

SALEM SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Shelton's Recital.

The first musical of the commencement season, was given by the advanced pupils of Miss Beatrice Shelton, Tuesday evening, at the M. E. church, and with roses and ferns in profusion, the dainty summer costumes of the young misses it was truly a lovely scene. The opening number "Imaginary Tante" Brahms, by Mrs. Jessie Albert, Miss Beatrice Shelton, Mrs. Grace Pierce and Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, was a fine piece of work in time, style technique and ensemble. Miss Edith Cleaver gave (a) "The Whispering Wind" Wollenhaupt, (b) "Ghost," Schytle, in a charming way. Her first number being particularly good.

Miss Marie Stone played (a) "Etude Melodique" Raff. (b) "Ricordate" Gottschalk, with exquisite touch. An excellent selection, "Dr. Carter and his Mother" was read by Miss Elina Byrn in her usual fluent manner and was much enjoyed.

Nina Bushnell gave three McDowell numbers, (a) "Henautana," (b) "Melodie," (c) "Elfenfant" in perfect time which were well received.

Rossini's immortal "Semiramide" was well given by Misses Nina Bushnell, Lena Clark, Myrtle Duncan and Edith Cleaver. Miss Bertha Duncan gave "Recollections of Home"—Mills bringing in all the familiar melodies. Miss Hallie Parrish Hinges sang in her magnificent voice, "Maid of Aleria," Whites idea of that message. Her second number was "I Will Extol Thee Oh Lord" from Oratorio of "Eli" which was enjoyed by every one present and as an encore, she gave "Mah Lil Sweet Sunbeam."

Miss Myrtle Duncan gave two selections, (a) Impromptu C Sharp minor—Reinhold, (b) "Loves Dreams" in fine time and brought out the thought very effectively. "Mendelssohn's 'Midsummer Nights Dream' was a fitting closing number and was well rendered by Mrs. Bertha J. Darby, Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth Evans and Miss Grace Babcock.

Miss Shelton certainly deserves praise for the splendid recitals her pupils give every season.

A Beautiful Church Wedding.

Last evening, at the St. Paul's Episcopal church, occurred the wedding of two of Salem's social favorites, Miss Edna Hubbard and Dr. Wilson D. McNary, Rev. Simpson, of the Portland Episcopal church, officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Roses and marguerites were in profusion, and beautiful palms and ferns graced every space, and transformed the room into a floral garden.

At 8 o'clock Miss Claire Holmes, presiding at the organ, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Tillson, violinist, played the wedding march, and the bridal party entered the church and matched to the altar, where they were met by Rev. Simpson, who performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends.

The beautiful bride wore a handsome costume of white chiffon cloth, trimmed in real lace, en train, and wore a long tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Jessie Holmes, who wore an extremely pretty gown of white net over green, and carried pink carnations. Misses Claire Holmes and Elizabeth Tillson were becomingly gowned in white.

Dr. McNary was attended by his brother, Lawrence McNary, of Portland.

Mr. Otto Wilson and W. H. Burghardt, Jr. acted as ushers. Twelve of the bride's particular girl friends occupied the front seats of the church. Miss Frankie Richet caught the bride's bouquet.

After the ceremony, the bridal party received the guests in the rear of the church.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. F. E. Hubbard, and is one of Salem's fairest and most accomplished young ladies, and she is very popular in the society circles of the Capital City.

The groom is an enterprising young physician in the employ of the Oregon Insane asylum. He is a very popular young man, and has many friends in this city.

The happy couple left on last night's overland for an extended wedding trip in Southern California. On their return home, they will take up their residence at Dr. McNary's cottage on Asylum avenue.

They have a host of friends who wish them much happiness and success.

Mrs. J. J. Murphy and Mrs. A. H. Dodd entertained a few of their friends at luncheon on Thursday afternoon, at the Murphy home on Court street. Mrs. David Tuthill was the guest of honor.

An Early Morning Suit.

R. M. Wade & Co., of Salem early yesterday morning filed an action against Slate Bros., of Tangent for the recovery of a large sum of money and 80 acres of land, together with a block in the town of Tangent and some personal property. The suit is brought to recover the amount of a note for $1,141.65, dated November 30, 1903, with 6 per cent interest, $100 attorneys' fees, and $364.01 alleged to be due for goods sold since the note was made. Slate Bros. are merchants in Tangent where they conduct a hardware store. Hewitt & Sox are the attorneys for the plaintiff, and the complaint was filed at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, when County Clerk B. M. Payne was called out of bed to file the papers and issue the attachment proceedings.—Albany Herald.

Second Musicales.

The second of Miss Shelton's delightful musicales will be given this evening at the First M. E. church at 8 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, vocal, and Miss Gertrude Johnson as reader. Little Miss Gallatia Humphreys will sing also. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Notice.

It is now against the ordinance of the City of Salem, Oregon, to erect, or maintain, barbed wire, or barbed wire fencing along the line of any street or alley within the corporate limits, and notice is hereby given to all citizens to immediately remove such wire under penalty of said law. Ten days from this date prosecutions under said ordinance will be made in this relation.

Dated June 1, 1934.
H. C. TARTLEY,
Street Commissioner.

In all departments of active service stand in need of the readiness of mind and promptness of action which depend on a healthy nervous system. Let a railroad man be "rattled," and every life depending on him is in danger. A great many railroad men have found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a valuable tonic for the overstrained nervous system. It builds up the body, purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and induces a healthy appetite and refreshing sleep.

I suffered for six years with constipation and indigestion, during which time I employed several physicians, but they could not reach my case," writes Mr. G. Popplewell, of Kureka Springs, Carroll Co., Ark. "I felt that there was no help for me; could not retain food on my stomach; had vertigo and would fall helpless to the floor. Two years ago I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and little 'Pellies,' and improved from the start. After taking twelve bottles of the 'Discovery' I was able to do light work, and have been improving ever since."

Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing and get Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper covers, free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Helped Himself to Coin.

Monday night a bartender in a Shaliko saloon opened the safe, took $600 and two pistols, and started across the country for The Dalles. Officers there failed to overtake him, and word was sent to Sheriff Sexton, who started out yesterday afternoon, and came across the man this side of the Deschutes, bringing him in this afternoon. The fellow had made the assertion that whoever got him would have a tough time of it, but, so far as we have heard, Mr. Sexton had no difficulty. We have, however, been unable to get particulars, as he arrived shortly before we went to press. The Dalles Chronicle.

Professor Lilly Dead.

Professor George Lilly, died at his home in Eugene, Wednesday afternoon, after a long illness aged 55 years. His condition was not considered serious until a few days ago, when he began to sink rapidly. Professor Lilly was well known in Western Oregon; he has been a professor of Mathematics from 1894 to 1901 at the University of Oregon, and was one of the most prominent educators on the Pacific coast.

Cows Held Convention.

About 20 or 30 cows, more or less, held a convention up town the other night, and passed some 40 or 50 resolutions, chief among which was one which declared they had the softest snap of any herd on the coast, which leads us to remark that it is about time our city fathers either shut up the cattle or the streets.—Hillsboro Independent.
