

Motherly Advice.

Every mother possesses information of vital value to her young daughter. That daughter is a precious legacy, and the responsibility for her future is largely in the hands of the mother. The mysterious change that develops the thoughtless girl into the thoughtful woman should find the mother on the watch day and night. As she cares for the physical well-being of her daughter, so will the woman be, and her children also.

When a young girl's thoughts become sluggish, when she experiences headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep, pains in the back and lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, and a dislike for the society of other girls, when she is a mystery to herself and friends, then the mother should go to her aid promptly. At such a time aid nature a little and prepare the young system for the coming change by using

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Case of a Young Girl, of Interest to Every Mother and Daughter in the Land.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write you these few lines thanking you for what you have done for me. I was in a terrible condition, could not eat or sleep, had no strength, felt tired all the time. I had such a bad color that my mother was very much worried about me. Also suffered with headache, backache, pains all over. Menstruation was very irregular and scanty, and had such bearing-down pains. I have taken both the Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and now I am a well girl. I cannot be grateful enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies have done for me. I would advise all who suffer as I did to write to you for advice.—Miss KATIE C. CONNOR, 102 S. Franklin St., Wilmington, Del."

A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can produce proof of the fact must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine the world has ever produced.

It is well to remember these facts when some druggist asks you to buy something which he says is "just as good." That is impossible, as no other medicine has such a record of cures as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so do not experiment with untried medicines, but insist upon the one you know is best.

X-RADIUMS

There's the chronic growler and the professional. But, both are useful.

Hiram Washburn, of McGregor, Ia., left today for points in Southern Oregon. He is much pleased with what he has seen, and likes Salem very much. He was especially pleased with the editor's trotting horse and bull dog, and says they can't be beat, and our old Iowa friend is a good judge.

Ah, well, the campaign would be weary if the Democratic papers didn't have Binger Hermann's record to jump onto. There is a whole lot of philosophy in the alwise providence that supplies fleas to keep the dog's mind occupied.

A man whose reputation is at stake generally gets it burnt.

The political newspapers and politicians are afraid to say their soul is their own on the Local Option bill, the Direct Primary bill, and lots of other things. Therefore The Journal is neither a political newspaper nor a politician.

HOW IT STICKS.

Salem Has Found It Hard to Shake Off.

Hard to bear, harder to get rid of, is any itching skin complaint, eczema or itching piles.

Doan's Ointment relieves and cures all itchininess of the skin. Scores of people endorse this statement.

Mrs. Dr. M. Amos, residing 1111 East Second street, Albany, says: "I had for quite a long time a sore over my eye, and while it was not painful, it was very annoying and I wanted to rid myself of it. I happened to read an advertisement about Doan's Ointment and got a box. Its use cured me. The sore entirely healed up. I know that Doan's Ointment does all that is claimed for it. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for dull heavy aching across my joints, and while they did not cure me, I think them a very good remedy. You may refer to me as one who can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and Doan's Ointment."

Plenty more proof like this from Salem people. Call at Dr. Stone's drug store and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The People's Choice.

For many months the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as the Republican standard bearer has been regarded as a certainty. This conclusion was based on a recognition of what he has accomplished during his occupancy of the White House and of his undoubtedly popularity with an ever increasing majority of the people. Today, however, his nomination can be demonstrated mathematically. There will be 988 delegates to the Chicago convention, 614 have already been chosen. Of this number 508 have been instructed for the President. These numbers speak for themselves. Nearly five out of every six delegates so far selected, stand instructed to vote for Mr. Roosevelt. He has already a majority, which in the Republican convention is all that is required. Of the uninstructed because it is the custom in the districts from which they come.

This exceptional tribute to the President appears all the more flattering when one realizes that the Republican party has now in its ranks many able men, tried and well known who would be available, were the country looking for someone else to place in the White House. Speaker Cannon, Secretary Shaw, former Secretary Root, Senators Fairbanks,

Secretary Taft and many others are available in every sense of the word.

Mr. Roosevelt's victory is not due to the inactivity of his enemies—for he has enemies, but few bitter, especially among powerful and selfish men, who oppose as presidential candidates, any one who fails to regard their interests as paramount to the interests of the nation. In striking contrast to this unanimity of the Republicans is the condition of affairs in the Democratic party. Of the possible candidates, Judge Parker, leads with an instructed delegation from New York. Hearst is his active rival and Bryan denounces him bitterly. Senator Gorman tries to hold a position of scheming neutrality, in the contest between the rival New York candidates. To make matters worse for the Democrats, their convention can act only by a two-thirds majority.—McMinnville News.
