WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Scott's Emulsion not only gives a child weight and plumpness, but it feeds the brain, bones and nerves with strength and active power.

Fewer mothers would worry if they knew more about Scott's Emulsion.

CONSTABLE ARRESTED TROTTER

Bond and Was Taken Into Custody

G. D. Trotter, of Stayton, was again evening, but Portland friends helped him out. Trotter came to town last week for the purpose of putting up a cash bond of $500 for his appearance accordance with an order made by Justice Queener, of Stayton. Trotter did not put up the money for some reason, and went to Portland. On his return Saturday evening he was arrested by Constable Smith, of Stayton, and committed to Sheriff Colbath's custody. R. L. Sabin and Allen & Lewis, of Portland, telegraphed the necessary bonds, and he was released.

Fruit Growers Adjourn. The Salem Fruit Growers' Union met Saturday at the office of H. B. Thielsen. There was quite a large attendance. A motion was made that the Union adjourn for a year, and one voted each way, and the chair declared it carried. Owing to a lack of inter est, it was thought best not to attempt | They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out to carry on the work of the Union this season. Many who got the benefit of the Union last year, and expected to do so again this year, will be disappointed, and some expressed the opinion that the growers had made a serious mistake to not keep up their organization. After adjournment a few of the larger growers decided to meet again in two weeks, at the same place,

Old Pete Wolf.

An Astoria paper says: The remains of Pete Wolf, whose body was found in the mud flats near his seew at Svensen, Friday, were brought to this city last evening. It is commonago. The body when found lay face where he had walked in the water out to the spot where the body was found. He was a native of Holland, about 65 sailor some 30 years ago, and served in the Chilean navy. In this city he was believed to be partially demented but was considered harmless. His per hobby was the quality of a bed of brick-making clay which was on his place, and out of which he dreamed for many years of making a fortune some time.
