If, on the other hand, he has had experience with adminis trations of that party, and knows that it is unsafe to trust with the reins of government, it is his duty to cast his ballot without equivocation or hesitation for the straight Republican ticket, state, district and county.

The candidates returned from the northern part of the county last evening, and went out to Pratum this morning. The chairmen were busy all day arranging the details for election and will not stop until the polls are close! on election day.

Chairman Chas. A. Murphy, of the Republican central committee, said: "The lowest man on our ticket will have 500 majority. The average majorities will exceed that by several hundred, however. Our campaign has been conducted along honorable lines, without personalities,

"We have made our fight for party principles, and have asked the voters to support the ticket, not only because our candidates were worthy of THEM cause our candidates were worthy of their votes, but because the policies of the Republican party are on trial. Chairman D. V. Vaughn, of the Democratic committee, said:

"We have made a clean, hard fight, and, while the interests of every candidate on our ticket have been cared for, we have devoted the greater part of the joint canvass to Corby, Huckenstein and Harding. This was made necessary owing to the position assumed by the opposition.

"We have made the issue for an ecohomical county government, and against the lavish use of the taxpay-
