

OUR GREAT Opportunity

SALE Commences Tuesday Morning, April 12

The OPPORTUNITY presented itself, we embraced it. It is now up to the people to take advantage of this OPPORTUNITY. Our buyer has just returned from Portland where he made the purchase that enables us to do for Salem and surrounding country that which has never before been attempted on so grand a scale. The Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co., 208-210, 1st street, Portland having decided to drop all Eastern made furniture and confine themselves wholly to manufacturing gave us the tip that a great sacrifice price was being placed on all eastern goods in order to quickly clear their warehouses for the new leases who are already moving in. Their sacrifice lines include

Iron Beds, Odd Dressers, Dining Tables, Buffets, Side Boards, Chairs, Rockers Parlor Tables, Etc.

This stock is bright and new and no shop-worn sample will appear among it. This is the OPPORTUNITY of the season to buy fine furniture at jobbers' prices. Make it a point to investigate this great OPPORTUNITY and do it early in the week.

BLEW UP THE HORSE

Tender Hearted Idaho Farmer Adopts Novel Means to Kill Deceitful Equine

Grangeville, Idaho, April 15.—John Eckert, who lives near here, had a narrow escape from death yesterday, because he was tender hearted. There was a horse on the farm which he had owned for nearly 20 years. Its hold on life was so precarious that it had become emaciated holding on. Yet Mr. Eckert hesitated to cut the thread which bound the animal to this existence.

Finally when the horse was unable to eat, and a tottering skeleton, the kind-hearted farmer conceived a plan for its destruction which would spare his feelings, be quick, sure and painless.

He bought two sticks of dynamite, a cap and a bit of fuse. He tied the dynamite together, inserted the cap and fuse in one stick tied the death-dealing bundle around the horse's neck and lighted the fuse.

Then he started for the orchard, about 60 yards away, at as brisk a run as his 60 years would permit. But he hadn't gone far when he heard a noise behind him. He turned about and beheld the poor old horse, mad with fright at the sizzling fuse, trotting close at his heels, and proceeding as energetically as a coal.

Mr. Eckert settled down and did some really wonderful running. A barbed wire fence separated the orchard from the barnyard, but he took it like a college hurdler. The horse not have been trained to follow hounds, fooled, and to this Mr. Eckert probably owes the fact that he is still alive.

He thinks he covered about 50 acres of orchard land in the next two seconds, and then something happened. The next thing he knew he was nicely placed in the forks of an apple tree. About 100 feet of the fence was down, and the horse had vanished completely.

Mr. Eckert was in Grangeville yesterday to see what could be done toward repairing the disordered functions of his left ear, which has refused to recognize sound.

SO DIFFERENT.

Lots of Claims Like This But so Different—Local Proof is What Salem People Want.

There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, harder to prove.

Statements from far-away places. What people say in Florida. Public expression from California. Ofttimes good endorsement there. But of little service here at home. Salem people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home indorsement counts: It disarms the skeptic beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a case of it:

James A. Tanner, farmer, corner Thirteenth and Lewis sts., says: "So many suffer from kidney complaint that for a time I was alarmed about myself for I was troubled with my back aching in the region of my kidneys. I think it was caused first by a strain from heavy lifting I did two years ago. I kept getting worse instead of better and finally consulted a doctor. He told me I had gall stone in the bladder, but trouble with kidney secretions existed their too frequent action disturbed my rest from fifteen to twenty times a night. This was very annoying and I was in a bad way when I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at Dr. Stone's drug store. To say I was surprised at the speedy effect of their use is putting it mildly. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to others and will always have a good word for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.
