GIVEN A DASE OF DRUG.

Prominent Portland Elk Was Knocked Out by a Thug.

Stockton, Cal., May 14.—A. J. Johnson, a member of the lodge of Elks at Portland, lies in a hospital here in a very precarious condition, his mind wandering and a high fever burning within him. Johnson is a victim of knockout drops administered in a nearby mountain town by a young thug who subsequently robbed him. Johnson is a commercial traveler, and has often been in this part of the state before. He came to town suffering from the effects of the drops, but his case was not regarded as serious. Later he developed symptoms which greatly alarmed his attendants, and his lodge in Portland was communicated with. He is seized with a sort of dementia which breaks forth at intervals. Between these spells he lies in an unconscious condition.

Our Geneva Trap

We have just received one of the most complete little two or four passenger driving rigs ever shown in any carriage repository.

As a one-seated rig it has something the appearance of a stylish Stanhope, but in a moment's time it can be changed into a light two-seated rig—making this an ideal rig where one does not wish to own both a runabout and a surry.

Call and see this; you'll be interested.

Plenty of other fine driving wagons. All sorts of prices, from $50 up. Cheaper road wagons, $40 and up. Top buggies, too, $60 upward.
