CANNON GETS ANGRY

Says He Does Not Want Vice Presidency

Calls the Leaders Down for Trying to Force the Office on Him

Chicago, June 20.—Without doubt Cannon is the most interesting personality here, and around him centers the most gossip, and on him are looked hopes that something may happen to lift the convention out of the rut of dryness. But the Illinoisan is somewhat in his opposition to the

A well-defined story is afloat that certain West Virginia, Missouri and Pennsylvania delegates are preparing to launch a presidential boom for Cannon, and that they propose at the next meeting to put a number of bands on the streets at the heads of processions of delegates, bearing Cannon banners. It is needless to say that the plan has not the support of either Penrose or Scott, and is the usual thing at every convention, like the talk to nominate Roosevelt for President instead of McKinley at Philadelphia four years ago, and the similar talk of nominating Hill instead of Bryan at Kansas City. Cannon is not averse to the plan. He has been seen in Uncle Joe's room. He told Sherman that he understood that he (Sherman) was the moving spirit in the New York delegation that was conspiring to stampede the convention to Cannon for vice-president. "I don't want this (—) nonsense stopped," Cannon said. "I would not accept the vice-presidency if it were studded with diamonds and presented to me on a platter of solid gold." Sherman said that Uncle Joe was the worst cooking that he ever got in his life. "Oom Shelby" and Governor Yates, of Illinois are at it hammer and tongs for control of the delegation and ultimate seat in the session. This afternoon the delegation will select a chairman, and Cullom declares he will have a majority. Yates disputes this, and the final vote will be close.

More Fring Heard.

Tokio, June 20.—Fring was heard today off Shimoseki, and it is surmised that the Russian fleet has reappeared in the Korean straits.

ENGLISH PERIL IN THIBET

Young Husband in Danger of Being Cut Off

Learning From Experience How Better to Cop: With the Forces of the British Mission

Gyangtse, June 20.—The situation throughout Thibet is growing more serious daily, and the British mission will have to fight strenuously to maintain its prestige. Scouts report that large forces of the natives are massing at several points between Khangma and Halong, while 7000 Thibetans are holding the route south of the latter place.

There were more than 7000 at Jone, while smaller bodies are reported at a number of points, where they are in a position to cut the British to communications. The facts are believed to indicate that the Thibetans are resolved to do everything in their power to prevent reinforcements reaching Colonel Younghusband and his band.

Not only are better arms and ammunition arriving daily for the Thibetans from Russian and Chinese sources, but the Thibetans are also learning more and more about the art of warfare, and their recent dispositions argue that they have seriously taken to heart the lessons gained from the earlier operations of the British. They are not wanting in pluck, and it will probably cost the British dearly before Lhaessa is finally occupied.

No War With Christians.

London, June 20.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Tangier, under date of June 19th, says that a letter had been received from Raisuli, in which the bandit said:

"It is well that the Englishman and the American should know the truth regarding my doings, and the reasons why I have taken Perdicaris. All that has been said at Tangier about me, as well as the statement that I hate the Christian Europeans, and want to drive them from Morocco, is wrong. I desire to do no wrong to any Christian. Should trouble come it will come from Europe, for if troops are landed we will fight."

Raisuli lays the cause of the present trouble to the deposed governor of Tangier, who, with his family, governed Tangier for generations, persecuted Raisuli's tribe, killed boys, mutilated children and disregarded all the principles of their religion.

Russian Fleet Reported to Have Entered Port Arthur

Shanghai, June 20.—German advices by wireless to Tien Tsih says that the Russian Vladivostok fleet of four cruisers entered Port Arthur in a fog last night, outwitting the Japanese. During the trip the Russians destroyed 10 transports.

RUSSIAN NAVY IS ACTIVE

Japanese Army Has Scored More Victories by Land

Another Big Battle is Being Fought.

Lia Yan, June 20.—A general engagement is proceeding near Kai Chow. The first rain bearing the wounded has passed here, going north.

Tokio, June 20.—General Oku reports that after the battle of Telissu the Japanese buried 1516 Russians found dead on the battlefield. Burials are not yet finished. The natives say the Russians buried, burned and carried off many of their other dead. The Russian casualties were appalling. Vice-Admiral Kamimura this morning in an official message expresses regret that he failed to encounter the Russian fleet. It is understood the Russian Vladivostok.

Rome, June 20.—A Chee Foo telegram states that the Japanese bombardment of Port Arthur was to test the range of the guns. The Russians replied to the fire, but the Japanese guns had the greatest range.

Yikow, June 20.—A force of 60,000 Russians have occupied Tealmaki, north of Sluhen; also a considerable force is at Halhola, near Tachlo.

Admiral Barker's squadron arrived from Lisbon today at Gibraltar, en route to Tangier.

DAVIS WAS AFRAID

Of a Cross-Examination the Two Prisoners Laid

New York, June 20.—Samuel Pearson, formerly of the Boer army, and Cornelius Vanderhought, arrested a month ago, charged with writing a threatening letter to Former Assistant Secretary of the Interior Davis, had bail discharged this morning, owing to inability of complainant to appear. The case is now dismissed. Defendant's declare Davis was afraid to submit to a cross-examination as to the disposition of $40,000 entrusted to him by the Boer government.

At Kansas City, Mo., 20 are reported buried in a collapsed building.

GORY AND MORE GRUESOME

Details of the Slocum Disaster Are Wearying

The Coroner's Inquest Will Now Go Over the Causes of the Wreck

New York, June 20.—Seven bodies, three women, three girls and a boy, victims of the Slocum disaster were picked up on the East river and in Long Island Sound before 9 o'clock this morning. This makes 637 bodies recovered to date. Bodies are coming ashore every hour at different places. In all 575 bodies have been recovered and identified. Thirty funerals took place this morning. The relief fund to date amounts to $35,000. Of this $15,000 is expended on funerals, and about $10,000 has been disbursed for temporary relief. The relief committee proposes raising an additional fund of $125,000 to be used for the care of orphans and aged persons. The coroner's inquest to determine the responsibility of the accident began today. Over 200 witnesses have been summoned, and exhibits, including the decayed life preservers, canvas hose, water valves, standpipes, etc.

Plant's schooner yacht Ingomar lost the Kaiser cup race from Dover to Helligoland on time allowance. The race was won by Valdora. Ingomar finished first, two hours of Valdora.

Congressman Hitt is still confined to his room, but is some better today.

NO TARIFF TINKERING

Will Be Encouraged in the Republican Platform

Secretary Shaw Says the Iowa Revision Idea Has Been Buried

Chicago, June 20.—Besides the vice-presidency and the national chairmanship, the platform is beginning to arouse interest among gossips and politicians.

Secretary Shaw this morning said: "In my judgment the tariff will come first. The declaration on that subject will practically follow the one of four years ago. There has been no change in conditions, and the utterances of the party will be reiterated. The Iowa idea has been shelved by Iowa itself, and, although there will be no declaration to the effect that there will be no revision of the tariff schedule, neither will there be any promise of a revision in the near future or later. Of course, the platform will consider the trust question. The administration policy will be approved, but there will be no declaration calling on congress for riotous action. There will probably be a demand that the tariff be removed from articles on which there is no competition no trade, but I don't think it will go farther than that."

The party admits the need of tariff revision. The other subjects in the platform will touch and concern relations of this government with foreign countries. To accomplish this the
