

WHITE AND BRIGHT AS RAYS OF LIGHT.

Hawkes cut glass is as bright and clear as a shaft of sunlight. It does not possess an atom of the cloudiness often noticeable in quite costly pieces of other brands of glass. We invite and urge comparison with any and every brand of cut glass sold in Salem. Our line of Hawkes glass this fall is really superb. Water bottles, fruit bowls, bon-bon dishes, vases, sugar and cream sets, knife rests, spoon trays, every dish, and many other similar pieces are shown in splendid variety. Can we not prevail upon you to come and see them for yourself? We assure you that they are a treat for anyone who loves tasty table ware.

LADIES
GRAND ARMY

Give a Reception to the State and National Officers
—Banquet a Success—

A grand reception and installation service was conducted at Union hall by the ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Mrs. Bailey, of California, national president, and Mrs. Benedict, of Portland, department commander of Oregon of the Ladies of the G. A. R., were present, and, after a fine dinner, delivered addresses, and promoted different departments of the work.

Mrs. J. R. Fairbank, president of the Salem Ladies of the G. A. R., introduced the visitors and presided.

Governor Chamberlain and ex-Governor Geer were given seats of honor at the right and left of the distinguished visitors, and also delivered addresses as part of the afternoon exercises. About 100 sat down to the banquet, which was a very rich spread of coffee and beans, chicken pie and a bill of fare fit for a king, and the old Grand Army boys enjoyed it all.

A beautiful cake, emblazoned with an inscription to the chief of the ladies' organization. The Stars and Stripes were done in the national colors. It was presented by Mrs. J. C. Goodale.

The following officers were installed:

Mrs. F. S. Holt, president; Mrs. Jennie Ferguson, senior vice; Mrs. D. C. Howard, junior vice; Mrs. J. R. Fairbanks, chaplain; Mrs. E. J. Fuller, conductor; Mrs. Allen Rhodes, guard; Mrs. R. E. Wands, treasurer; Mrs. E. F. Fifer, secretary.

SOCIAL

Literary Society.

The West Salem Literary Society held its regular meeting at the West Salem school house Saturday evening. Quite an interesting business meeting was held, as it was an election of officers, and there was a number of candidates. The following officers were elected: President, E. A. Thompson; vice-president, W. J. Squires; secretary, David Eyre; assistant secretary, Miss Nellie Smith; treasurer, J. Thomas Cooper; critic, Miss E. A. Thompson; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. J. T. Cooper.

There was an interesting literary and musical program given, and then followed the debate on "Resolved, That Washington deserved more credit for saving America than Columbus for discovering it." The debate was decided in favor of the negative. After the debate a social hour was held. These meetings are growing in interest, and are much enjoyed by the people of West Salem.

A Pleasant Party.

Miss Nellie Tucker entertained the members of the '09 class of Willamette University at her home, at 415 Capital street on Saturday evening. The party was given in honor of Miss Margaret Gray, who is a member of the class, and who will soon leave for Seattle, where she will make her future home. The time was spent very pleasantly in playing games. During the evening Miss Winslow favored the guests with some very entertaining piano numbers. Dainty refreshments were served by the winsome hostess, to which all did ample justice. Roy Hewitt was toastmaster, and did honor to the occasion. The toasts were many and varied, and everyone called upon responded in a most appropriate manner. When the merry crowd dispersed to go to their homes, all were loud in their praise of their hostess' hospitality. About 40 young people were present.

MADE A SUCCESSFUL
TRIP

Two Osteopaths Treat Over a Hundred Cases in Six Days

Since the arrival of Dr. W. H. Thomas from Colorado Springs there has been great demand for his services. With Dr. F. J. Barr he has been kept very busy answering calls for the osteopathic treatment. The two gentlemen have just returned from a six-days' trip to Portland, Mt. Angel and Woodburn, where they treated over 100 patients for many kinds of ailments. The wonderful scope of practice enjoyed by the new school of non-medical treatment has been proven better than ever, as they had under their care in the past few days cases of hip dislocation, rheumatism, appendicitis, paralysis, renal calculi and one case of insanity, and in every instance they have given satisfaction, as far as the treatment has proceeded. Dr. Thomas is rapidly establishing a reputation as one of the best practitioners of this school on the Pacific coast. He is the only osteopath who has been a regular examining physician for lodges and insurance orders.

Rebekahs Entertain.

Salem Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., in the Odd Fellows' hall, last night, gave a most enjoyable entertainment, which was attended by a large number of the members of the lodge and the sister lodges of the order. After the business meeting of the evening, the musical and literary program was rendered, after which the evening was spent in games, music and conversation, concluded by the enjoyment of a toothsome repast, the committee on arrangements having prepared a most excellent spread for the members and visitors present. It was at a late hour when the gathering dispersed all voting the Rebekahs entertainers without a peer. The program contained the following numbers:

Instrumental solo—Miss Bertha Ketchum.
Reading—Miss Bertha Hewitt.
Vocal solo—Miss Williams.
Violin solo—Gaynell Baldwin.
Reading—I. G. Heitzel.

The Turner Pictures.

The Turner pictures have arrived today, and are being hung in the city hall. There are 150 pictures in the exhibit. With these will be shown the 40 purchased with funds raised last November.

The first and second grades of the public school will attend the exhibit tomorrow. A number of parents will attend with the little people to see the pictures, and to examine the written school work.

The following program has been arranged for Wednesday evening:

Song—Sixth grade girls from North school.
Piano solo—Joy Turner.
Address—Hon. T. T. Geer.
Song—Fay Hutchins.
Recitation—Vera Dindinger.
Piano—Fleda McPeck.

Recovered $12,000.

O. A. Dunham, of Grants Pass, a son of E. H. Dunham, a former superintendent of the Corvallis & Eastern railroad, and a resident of Albany for several years, has just recovered $12,000 from the Southern Pacific. Dunham was a brakeman on the Southern Pacific, and was working in the yards at Grants Pass when the accident occurred which resulted in the loss of a leg through a defective engine, which should not have been in use. The trial was completed Saturday evening. The suit was for $30,000. A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, was attorney for Dunham, and Messrs. Fenton and Lighter for the defendant.

Registering Slowly.

The registration of voters in the county clerk's office is extremely slow, but a few coming in from day to day. Thus far only 123 names have been entered on the register of the clerk, the most of them being from the seven Salem wards. Of this number 23 are from Salem No. 2, the other Salem wards furnishing from 10 to 15 each. Many of the country precincts are not represented at all, and a number of them by one voter each.

No Right to Marry Hanna.

London, Jan. 19.—Justice Jeune, in the divorce division of the higher court of justice Monday granted Major Walter de Sumarez Maud a divorce from his wife on the ground that her marriage to Daniel R. Hanna, of Cleveland, Ohio, was bigamous. The Mauds were married at New York, April 19, 1897. While Maud was fighting in South Africa his wife obtained a decree of divorce from him in America, and on February 19, 1900, married Mr. Hanna.
