LAST GAME OF SERIES

 Eugene Lost Four Straight to the Invincible Raglans

Solem s, factenem:
 Roseburg 16, Albany 6.
The Sunday game was by long odds he best exhibitione of the series, and was won by Salem, About 800 people witnessed the game, and were dem onstrative when a good play was made on elther side. Clynes stole made on eilher side. Clynes stole what apparently was a perfectly safo by making a long run and nalling the ball just before it hit the ground. He recelved hearty applause, but at the Davis made an exceptionally long ran and cheated McFarland out of a bin gle. It was one of the best catches of the year, and when' 81 tried to sneak in to the bench without attracting at tention he recelved an ovation lasting tention he recelved an ovation lasting several minutes.
Emerson occupled the box for the Emerson occupled the box for the Ragians, and he had all sorts of myse teries for the Blues. They falled to score unth the elghth when Briseno was presented with a free ticket, Mc Kune singled, and the little shortitop fireworks in their pocket, but it was a faise alarm.

Salem made one in the third, firth and seventh and four in the ninth. They touched McFarland pretty free ly, although he had good support. Umplre Derrick barely escaped being mobbed It the sixth Inning by the Eugene players. He called Radford out at home and the whole team mase a rasa foy the diamond. They shoved bim around, and, for a time it looked pretty dublous for the umplre. pretty dublous for the umplre.
The score wae as follows:
Salem.
