KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OFFICERS

Visit the Local Commandery
--Distinguished Guests
Entertained Last Night

Hon. George H. Hill, of Portland, eminent grand commander of the grand commandery, Knights Templar of Oregon, came to Salem last evening, accompanied by distinguished members of the craft, for an official visit to DeMolay Commandery No. 5, of this city. The local fraters were out in full force, and a most interesting and enjoyable session was held, followed by a banquet. Among the distinguished Knights Templar accompanying Grand Commander Hill from Portland were Dr. A. N. Smith, Henry Rowe, George A. Myers, A. M. Knapp, A. G. Tomasini, J. W. Cook, John Duckhart and Prof. Thos. Crawford.

The Portland delegation was received at the train by Sir Knights Geo. H. Burnett and Frank A. Turner. The Malta degree, in full ceremonial form, was conferred—the DeMolay No. 5 team being the only commandery in the state that confers that degree. There is a great deal of secret Masonic work that ladies and reporters are barred forever from knowing anything about. There was the usual amount of funeral chanting, the great chain was dragged out and slowly wound about the victim's neck, he was elevated to the ceiling, and dropped with a dull thud, and the bell tolled, and then, with a mighty crash and final clash the whole house was brought down about his ears, and he was dragged to the sacrificial altar, and the rest is too horrible to relate. The Salem Masons never do any of their degree work in a halfhearted manner, and the victim usually does not escape without a few bumps on his head that last him a month at least. But the Masonic reporter has promised not to give away any more of the secrets of the order, lest the cold and clammy waters of the Willamette close over another Morgan.

MISS SHELTON'S CLASSES

Splendid Programs Artistically Rendered Her Pupils Furnishing a Delightful Entertainment

The following is the program given by the juniors of Miss Shelton's class, it being the first of three recitals at her home. The little folks all did nicely, and were a credit to their affectionate teacher, whose pupils always make a fine showing, and improve very rapidly:

- Duet—"The Buglers," Helen and Dorothy Pierce.
- Caprice—Emma Osterman.
- Norma March—Francis Poble.
- "Bugler"—Ruth Holmes.
- "Pixies' March"—Maud Durbin.
- Duet—Gallatia Humphrey and Gertrude Cunningham.
- "Mountain Glee"—Lolo Cook.
- "En Route March"—Dorothy Pearce
- Studies Nos. 5 and 10—Mabel Smith
- "In the Dell"—Jennie Pearce.
- "On the Meadow"—Eileen Leech.
- "Wanda Mazurka"—Gallatia Humphrey.
- "Heather Rose"—Helen Pearce.
- "Heather Mazurka"—Veda Cross.
- "Dance of the Brownies"—Gallatia Humphrey.
- She also sang very sweetly "Swing on Your Own Apple Tree."
- "My Jolly Duchess"—Gertrude Cunningham.
- March—Eva Hall and Miss Shelton.
- The second intermediate class.
- Quartet—"Parade Review," Lela Damon, Blanche Knox, Mildred Perkins, Jennie Fry.
- Caprice—Mamie Pigler.
- "Cheerfulness"—Zoa Toothacher.
- "Snow Flake"—Lela Rigdon.
- Fifth Nocturne—Blanche Knox.
- Song—Cristie Clark.
- "Pure as the Snow"—Eather Leech.
- Duet—Blanche Knox and Zoa Toothacher.
- "Pearls of Dew"—Jennie Fry.
- Song—"How-De-Do," Gallatia Humphrey.
- Quartet—"Over Hill and Dale," Lela Damon, Blanche Knox, Mildred Perkins and Jennie Fry.
- Nocturne—Claire Jones.

The musicale given by the pupils of the older and higher grades, assisted by Miss Ermine Bushnell and Miss Galatia Bushnell in the parlors of the Congregational church, Saturday, the 19th, at 8:15 p. m.

"Nietze Katcher," Behr, by Misses Inez Wheeler, Ermine Bushnell, Nina Bushnell and Edith Mapleshorpe, was very charmingly played and with good fine spirit.

Zelma Patton gave Dorn's beautiful arrangement of "Il Trovatore." Inez Wheeler sweetly played "Loch Lomond," by Brown. The air was peculiarly and particularly characteristic. Gounod's immortal waltz from "Faust" was brilliantly given by Misses Nina Bushnell, Lena Clark, Myrtle Duncan and Anna Pigler. It was really the most effective and beautiful number on the program. Dear little Gallatia Humphrey sang in her childish but artistic manner, "Swing on Your Own Apple Tree" so well that she was compelled to give another number, her encore being "How-De-Do," and her acting was especially graceful.

Misses Nina Bushnell and Zelma Patton gave Durand's "First Valse" delicately and in good measure. Edith Cleaver gave Julie Rive King's "Bubbling Spring," in lightness and clearness. Norin's "Country Dance" is rarely ever better given than Miss Lena Clark and Miss Shelton played it. Nina Bushnell gave (a) "Valse Stryenne" (b) "Witches' Dance," MacDowell, artistically. Her style is light, bright, clear, and her fingering beautiful. "Soldiers' Chorus," by Misses Nina Bushnell, Lena Clark, Myrtle Duncan and Anna Pigler. Hertha Duncan's "Recollections from Home" was dear and sympathetic. Miss Ermine Bushnell sang "Little Boy Blue," and as an encore for her splendid efforts sang "Maid of Dundee." Anna Pigler's "Spring Song" was pretty and springlike. Myrtle Duncan's "Concert Polka" was full of expression. The Scotch dance by the quartet was a gem.

Miss Shelton seems especially fortunate in procuring good numbers in class work, and they are always admired by her audiences.

Alice R. Society.
The Alice R. Society of the High School was held yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by President Horace Sykes, and the minutes were read by the secretary, Miss Margaret McGee. An interesting debate was given, the question being: "Resolved, That women should have the right of suffrage." The leader on the affirmative was Emma Nered, on the negative Harvey Slater. The judges decided in favor of the negative. A committee was then appointed for getting the program for the next meeting.

"The Treue Club."
The Treue Club delightfully entertained a number of their boy friends last evening at the home of Miss Barbara Durbin at a "Heart Hunt." The Durbin home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in daffodils and ivy, which were artistically arranged in each room. Each member of the club wore large bouquets of daffodils, and the guests were given daffodil buttonholes. The evening was very pleasantly spent. Hearts was played, and an interesting "Hunt for Hearts" was had in which there was a great deal of merriment. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. Little Miss Maude Durbin served punch very charmingly to the guests.

The club is composed of eleven charming young misses, and this is the first party they have given, but it is enough to show they are ideal entertainers. The officers of the club are: President, Anna Strong; vice-president, Ellen Thielson; secretary, Althea Moores; treasurer, Sophia Catlin; remaining members are Madeline Walker, Barbara Durbin, Louise Brown, Mildred Perkins, Evelyne Calbreath, Mildred Bagley and Mary Eakin.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT ENTERTAIN

Contest for Members Ends in a Magnificent and Enjoyable Banquet

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT
For the past few months Silver Bell Circle, No. 43, Women of Woodcraft, has been divided into two sections, termed the "Reds" and "Greens." In a contest for securing new members. The contest has closed, and the "Reds," captained by Mrs. J. Stapleton, won the day. Last night the "Greens," under the leadership of Mrs. Holcomb, paid the debt thus incurred by them, in the shape of an elegant banquet, the "Reds" and a number of their friends being entertained by them.

The banquet was served in the dining hall, after the lodge session had closed, and the room was beautifully and tastefully decorated in green and white, and the tables heaped with the best of good things to eat, and decorated with beautiful flowers, and the happy company, both victors and vanquished, enjoying a splendid time until a late hour.

Social at Chemawa.
Friday evening the Modern Brotherhood of America held an open meeting at their hall about three-fourths of a mile west of Chemawa, in which about 100 members and their families participated. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. P. E. Hall. Several songs were sung by the audience, led by Mr. John Hall and his sister Mrs. Beauty. Recitation by 6-year-old Master Willie Neumyer. Subject: "When Dad Was a Boy," brought down the house, Tilmon Ford delivered the address of the occasion, and, after more singing, a fine oyster supper was served by the ladies of the lodge. When the meeting adjourned, about 12 o'clock every body voted Friendship lodge, No. 1076, Modern Brotherhood of America, a decided success as entertainers, and went home happy.

To Indian War Veterans.
At Albany today there was held a meeting of Indian War Veterans, for the transaction of important business. Hon. Thomas Walt, of Salem, delivered an address.

FRATERNAL VISITORS TO ALBANY

Salem Odd Fellows Spent Last Night With Their Linn County Brethren

A number of the members of Willamette Encampment No. 2, L. O. O. F., of this city, went to Albany last evening on a fraternal visit to Orgeana Encampment No. 5, the occasion being the initiation into the mysteries of this branch of the order of eight men—untamed cayuses from the ranges in the Mill City neighborhood. About 100 patriarchal Odd Fellows had gathered for the occasion, and a most enjoyable time was had by all. Among the members in attendance, outside of those residing in Salem, were many from Halsey, Brownsville, Lebanon, Corvallis and Independence. The encampment met at 7:30 o'clock, and the work of initiation began, and continued to 4 o'clock this morning, by which time the three degrees had been conferred on the entire class, teams from Halsey, Brownsville, Corvallis and Salem assisting the local organization. At midnight a recess was taken, and the gathered hosts sat down to the banquet board, which, in accordance with the custom of the order, was all that could be expected. Speeches were made by a number of distinguished members, and, after the work was over, a social session was enjoyed, the Salem members coming home on the Albany local train this morning. Those present from here were: J. A. McLean, D. L. Smith, Samuel Heimroth, W. H. Pettit, Wm. Frost, Ray L. Farmer, Frank F. Toeva, J. A. Mills, J. W. Young, Harley O. White, Lee Baker. The members of the Albany encampment promise to return the visit at an early date, when similar festivities will be held here.

Walter Lyons who, as private secretary, used to furnish the gray matter for the Geer administration, was in the city today.

MAY HAVE ANOTHER CARNIVAL

Proposition Made to the Woodmen of the World Last Night

A proposition was last night made to the Woodmen of the World in this city, by the Southern Carnival Co., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, to conduct here, during the month of August, a street carnival, under the auspices of the order, and the matter has been taken under consideration. The proposition was made H. L. Leavitt, the advance agent, and is that the Woodmen secure the grounds and concessions from the council, in the shape of remission of licenses, the Woodmen to secure 25 per cent of the concessions, and 15 per cent of the gross receipts from other sources. A committee was appointed to secure the concessions, when, if satisfactory arrangements can be made the contracts will probably be signed with the carnival company. The plan is to run the carnival here for five days, and Mr. Leavitt assures the Woodmen that his aggregation of shows is one of the best on the road. This same company played a number of towns in Oregon last year, but has grown to such proportions that only the larger cities will be visited this season.
