Corvallis Boy Disappears With out Any Apparent Cause

Albert, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wyatt, who are wealthy farm owners, disappeared from the Newton school house, near Corvallis, Wednesday noon. When he left he bade some of the scholars "good-bye." At 12:30 o'clock some workmen on the telephone line saw a boy pass toward Corvallis who answered Wyatt's description, and after that all trace is lost.

Search was instituted later in the afternoon in the locality of the school house, but was of no avail. The next morning the distracted father made a diligent search of Corvallis, but in vain. A photograph and description was placed in the hands of Sheriff Burnett this afternoon, but in case no trace is found the latter will go to Portland, and there continue the search. Whether the boy had money is unknown to his father, who can find no motive for a runaway, and fears some fatal accident.

Albert was one of triplets, there being two boys and one girl, all of whom are living. The Wyatt farm is two miles west of Corvallis.

Oregon Exhibit is Too Modest.
L. Allen Lewis, president of the wholesale firm of Allen & Lewis, and wife have returned from a trip to Chicago, New York and the world's fair in St. Louis, says the Oregonian. Mr. Lewis went East nearly a month ago, to serve on the committee of merchants from coast cities who protested at Chicago against freight rates which the Spokane jobbers were seeking.

"At the St. Louis exposition I was pleased at the location of the Oregon state building," said Mr. Lewis, "but the display from the state is altogether too modest. This is particularly true of the horticulture exhibit. There are a few apples, but the display is very poor. In the agricultural department we saw some fruit in glasses, but the exhibit is very poor. Near me stood a man and his wife, and I heard them express doubt about the fruit being genuine. All canned fruit, in a measure, loses its natural color, and there seemed some ground for the doubt expressed by the strangers. There is a fairly good display of grain.

"As yet the exposition is by no means complete. Many of the exhibits have not been put in place. In fact, the American fine arts building has not been opened. Another unfortunate feature while I was there, resulted from the heavy rain and the mud, a condition that led to the temporary closing of the building of the French government, and some of the other buildings of foreign governments.

Grinnell Fifty Years Old.
Grinnell, Ia., June 10.—Just 50 years ago J. B. Grinnell, to whom Horace Greeley made the well-known statement, "Go West, young man, and grow up with the country," arrived here and founded what has grown into the pretty college town named in his honor. The entire town devoted today to a celebration of the semi-centennial. Business was generally suspended and the streets were in gala attire. Historical exercises were held near the college campus, the speakers included pioneer settlers and several relatives of the founder of the town. The celebration concludes this evening with a banquet and general illumination.

Walcott to Fight Jackson.
Baltimore, Md., June 10.—A ten-round fight between Joe Walcott, the welterweight champion, and "Young Peter Jackson" is the attraction arranged by the Eureka Athletic club for the entertainment of its patrons tonight. As both men are fast fighters and hard hitters the contest is expected to be a lively affair from gong to gong.

MAGNATE LOOKED COMMON

Harriman Was Compelled to Have Stubbs to Vouch for Him

New York, June 10.—E. H. Harriman's fondness for a slouch hat and an attire that is comfortable, although possibly not entirely stylish, was responsible for an embarrassing incident when two of his railroad employes compelled him to identify himself when he sought to enter his private car at the Grand Central station.

Harriman was correctly attired in a frock suit and a silk hat when he first entered his private car, in company with his secretary and some railroad officials, but he soon donned a slouch hat and a loose-fitting sack coat stepped from the car to the platform for a stroll. When he started to re-enter the car a uniformed trainman barred his way. "This is a private car."

"That is all right," said the head of 20,000 miles of railroad, "it is my car."

"You're nutty. On the other side of the platform for yours," said the trainman.

"I am Mr. Harriman," said the slouch-hatted man.

"Gwan out of here," commanded the trainman. "Harriman is in his car, and he don't want to see any such lookin' man as you."

A second uniformed trainman endorsed the opinion of the first. The timely arrival of Vice-President Stubbs made it possible for Harriman to get aboard his car.

Harriman while on the St. Louis fair grounds recently, had to be identified before the doorkeeper would let him re-enter the hall in which a banquet was being given in his honor.

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—A delegation representing the Lincoln-McKinley association of veteran voters left St. Louis this morning on a pilgrimage to Canton, O., where memorial services are to be held tomorrow at the tomb of President McKinley. Hamilton-Richardson Nuptials.
At the home of the brides' parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. Hamilton, of Roseburg, Or., Wednesday, June 9th, occurred the wedding of Miss Stella Hamilton and Mr. W. H. Richardson, Rev. Geo. H. Bennett, of the M. E. church officiating.

The bride is a popular young lady of Roseburg and is well known in Salem, where she has spent part of the past winter with her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Crawford, of this city. She has many friends here, who wish them much happiness and success in their wedded life. The groom is a member of the drug firm of Fullerton & Richardson, of Roseburg, and is a young business man of sterling character, and most popular among a wide circle of friends.

They have gone for an extended wedding trip to the Sound cities, and on their return will make their future home in Roseburg.

Political Chatter.

H. George Meyer will be one of the active anti-Mitchell leaders in the fight from now.

Marion county will be well represented in the next legislature. Besides the eight senators and representatives who reside here, at least five former Salmmites will have a voice in the next session. Jay Bowman, of Wheeler; Dr. George S. Wright, of Yamhill, and U. S. Laughry, of Polk, will be in the senate, while Henry Sonnemann, of Douglas, and R. E. L. Steiner, of Lake will occupy seats in the house.

Bird Club Meets.

The Salem Bird Study Club will meet at 7:30 at the Unitarian church tonight. Mr. William Warner has kindly consented to bring his fine collection of specimens and give an address. All interested in the study of birds are cordially invited.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair. Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.
