CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1036 Winnemac Avenue,
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches afflicted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep my bed. The pains were so intense at times that I could scarcely get up. I had tried every medicine and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

LUMBER KING BOOTH

Represents Solid Business Interests of Lane

His Services to the State and to This Part of the Valley Especially Are Indispensable

Hon. Robert A. Booth who represents Lane, Douglas and Josephine counties as joint senator, and is a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket, is a native son of Oregon, born in Yamhill county, May 15, 1858. He received his education at the Umpqua academy at Wilbur. In 1880 Mr. Booth embarked in business at Yamhill, following merchandising and lumber business for six years. In 1886 he went to Drain, where he was vice principal of the Normal school for one year and principal during 1887 and 1888. In 1890 he organized the First National Bank of Southern Oregon at Grants Pass and was chosen cashier, later becoming president of the bank. In 1895 Mr. Booth became manager of the Sugar Pine Door & Lumber company, which position he held until in 1897, when he organized the Booth-Kelly Lumber company, which is the largest lumbering concern in the state, with headquarters in Eugene, and which has been and will continue to be a mighty potent factor in the development of Lane county and a remarkable stimulus to the business of every business man in Lane county.

Mr. Booth has served one term as senator and from the first has stood in the front rank amongst the leading senators and representative men of the state. In matters of important legislation Mr. Booth stands in the front rank as an advocate of measures that are beneficial to all classes as well as to the business interests.

While Mr. Booth belongs to the largest business establishment in the state he is a strong advocate of the incorporation tax law, by which the corporations of Oregon, including that of the Booth-Kelly company, have paid over $200,000 into the state treasury during the past year.

Another valuable law that has been praised by every paper in the state, regardless of party, is the assessment law, by which the assessments of the different counties have been equalized thereby forcing counties like Multnomah to pay their share of state taxes and keeping up their assessments.

Mr. Booth is the type of business man in which the entire state has implicit faith. He is conservative, thoughtful and careful in handling legislative matters, and the people will never have a man in whom they can place more implicit faith or confidence that will not be abused than in Hon. Robt. A. Booth.

Lane county is in its development period, and a man of such executive ability as Mr. Booth possesses is pre-eminently the man Lane wants in the state senate to help advance the diversified interests of the county.

The menace that confronts this part of the valley is the danger of being shut out from competition on freight rates. Mr. Booth has a watchful eye on this situation and he will be a powerful factor in the senate in securing for the valley and the agricultural as well as the commercial interests proper consideration at the hands of the railroad company, who recognize in him a man who can do more toward securing reasonable
