Friday's Games.

At Salem—Salem 8, Albany 0.

At Eugene—Roseburg 8, Eugene 3. "Slats" Taylor, a long, gangling youth with several mysterious things in his sleeve, played the Raglans at athletic park yesterday under the name of the Albany baseball team. He was not provided with an automobile or a flying machine he could not cover the entire enclosure, but he worked at it with the vim and vigor of Sunny Jim. He was assisted by a young man named Donovan who pitched the ball for a small bingle. Donovan also lacked apparatus in the way of a step ladder or sky ladders at the first pocket and when the ball would drift in from the pasture it was generally where the other fellows were who are drawing salaries from Mr. Prebel, up in the air.

Salem made a monkey of the nine boys who had on the new uniforms from the Calipoola town, and only one error crept into their column, but it was different with the other side. Seven mealy, raw and inexcusable plays cost runs a plenty and at times the fans shut their eyes and held their breath.

The cohorts of Joe Fay had plenty of ginger in them and were as frisky as milk fed calves. They played ball "at the time" as Joe Wilkins is continually saying, and had the poor chaps from up the country at their mercy. They batted like fiends, chased their proboscides around the circle at a lively gait and caught the elusive leather with the certainty of tangefoot.

Califf pitched a magnificent game, perhaps the best on the diamond this year and only allowed one hit. He had splendid support at every point. The score was as follows:

second and came home on Williams hit, making the first score and earned run. He also made the second score of the game, but it was not so much to his credit, as he was slightly assisted by three errors.

Guy Wilkins should come in for his share of the credit for a very pretty sacrifice in the second inning.

Sl Davis has the distinction of being the only man to get better than a single off "Slats," and his nice two-bagger in left garden added at least two scores to the Raglans' already large bunch of marks. The Albany boys failed to do any-things in the hitting line, with the exception of Donovan. He started off well, getting a single and stealing second, but the playing of the rest seemed to discourage him, and he didn't do a thing more.

There were some good catches made by the Albany outfielder, Harper, cheating Fay out of at least a two-bagger, and Graves taking one away from Nehring in the eighth.

Wild throws were the features of the Albanies. It looked as though they were trying to display their muscle, for every time they threw the ball it would soar away in the air but would fall to come to earth at the place it had started for. We would like to respectfully advise the boys to get a string on it.

Umpire Derrick umpired the game yesterday impartially, and gave to both sides his usual satisfactory decisions.

The Albany baseball boys say that the Raglans carry two horse shoes in the bag with their balls.

A Wild White Rose.

The florist of The Journal reportorial force has discovered a perfectly white wild rose, and those who wish to see this rarity can do so by crossing the South Commercial street viaduct, and on the east side of the street, clambering over the railing to the sidewalk is the wild white rose in full bloom. This shrub should be preserved and cuttings transplanted.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Band Concert.

The Salem Military Band gave a concert last evening on the corner of Commercial and State streets. They rendered several beautiful pieces in a most charming manner, which were greatly appreciated by the crowd present.

Good Track Work. Joseph Fisher, the trackmaster of the Citizens' Light & Traction Company, is earning the gratitude of drivers of nice rigs by putting down the best crossings and planking between the tracks that has ever been done in this city. He is a very competent man for the position he is in, and is also getting the low joints up on some of the lines, so that riding on the cars becomes more of a pleasure than a stormy experience.
