

WINTER IS COMING BRINGING CATARRH

Every Catarrh sufferer dreads the coming of winter, for with the first breath of the "ice-king" this miserable disease is fanned into life and all the disgusting symptoms return. The nostrils are stopped up and the throat can be kept clear of mucous secretions only by continual hawking and spitting. Catarrh is a nuisance and source of annoyance, not only to the one who has it, but everybody else. The thick, yellow discharge from the head produces a feeling of personal defilement, and the odor of the breath is almost intolerable.

The catarrhal poison brings on stomach troubles and affects the Kidneys and Bladder. It attacks the soft bones and tissues of the head and throat, causing total or partial deafness, the loss of smell, and giving to the voice a rasping, nasal twang. No part of the body is secure from its ravages. Catarrh makes you sick all over, for it is a disease of the blood, and circulates all through the system, and for this reason, sprays, washes, inhalers, powders and salves have proven failures.

The way to cure Catarrh thoroughly and permanently is to cleanse the blood of the unhealthy secretions that keep the membranes of the body inflamed, and nothing does this so surely and promptly as S. S. S. As long as the blood is poisoned with Catarrhal matter the discharge of mucus and other disgusting symptoms of the miserable disease will continue. S. S. S. goes to the fountain source of the trouble and purifies and enriches the blood, and so invigorates and tones up the system that catching cold and contracting Catarrh is not so likely to occur. Keep the blood in order and winter's coming brings none of the discomforts of Catarrh.

COULD NOT HEAR THE TICK OF A CLOCK

Wassontown, Pa., July 13, 1903.
Dear Sirs: I have used S. S. S. for Catarrh of the inner ear, and have found it an excellent remedy for same. I had been troubled with this disease for years and tried many things in an effort to get relief, but nothing did me any permanent good until I began S. S. S. I had a discharge from my ear and my hearing was so badly affected that I could not hear the tick of a clock. I was in bad shape when I began your medicine. S. S. S. has done away with the discharge and my hearing has been wonderfully improved; so much so that I can now carry on a conversation in an ordinary tone, whereas a year ago this was impossible.

Your medicine has done me a world of good and I do not hesitate to give it the credit it deserves.
W. F. KRUMHINE.

NO SIGN OF CATARRH IN THIRTEEN YEARS

Krebs, Ind. Ter., Aug. 1, 1903.
Dear Sirs: About thirteen years ago I used your remedy for Catarrh. I had been troubled with it for about nine years, but since taking S. S. S. have never been worried with it. I feel able to recommend S. S. S. as a sure cure for Catarrh.

THE ART EXHIBIT OPENED

Three Days at the Armory for the Public Schools

Woman's Club Will Raise a Hundred Dollars by Several Arabian Nights Entertainments

This afternoon, at 1 o'clock, the second art exhibit for the benefit of the public schools was opened and will continue the rest of this week. It is expected to raise about $500 for works of art for the permanent decoration of the public schools of this city. The Horace K. Turner collection of photographs of masterpieces and reproductions of water colors and oil paintings is composed mainly of modern works, although embracing many of the old masters. It is entirely different from the Elson collection, that was shown here last fall. The children of the first and second grades and their mothers held the armory this afternoon in goodly numbers, and there was a constant stream of visitors. The program this evening is as follows:
The following program has been ar-

anged for this, Wednesday, evening:
Song—Sixth grade girls from North school.

Piano solo—Joy Turner.
Address—Hon. T. T. Geer.
Song—Fay Hutchins.
Recitation—Vera Dinninger.
Piano—Fleda McPeck.

The Children's Exhibit.
All around the walls are displays of the work done by the grades in penmanship, drawing and color work, the best of which is to go to the world's fair at St. Louis. There are 40 framed pictures, that cost about $300, the proceeds of the former exhibit. The present exhibit will produce about $500, of which the teachers have given about $100. The Salem Women's Club will try to raise another $100. This will be used to decorate an English art room. The Shakespeare section of the Women's club will establish a Shakespeare corner with a bust of the great dramatist. Mrs. Traver has secured pledges of about $250 in cash and pictures from friends of the movement. The collection, when completed, will be the best owned by any public school in Oregon, or on the Pacific coast.

A Pleasant Affair

One of the most pleasant events of this week in the social realm was the reception given by Mrs. C. J. Olmstead, Mrs. A. C. Lawrence and Mrs. F. W. Stensloff, at the home of Mrs. Olmstead, at No. 19, Division street yesterday afternoon. The members of the local lodge of Rathbone Sisters were the invited guests, and were delightfully entertained. The lively and fascinating game of "Pit" was played, and no company of ladies ever contested the corners more closely than they. Mrs. Z. J. Riggs succeeded in capturing the most, and received the first prize, while the consolation prize was tied between Mrs. Pogue and Mrs. Buford. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon by the hostesses, which were enjoyably discussed. About 20 ladies were present, and a most delightful afternoon was spent.

Victory for Women Suffragists in Tasmania

A bill granting full suffrage to women has passed both houses of parliament in Tasmania, making the fourth Australian state to take such action. Full suffrage was granted to the women of New Zealand in 1893, to the women of South Australia in 1895, to those of West Australia in 1899, and to those of New South Wales in 1902. In the last named year the federal parliament extended full national suffrage to the women of all the states of Federated Australia. This act places the women of the four states in which full suffrage prevailed on an absolute political equality with the male citizens of those states. The women in the three states which had not extended the elective franchise to them were in the position of being able to vote for all national officers and in all municipal elections, but not for members of the state parliament. Now one of those three, Tasmania, has granted full suffrage, with the sole restriction that women are not eligible to sit in the state parliament.

Australian women, like the great mass of women everywhere, are not ambitious for office, so they do not mind this. In time, doubtless, this restriction will be removed. It now remains for Victoria and Queensland to enfranchise their women, and then the women of all Federated Australia will be politically free.—Progress.

In the announcement that 2000 actresses are adrift and 185 theatrical companies disbanded, the Spokesman-Review sees the solution of the servant girl problem, and pictures Juliet, Ophelia, Lady Macbeth and Portia wrestling with household duties. Juliet, as a chambermaid, gracefully sallies with the broom in the endeavor to frighten "Romeo" (the household cat) from beneath the bed, while she ejaculates: "Romeo! Romeo! Where art thou, Romeo!" And there is Ophelia, the dining room girl, mournfully saying: "Who is me, to see what I see!" and what she sees is a platter full of dishes precipitated on the floor. Lady Macbeth has taken to the washbasin, and with bated breath and horror in her tones is heard to hiss: "Out damned spot!" The gentle Portia takes to the kitchen for a living, and as she strains the juice from the fruit into the floor, she strikes an attitude and remarks that "The quality of mercy is not strained."

Big Money for Good New Stories.
The Metropolitan Magazine, of New York, is offering $2500 for four short stories and a poem, the total amount to be distributed as follows:

For the best original story of 7000 words in length, $800 will be paid; for the second best, $500. For the best original story of 5000 words, $600 will be paid; for the second best, $400. For the best original poem, not exceeding thirty-six lines, $200 will be paid.

UNITED STATES SENATOR THURSTON,

The Brilliant Statesman from Nebraska Makes an Important Public Utterance.

INTERIOR OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE CHAMBER.

Ex-Senator John M. Thurston, of Omaha, Nebraska, is one of the most prominent and influential men in the country. He made the speech nominating President McKinley at the St. Louis convention, and was made permanent Chairman of this convention. He was also made Chairman of the convention that renominated the late President McKinley at Philadelphia. He was appointed by President McKinley to be Chairman of the St. Louis Exposition Commission. This prominent gentleman recently wrote the following letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio:

Washington, D. C., April 6, 1901.

"I have used Peruna at various times during the past year or two with most satisfactory results.

"It entirely relieved me from an irritating cough—the result of excessive effort in the presidential campaign, and I am a firm believer in its efficacy for any such trouble."—Jno. M. Thurston.

Catarrh has already become a national curse. Its ravages extend from ocean to ocean.

More than one-half the people are affected by it. It has become such a serious matter that it has passed the boundaries of the medical profession and become a national question. Senators are talking about it; Congressmen are discussing it.

They are not only considering the extent and chronic nature of the disease, but the possibility of finding a national remedy to meet this national calamity.

The catarrh remedy, Peruna, seems to be the main expectation in this direction.

Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, devised the remedy, Peruna, over forty years ago, and the remedy as a catarrh cure has been growing in favor steadily all these years.

It stands to-day before the nation as a thoroughly tested, accurately scientific internal remedy for catarrh. There are practically no medicinal rivals in the field.

Peruna is not a local application or temporary relief; it is a permanent cure. Peruna is a systemic remedy. It eradicates catarrh from the system. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures are radical and lasting.

Fritz Vollmer, President Schwabischer Sangerbund, Chicago, in a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co. says:

"My voice was so badly affected from catarrh that I was afraid I would lose it entirely. I read of some of the wonderful things your Peruna would do and thought it advisable to try some myself. I am pleased to state that in a very short time I was cured."—Fritz Vollmer.

St. Louis Exposition Buildings

West Virginia Building.

West Virginia's building, a handiwork of the Colonial type of architecture, is 100x120 feet, and stands close to and directly west of Colorado's building. Porches 16 feet wide extend on three sides, and at the rear the porch is 10 feet wide. The main part of the structure is square but the large porches in the center of each facade supported by six large Corinthian columns, cause the building to assume the shape of a Greek cross. In each corner rises a tower surmounted by a small dome. Rising from the center of the building is a huge classical dome, on the summit of which stands the sculptured figure of a woman. A stairway 10 feet wide, with broad landings, leads to the second floor, where is provided a banquet hall 25x70 feet. Other rooms private for the officials, are on the second floor.

The exterior finish will be stucco and plaster. The interior is finished in woods from West Virginia, and the ceilings are of ornamental metal, donated by the manufacturers of the state.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnetka Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
