Thursday's Game.
At Salem—Salem 7, Vancouver 3.
At Roseburg—Roseburg 5, Eugene 3

Vancouver was in a trance yesterday and when they awoke, providing they are awake, the locals had helped themselves to enough marks to insure an addition to the percentage column and defeated the Foreigners by the score of 7 to 3. The game was yellow, in fact as colored as professional ball usually gets, except it might be the Portland Browns, that is from a Vancouver standpoint. The entire team was drowsy, and apparently careworn from their arduous duties of the past week and they looked like a band of orphans in a wilderness. Not that the Foreigners can not play ball, but yesterday they were out of sorts and salt-peter would not have saved them from annihilation.

The Raglans played almost errorless ball and their team work was fast and snappy, unlike the slow and uneven gait of their opponents. There were a few good plays, notably the homerun of Downie, a clear cut skyscraper that had doodles of space between it and the top of the fence and some fast fielding by Davis, Johnson and Downie of infield grass burners.

JUMPED FROM BRIDGE

Stephen Limbeck of Pratum Committed Suicide in Portland

The body of an unknown man was found in the river at Portland several days ago, and not until last night was it identified. Joshua Sutter, of Marion county, went down to Portland yesterday, and recognized the corpse as that of Stephen Limbeck, of Pratum.

Mr. Limbeck went to Portland several days ago, and had not been heard from, and his friends were uneasy lest some accident had happened to him. When Mr. Sutter arrived at that city he was told of an aged man who had committed suicide by jumping from the Morrison street bridge, and a visit to the morgue disclosed the fact that it was his friend and neighbor.

Mr. Limbeck was in comfortable circumstances, and has two sons living, Andrew of Pratum, and Paul, of Seilo.

CLOTHING

For Boys and Children

We wish every mother in this town would make it a point to see our boys' and children's clothing. Suits at $2.50, $3.50, $4.50 up to $7.00, but prices don't count, unless you sell the cloths.

You can't keep the boy quiet—might as well try to harness the stars—buy him good clothes and let him go it.

Bring him here and there will be no trouble, before or after you buy.

This and next week with every boys' suit sold, from the ages of 4 to 11, we will give a handsome new waist.

Two-Piece Suits

In our show window we are displaying some handsome two-piece suits. Just the thing for summer and not expensive. No! $9.00, $10.00, and $11.00 buys you the best.

SALEM SOCIAL EVENTS

Adams-Farlow Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred at the home of the bride's parents, in this city, Wednesday afternoon, May 11th, at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Maude Adams was united in marriage to Mr. J. Lee Farlow, of Albany, Or., in the presence of immediate friends.

The bridal couple entered the parlor to the beautiful strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Margaret Fisher, and they were here met by Rev. W. R. Horschuch, pastor of the Evangelical church, who performed the ceremony. The bride was charming in a gown of white silk, with silk applique, while the groom wore the conventional black.

The Adams home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the parlors in ivy and cut flowers, and the dining room in green and white. Festoons of ivy hung from the ceiling, while white flowers were banked in great profusion about the room. The dining table was festooned with smilax and white flowers intermingled with green leaves.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Adams, and is one of Salem's popular and highly esteemed young ladies. The groom is the son of Mr. C. Farlow, of Marion, Oregon, and is one of the most prosperous young business men of Albany, where, after a short trip to the Sound cities and Portland, they will be at home to their many friends. The many beautiful presents received testify as to their many friends, who all wish them much joy and happiness in their future life.

Brazilian liquor and sweet bread (coffee and cake).
On the reverse side of the cards were a number of thoughts suggested by a penny, very cleverly arranged. Mrs. Gatens won the first prize at cards and Mrs. Moore received the consolation.

Those present were, Governor and Mrs. Geo. E. Chamberlain, Judge and Mrs. F. A. Moore, Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wolverton, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ackerman, Judge and Mrs. R. S. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Gatens, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houston, Mrs. Caroline Shelton, Mrs. Ida Vaughan, Miss Wallace, Miss Moore, Mr. James Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Crawford.

Salem Woman's Club.
The annual meeting of the Salem Woman's Club will be held Saturday, May 14th, at the Presbyterian church parlors. A full attendance is desired as there is to be held the yearly election of officers of the club, a constitution is to be adopted for the Salem Public Library Association, together with the election of a board of trustees for the library association. The meeting begins promptly at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. W. A. Cusack has been the very acceptable president for the past year and may be re-elected, although it is understood that Mrs. Russell Catlin, present vice-president, may be promoted to the presidency.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and, unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its natural condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

Board Considers Ordinance.
The city board of health met at the recorder's office last evening to consider the proposed sanitary ordinance. Those present were President J. B. T. Tutthill, Commissioners C. S. Hamilton, F. E. Smith and Theo. Barr and Secretary Judah. The ordinance was discussed, and, after a few minor changes, the board reported favorably on it, and instructed the secretary to take the measure up to the council at the next meeting for consideration.

Brown's Orchestra.
The greatest aggregation of orchestral players that have ever left Portland supplemented by some of Salem's musical artists will be used at the May Festival.

Colored Child Died.
A colored child named Waldo died on North Commercial street this morning, aged two years, of brain trouble.

La Grande city hall bonds were sold to a local banker at $15 premium.

Getting Labor Statistics.
Labor Commissioner Hoff is sending out a second list of questions to the factories and mills in the state, concerning the conditions sanitary and life protecting. Over 800 letters were sent out a few weeks ago by the commissioner, but he has received only about 200 replies, and will endeavor to get information from all institutions disregarding the first letter.
