

ENFORCES RESPECT FOR LAW

Game Warden Nye Serves a Little Feast of Justice

Pot Hunters of Morrow County Pay for Killing Many Deer Out of Season

A. W. Nye, deputy game warden for Eastern Oregon, has returned from Heppner, where he has been for several days, searching out violators of the game law.

"Yes, I was very successful in finding some of the violators of the game law, but didn't get near all of them," said Mr. Nye. "I arrested 17. One was acquitted and one case dismissed before going to trial, and 15 pleaded guilty and were fined $25 each. We captured 13 deer-skins. These skins will be sold and the money turned into the treasury, together with the fines."

"How did you learn of this wholesale slaughter?" was asked Mr. Nye.

"Well, the Heppner Gazette first published it as a news item—a mere rumour on the streets. When I read it I took the first train out for Heppner. I was only there a few days until I struck a warm trail which soon led up to the arrests. I swore out complaints and warrants were placed in the hands of the sheriff, who was not long in finding the whole 'shooting match.'"

"It is rumored that many condemn Sheriff Shutt for the active part he took in running down the trespassers."

"Oh, yes, I heard rumors of that sort, but there is nothing in it; the fact is Mr. Shutt did nothing except his sworn duty, but he did it with a vim, without shirking a single duty. He went through rain and snow sleep in a hay-mow for the lack of a better bed, made the arrests without fear, favor or hope of reward, regardless of friends or foes, served all alike, rich as well as poor."

"Was George Conser, the cashier of the bank, arrested for killing deer?"

"No, Mr. Conser is a very busy man—has no time for hunting—but he is very fond of deer meat, and whenever any of those hunters killed a deer Mr. Conser usually got some of it, and in that way I think he had the pleasure of getting more venison than some of the men who killed them."

"Anyway he had some quite fresh meat on hand when I got over there and when my attention was called to it, of course I couldn't overlook it."

"Is a man guilty if he eats venison which is killed in closed season?"

"Not if he does not get caught, but if it is found in his possession, then he is just as guilty as the man who killed it."

"Do you think it will stop the unlawful killing of deer over there?"

"It will check it for a while, at least. They don't know just how soon some fellow will drop in on them. You see this is the first arrest of the kind ever made in Morrow county, and I think I would be safe in saying that there has been more deer slaughtered there than in any other five counties in the state."

"From what you say, it would seem that everybody violates the law over there."

"No, not so bad as that. In fact, (except this game law) they are good, honest, law-abiding citizens."

CATARRH THIRTY YEARS.

The Remarkable Experience of a Prominent Statesman—Congressman Meekison Gives Peruna a High Endorsement.

Congressman Meekison of Ohio.

Hon. David Meekison is well known not only in his own State, but throughout America. He was elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress by a very large majority, and is the acknowledged leader of his party in his section of the State. Only one flaw marred the otherwise complete success of this rising statesman. Catarrh with its insidious approach and tenacious grasp, was his only unvanquished foe. For thirty years he waged unsuccessful warfare against this personal enemy. At last Peruna came to the rescue. He writes:

"I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."—David Meekison, Member of Congress.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

and I think there is not to exceed 50 or 60 of these constant habitual law-breakers, and they mostly live around the foothills and on the mountain.

"I will frankly confess that if those poor people living out there with their families would be content to go out occasionally and kill a deer for their own use, I would try to look the other way, but when it comes to rounding them up into a pot hole and trying to kill all there is in the mountains, selling it to those Heppner people who can get all the good fresh beef they want, there we have to draw the line."

"Was some of the meat sold in Heppner?"

"Either sold or given away, I don't know which. I was told that they had it on the bill of fare at the Palace hotel before I went over, but they seem to have 'cut it out' after I got there. I noticed in a few days Phil Metchan the proprietor, wrote in big letters on the bill of fare, 'No venison today.'"

"I am really afraid that Phil had some spoil on his hands."

"What does Mr. Baker, the state warden, think of your Morrow county raid?" was asked of Mr. Nye.

"He does not know anything about it. He is back east, but I know he will be very well pleased."

"The Portland Telegram has been 'harpooning' Mr. Baker ever since he has been in office, claiming that he and his deputies have not been active enough in enforcing the law. This, of course, was the only excuse for the Telegram to throw a hot shot at Mr. Baker, simply because he was a democrat."

"As a matter of fact, the records will show that in the first six months Mr. Baker reported more arrests and convictions than Mr. Quimby his predecessor, did in the last two years of his term. I never heard of the Telegram saying anything about Mr. Quimby."

"Do you know how many arrests Mr. Quimby did turn in, Mr. Nye?"

"Not of my own knowledge, but I have been told it was only 11 in two years."

"You have almost doubted that yourself haven't you?"

"No, not quite; I have only been in eight months. I have made 19 arrests and 17 of these pleaded guilty. I have only started in. I propose to keep up the good work until they respect the law or put me out of business."

GREAT COMIC OPERA

Olivette With Famous Lottie Kendall Leading

A Chorus of Beautiful and Talented Girls and Some Very Catchy Music

Few attractions before the public contain more pretty and stylish girls than does the Olympia comic opera company which plays an engagement of two nights commencing Friday, Feb. 26th.

In making an especial effort to secure beauties for the chorus, the management, Messrs. Seamans & Matchette had in mind the ever increasing desire of the public to see beautiful women who can wear the costumes as they should be worn, and women who can sing and dance with an understanding of what those arts mean. All of the above essentials have been combined in the beauty chorus of the Olympia company, and when it makes its appearance Friday night it is sure to create enthusiasm.

At the head of this famous organization of light opera singers and comedians, is probably one of the brightest little stars of the comic opera firmament, Miss Lottie Kendall by name. She is noted for her grace, beauty, intelligence and sweetness of voice, as well as for her superb ability to portray the principal roles in some of the late and standard musical compositions.

The principals that make up the cast in support of Miss Kendall are all well-known comic opera people of more or less national reputation, for instance Eleanor Jenkins, the dramatic soprano, has been with some of the best attractions out of New York. Carl Francis Hayden, the tenor, is also a big New York favorite, lyric-tenor. Carrick Major, the baritone, Robt. Pitkin, comedian and John E.

SAYS IT HAS ANNEXED COREA.

London Journal Reports That Japan Has Deposed the Emperor.

London, Feb. 24.—The Chronicle Tuesday had a dispatch dated Harbin, which states that news has been received there to the effect that the Japanese Minister to Corea has deposed Emperor Yi Hent, and has issued a proclamation annexing Corea to Japan.

According to a Chefoo dispatch to the Morning Post, the Russian troops are deserting by the wholesale in Manchuria. The Corea correspondent states that the report that Japanese have landed at Pigeon Bay and near Delny is confirmed.

The Standard prints a dispatch dated Seoul stating that a force of 2000 Chinese are harassing the Russians at Liao Yang. The correspondent states that several important bridges on the railway between Harbin and Vladivostok have been destroyed.

Grazing Permits in Demand.
S. C. Bartrum, of Roseburg, supervisor of the southern district of the Cascade forest reserve, who is in Ashland today on official business, says there is a greater demand than ever for free grazing privileges for sheep and cattle on the government reserve the coming season, and some of the stock men are bound to be disappointed. Application for sheep grazing permits which were received up to the date of closing of same Saturday, exceeded by from 50,000 to 60,000 the 100,000 sheep which the department has authorized to be pastured on the southern division of the reserve for the ensuing year. Applications for permits to graze cattle, which will be received for a few days yet, have already exceeded the 7500 limit, and owners of from 2000 to 3000 cattle will have to look elsewhere than on this reserve for range this year. The equitable adjustment of grazing privileges and granting of permits is one of the most difficult matters which the forest supervisor has to contend with, and it is growing more difficult year by year, as the demand for the free grazing privilege increases.—Ashland Tidings.

Turner Items.

Mr. Rolla Pressnal, the reform school cook, is at his work again, after several days' sickness at his home in Highland, Salem.

Mr. Frank Robertson was sent as a delegate to the state C. E. convention held at Pendleton. He will not return before the middle of the week.

Miss Josephine Neal, of Jefferson, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. J. Edwards.

Mrs. Henry Osborn has been sick the past week.

Art Smith and C. A. Bear were in Salem on business Tuesday.

Mrs. M. C. Smith and daughter, Eugenia, Miss Jones, Miss Lizzie Corneilus, Rev. Ennis and Mrs. Cole and son were Salem visitors Saturday.

Mr. William Bauta went to Marion Thursday, for a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Norton.

New Ticket Agent.

Arthur Commegys, of Eugene, for the past few years first trick operator at Grants Pass, arrived in Salem this morning with the intention of taking the position of ticket agent at the Southern Pacific passenger station. He will probably be checked in this evening. Mr. Commegys is not an entire stranger in Salem, for some years ago he served as night operator here when Mr. Skinner was ticket agent. E. F. Knowlton, of Albany, who has been acting as agent at the passenger station, is very desirous of returning home, and will welcome the new agent with open arms.

"In Was the Men."

An interesting social was given last evening at the Leslie M. E. church, for men only. A good program was rendered, and one of the features was a discussion, "Why do not men attend the church more?" After the program a social hour was spent and refreshments were served by the men. Although no women were present to lend a helping hand, the evening passed off pleasantly. About 50 were present.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address F. J.
