The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

New Odd Fellows' Lodge.
Next Saturday evening a new Odd Fellows' lodge will be instituted at Aumsville, in this county, and a large number of the members of the order in this section of the state expect to be present on this occasion. Away back in the early 70s an Odd Fellows' lodge—Fidelity No. 36—was instituted in Aumsville, the little town at that time being one of the most thriving villages in the Willamette valley. For years the lodge existed there and prospered, but when the town went down the lodge was removed to Turner, and there it is to this day. Now the little town is again picking up, a number of members of the order live near it, and a new lodge will be instituted, with a charter list of about 25. The Salem degree team, composed of picked members of the two lodges, will confer the degrees on 18 members at that time.

Notice.

The Hughes bridge will be closed to teams until further notice. By order of the committee on bridges.

H. C. TARPLEY,
Street Commissioner.

Can give you a good meal any hour of the day or night.

Marriage is a lottery. That's why the law interferes in so many cases.

THE BARKEEPERS' VIEW.

The Medford Mail prints the following poem without indicating its authorship. It presents a side of the drink question not often taken into consideration, and the author is too modest in not fathering it. I have read about the fellow With the spark of manly pride, Who never blamed it on the booze, Whatever might betide. And I've heard another story— Of the weak degenerate elf, Who always blamed it on the booze, And never on himself.

Although we may condemn him, Yet we must admire the chap, Who has the moral courage To acknowledge his mishap; But we have no hope or patience For the hypocrite or sham Who strives to blame the booze for wrongs Inherent in the man.

In the wild, chaotic splendor Of a milk-and-water jug, If his ugly disposition Runs him up against a snag, He will thrash his wife and children, He will smash up all his pelf, And blame the damage on the booze Instead of on himself.

If he antes up a nickle In a quiet game of "poka," Just to make it interesting, And he quits the table broke, As his fellow-members "touch him" For the balance of his pelf, He will blame the whole proceedings On the booze and not himself.

If he makes a business failure Where he should have made success, And the credit-mongers flag him With the signals of distress, As they take his final dollar And inter him on the shelf, He'll attribute his misfortunes To the booze and not himself.

And thus he'll go on boozing And blaming just the same Until his life becomes a streak Of mingled booze and blame. And when the final summons come That lands him on the shelf, His friends will blame it on the booze Just as he did himself.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured,

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Great Play.

Archie Crosby, manager of the Voght opera house, at The Dalles, Or., today wires B. F. Meredith, manager of the Grand Opera House, as follows: "Boom Ghosts; great actors; great play; grand theme. Everybody should see it."

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular course of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.
