

RUSSIAN WAR SPIRIT IS WANING FAST

Unpopularity of the Asiatic Campaign Growing Manifest

The Czar Will Do Without Wines, Cigars, Caviar and Sardines--as Usual the War Expenses Fall With Utmost Severity on the Working Classes

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The czar, following the example of Russian workmen, most of whom contribute seven per cent of their wages as a war fund, has ordered his household expenses cut at least four roubles daily. The proceeds to go to the Red Cross society. He has denied himself liquors and side dishes, such as caviare and sardines, which are more expensive than meat in Russia, and curtailed his daily supply of cigars. Fruit is served only on state occasions. The newspaper Novosti, however, complains that public interest in the war is flagging. This is particularly noticeable in the diminished contributions to the Red Cross funds.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—Orders are about to be given at the work shops at Sormovo for the construction of an immense steel dock at Port Arthur, to be completed in four months. A Port Arthur dispatch this morning states that damage done by one of the torpedo boats, the Silni, was to the steering gear of a steamship. A Japanese named Skeds was arrested for taking photographs of the town of Chata, near the Manchurian frontier. Compromising papers were found.

Port Arthur Closed at Last. Tokio, March 28.—According to Japanese accounts Admiral Togo has made a successful attempt to bottle Port Arthur. On Sunday four steamships were sunk across the mouth of the harbor. Later in the day the Japs' battleships began a bombardment.

Commander of Russians. Rome, March 28.—The Agenzia Libera reports General Kourapatkin's arrival at Lia Yang, in Manchuria.

much discussion in diplomatic and official circles over the intimation that Great Britain, through the new French entente, is seeking to compose her differences with Russia. The Novosti, which has long been the leading exponent of this idea, today editorially contended that nothing but an ingrained distrust keeps the two nations apart.

The Novosti goes further, in proposing a European coalition, under the auspices of Russia, France and Great Britain, to combat "the yellow danger," and says:

"We have always maintained that a new triple alliance would assure the balance of power, not only in Europe, but throughout the world."

The Novosti gives Emperor William credit for a prophetic realization of the "yellow peril." The article concludes by urging the powers to settle the Asiatic problem once and for all by apportioning territory.

"If they hesitate now," says the article, "they will have to do so sooner

London, March 28.—The Central News bureau, of Vienna, quotes a Kishineff dispatch stating that Prince Suroff, governor of BesArabia, has declined a petition by the Jews asking that he postpone until after the passover the introduction of the expulsive law. All Jews within a radius of 50 versts of the western frontier must remove to the interior, adding to the congestion within that pale.

ern Federation of Miners, was unable to secure bondsmen, and was still a prisoner in the county jail. Unfortunates who own property were willing to become surety, but were quietly informed not to go on Mercer's bond, as it will make them persona non grata. Three other exiles have returned, and thus far are able to elude the military.
