

The case of Miss Frankie Orser, of Boston, Mass., is interesting to all women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered misery for several years. My back ached and I had bearing-down pains, and frequent headaches. I would often wake from a restful sleep in such pain and misery that it would be hours before I could close my eyes again. I dreaded the long nights and weary days. I could do no work. I consulted different physicians hoping to get relief, but, finding that their medicines did not cure me, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was highly recommended to me. I am glad that I did so, for I soon found that it was the medicine for my case. Very soon I was rid of every ache and pain and restored to perfect health. I feel splendid, have a fine appetite, and have gained in weight a lot."—Miss FRANKIE ORSER, 14 Warrenton St., Boston, Mass.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, sick and discouraged, and exhausted with each day's work. Some derangement of the feminine organs is responsible for this exhaustion, following any kind of work or effort. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as it has thousands of other women.

JEWELS BLEW AWAY

Mrs. Nellie G. Sartoris Loses a Bag of Gems While Fighting Breeze

New York, April 19.—The wind that whirled around the Flatiron building turned robber today, and relieved Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris of $5000 worth of jewels.

Mrs. Sartoris, accompanied by her maid, while passing the Flatiron, carried a small bag containing jewels in the bosom of her dress. The wind was blowing very hard, and Mrs. Sartoris could hardly keep her feet. In the effort to do so she forgot her bag of jewels.

A few minutes after she had passed the corner, and was out of range of the wind, she remembered the bag, and discovered that it was gone. She thinks the wind blew it away from her and that some one picked it up.

"I do not care so much for the intrinsic value of the gems," said she tonight, "but they were given to me in Washington during the last 25 years by friends and some of my relations, including my father, and every one of them was dear to me."

Detectives are searching for the lost property.

The Good of Medicine.
People insisting that medicine does no good, have one stubborn fact to contend with, that is, the people who do believe are greatly in the majority. We have been so fortunate during the past twenty years as to convince thousands of sufferers with weak watery blood, who had all the symptoms of a general breaking down of the system, that one medicine at least does good. Nervous and unsteady people can have strong steady nerves, and solid healthy flesh by the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. A tablet to take at meal time, it turns the food you eat into rich, red blood, making solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 pounds per week. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. This medicine saves doctor bills and insures health, giving the very best treatment possible.

Portland and Return Only $2.20.
The Southern Pacific is now selling round trip tickets to Portland from Salem for $2.20, good going Saturday a. m., or any train of Sunday, returning Sunday and Monday, giving all day Sunday and Monday in Portland. The same arrangement applies from Portland, giving all Portland people a chance to visit valley points at greatly reduced rates.

TRAMP STEALS AUTO

Enjoys Life in Machine and Clothes of Wealthy Quaker

Philadelphia, April 19.—John Doecker, a wealthy young citizen of Barrenhill, Montgomery county, left his automobile in front of his house at Barrenhill last Tuesday. A tramp climbed into it and ran off with it. In the auto was a suit case filled with fine raiment. This the tramp donned. Soon Merino, Overbrook, Ardmore and towns along the main line were amazed at the apparition of a dirty faced hobo, with a week's growth of beard, but in stylish clothing, dashing about in a fine auto.

The tramp went into stores, ordered stuff, had it put in his whip car and then dashed away, heedless of the shouts of the storekeepers. He had a revolver and sometimes amused himself by shooting at his pursuers. Yesterday he entered a Merino butcher shop, terrorized the proprietor and stole a ham, some bread and two cans of peas. When he was pursued by a crowd he stopped the automobile and emptied his revolver at them.

Another of his amusements has been to appear on fashionable drives and doff his hat politely to young women in autos. The police have made strenuous efforts to capture the tramp, but he has managed to elude them. A reward has been offered by Doecker and the police officials for his capture.

FOUND WIFE IN BARBER SHOP.

Major Heistand, Candidate for Divorce, Is Reconciled During Shave.

Los Angeles, April 19.—Through patronizing a woman barber shop, Major W. H. Heistand, United States Army, retired, has effected a reconciliation with his wife, who was suing him for a divorce. Major Heistand's domestic troubles have been aired in the courts. Last week he was put under bail by Justice Pierce to keep the peace. He was forbidden to go near his wife or annoy her in any way during the pendency of her divorce suit.

The major appeared in court today with his wife on his arm to ask that the injunction against him be dismissed and his bail money returned. They had become reconciled, and this is how the major explained it:

"I went this morning to get a shave and just by accident went into a woman's barber shop. I wasn't noticing anything, and sat down in the first vacant chair, and as the operator deftly twisted a towel under my chin it occurred to me how soft and familiar her hand felt. I glanced up and there I was gazing into the hands of my wife. It was the smoothest shave I ever had, and we have made up our differences."

Neuralgia

And All Other Pains Can Be Quickly Relieved.

And what is equally as important, with ease and perfect safety, by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, the pleasant, harmless, reliable cure for all kinds of pain.

Good Shoe Sense

The best way to make your shoe dealers do their full duty is to exercise your shoe sense.

The best shoe-sense says—"Buy Selz Royal Blue shoes"; and that means a less number of shoe-dollars than usual; it means as good a shoe as you ever wore, and means pay $3.50 or $4.00 for it.

Whenever you find the name Selz on a shoe, you find a good shoe; money's-worth.

Ask your dealer for them and if he doesn't supply them write to us.
