HERMANN VOTES GROWING

His Plurality May Reach Seven Thousand—Unofficial from Seventeen Counties of First District

The total official vote for Binger Hermann in this congressional district may reach 8000 plurality, but will not fall below 7000. Considering the fierce attack that was made on him by the Democratic newspapers, his vote is a surprise, and shows that there must be a large mass of people outside of the Republican party who have confidence in "Binger."

Hermann Pluralities. Following are estimated and unofficial pluralities for Hon. Binger Hermann in this congressional district on the returns so far as received by the congressional chairman at Woodburn:

Some Friendly Telegrams. Roseburg, Or., June 6, 1904, 11 p. m. Col. E. Hofer, Salem, Ore.: Many thanks for first tidings of election returns in Marion. The majority there exceeds expectations. My home county good majority.

BETTER STILL, with repeated acknowledgements from me in appreciation for the swelling plurality. Let us remember the Gold Hill "Thirteen."

Cooling Off.

The man who would sit on a cake of ice to cool off would be considered crazy. Yet it is a very common thing for a person heated by exercise to stand in a cool draught, just to cool off.
