage met with a mishap Monday, which gave the driver and passengers an experience which they will not soon forget. It was about 1 o'clock p. m. and the stage was going around a high grade near Hansen's place, above Remote when the wheel of the wagon slipped over the grade, and the vehicle and horses turned completely over, and not stopping until they landed in the river, 40 feet below. When the wagon turned over the first time the driver passengers and mail were all thrown out, one of the passengers, Mr. Reeves being badly bruised about the body. The other passengers were slightly bruised, but luck favored the driver, and he came out of the experience unscratched. The horses were taken out of the water, and, to the surprise of the driver, were not seriously injured, and were able to continue on the drive. The precipice was rough and steep, and it is a great wonder that all were not instantly killed.

If Contentment is riches, happiness must be a steel trust.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.
Frederick Manuel, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 5, '98, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Daniel J. Fry, Special Agent.

Pope Getting Uneasy.

Rome, Jan. 18.—The pope today had a long interview with the French ambassador as to what protection France would afford Catholics in the far East in the event of war. His Holiness said if France was unable to protect them he would appeal to other Catholic powers.

Tree Crashes Through Store.
William White, driver of the Blue River stage, says that, while some woodmen were engaged in felling timber at Blue River Friday, one tree fell in the opposite direction from which it was intended, and crashed through the store building of Glen Powers, demolishing show cases and creating havoc generally. Mr. Powers estimates his loss at $700. Fortunately no one was in the building at the time, otherwise the accident might have resulted more seriously.—Eugene Register.

A Ministers Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected, and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over and found on the other side the matter intended for reading.
