

Watches in a Tantrum.

Watches are trying, vexatious things when they get to acting badly. There are few inanimate things that can bother one more when they turn really obstinate and rebellious. But, no matter how balky and stubborn your watch may be, we will engage to put it into apple pie order once more at very modest cost. Our repairers know their trade. They fix a great many watches in the course of the year, and few, indeed, are the cases where their work does not give absolute satisfaction. They repair jewelry too, broken scarf pins, rings whose settings have worn loose, and all sorts of things of that kind, and do it as well as it could be done, anywhere. Have you work for them?

FAMOUS PLAYERS COMING

Baker Theater Company of Portland
Booked

Salem Will Witness the Most Capable Stock Organization in the West

Three times during the coming week the people of Salem will have an opportunity of witnessing the famous theatrical organization of the Pacific coast—the Baker Theater Company, of Portland. The engagement will be Friday and Saturday nights, with a special matinee next Saturday afternoon. The repertoire for the engagement is as follows: Friday night, "At the White Horse Tavern"; Saturday night, "Jane," and Saturday afternoon, "Charley's Aunt." These are a trio of the best legitimate comedies on the American stage. "At the White Horse Tavern" recently took Portland by storm, and, in a long review, the critic of the Evening Telegram said: "It is a comedy which all theater-goers who appreciate undiluted comedy will enjoy. It is one of the best comedies that the Baker Theater Company has presented in its long career." This play calls for the full strength of the organization. "Charley's Aunt" is another rousing comedy, and it has proved one of the hits of the Baker Theater Company. It was with this comedy that the company broke all its previous records during the engagement at Los Angeles last year. Portland people are also to witness "Charley's Aunt" next week, as the Baker Theater Company will give three performances of it at the Marquam Grand immediately before coming to Salem. "Jane," the Saturday night bill, is a comedy distinctly different from the other two mentioned. This is the play which is just now rousing so much comment in Portland on account of a novel advertising let-out to prominent business men, inviting them to attend, and which has occupied considerable space in the metropolitan papers during the past 10 days. "Jane" will be presented in Portland, after the company gives it in Salem.

The career of the Baker Company is well-known to the residents of Salem, for few from this city have visited Portland without enjoying a performance at the Baker. The Baker theater is the most popular theater in that town, and has made itself so on account of the fine performances given by the stock company housed there. The member of the organization have been selected because of their ability, and salary has been no object with Manager George L. Baker in gathering into his fold the best available talent. Among the players are actors who have scored individual triumphs in Australia and England, and others have won distinction in the East. The rest of the players have had long years of experience in the South and the Pacific coast. It is a common saying in theatrical circles that the Baker Theater Company is without a peer west of Chicago, and that it can hold its own with any stock organization outside of New York City.

That the Baker Theater Co. has deserved the kind words said of it by press and public will be proved conclusively in Salem next Friday and Saturday.

Editor Capital Journal, Salem, Or.:

Dear Sir: Knowing that Dr. W. H. Thomas is now practicing his profession with Drs. greatest of praise of his ability to handle all forms of disease, both acute and chronic, with entire satisfaction. He seems to make a specialty of rheumatism, diabetes, constipation, gall-stones, renal calculi, paralysis and dislocation, in the treatment of which he has been unusually successful. I myself have been cured by him of a severe case of renal-calculi.

During my term of office as county judge Dr. Thomas did county work, osteopathically, with the very greatest of satisfaction.

Very truly yours,
R. L. HUBBARD.
