

HERO OF SAN JUAN HILL

Will Again Storm the Pinnacle of American Ambition—Biography of the Republican Nominee of the National Convention

Theodore Roosevelt renominated for President by the Republicans, was known as one of the most unique and picturesque figures in American public life when he was elected to the vice presidency in 1900 and succeeded to the Presidency a year later through the death of William McKinley. His diversified and vigorous activities had not only brought him recognition and advancement in political life, but won him renown on the field of battle, in the Bad Lands of the west, as ranchman, hunter and cowboy, and also in the more peaceful pursuits of honors in the literary world.

In contravention of well-established tradition concerning national heroes, the President was born in a great county offices and in depriving the board of aldermen of their veto power of the mayor's appointments. This was a relic of the Tweed regime.

In 1884 Mr. Roosevelt went to Chicago as a delegate to the Republican national convention. He opposed the nomination of Blaine, but when Mr. Blaine became the Republican choice, Mr. Roosevelt fell into line and worked for the party candidate's success. After retiring from the legislature Mr. Roosevelt spent some time at his ranch in North Dakota.

In 1886 he was again in the turmoil of New York City politics. Henry George was a candidate for mayor, Abraham S. Hewitt was the nominee of the Democrats. Mr. Roosevelt was put in the field by the Republi-

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Roosevelt. He was nominated at Philadelphia, June 21, 1900, for the second highest office in the gift of the people. Mr. Roosevelt, it is said, was unwilling to have his name presented to the convention, declaring that he did not desire the nomination. There was a great popular demand for his nomination, however, and he finally yielded. He had served but little more than 6 months as vice president when the assassination of President McKinley resulted in his elevation to the executive chair.

The wife of President Roosevelt was Miss Edith Kermit Carew. The President has 6 children. The eldest, Miss Alice, is now twenty years old. The others are Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., now 16; Kermit, aged 14; Ethel, 12 years old; Archibald, nine; and Quintin, six. The President has been married twice, Miss Alice being the child of his first wife, who was Miss Alice Lee of Boston.

American Women Take Part.

London, June 21.—Queen Alexandra in Albert hall this afternoon opened the great bazaar in aid of the Victoria hospital for children. The magnitude of the present undertaking, which lasts three days, quite eclipses any affair of the kind held since the great national bazaar in aid of the Boer war, sufferers. The stalls are attended by titled personages and the elite of London's society. The Countess of Cadogan is the chief promoter of the affair. Other prominent participants are Mrs. Ronalds, Mrs. Arthur Paget, the Duchess of Roxburgh, Mrs. George Cornwallis-West and Princess Henry of Prussia.

Very Annoying to Some People.

People that are known to be weak and sickly, by their neighbors, are asked the question every day whether they are feeling better. Do you feel stronger? Are you gaining flesh? Their friends know if they are gaining flesh, it is one of the sure signs of returning health. If they can only get a remedy that will make solid flesh, recovery is assured. People with nervous troubles, loss of flesh and strength, no ambition, languid, and always tired, have this watery blood. The food they eat does not nourish them, it does not make blood. If after each meal they would take Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic, their food would be turned into rich, red blood, making solid flesh and strength. The tablets are sold in boxes by all druggists for 75 cts. or 3 boxes for $2. People who use this tonic gain in solid flesh from 1 to 3 lbs. per week, they feel better and know they are on the road to health. For sale by Dr. S. C. Stone, druggist.

Books Will Open.

By a provision in the direct primary law enacted last Monday at the polls, registration of voters will be resumed this Autumn for the November elections. Heretofore the registration law has been deficient in that respect, for it has required electors to register prior to May 15 in order to vote in November for president, or else to vote on the affidavit of six freeholders. County clerks throughout the state are required to reopen the registration books "between September 20, 1904, and 5 o'clock p. m. of October 20, 1904, and between the same dates in each and every year thereafter in which there shall be an election of presidential electors." In November the first elections for prohibition will be held under the local option law on the same day as the election for president, namely, November 8.

SALEM SOCIAL EVENTS

W. U. Musicale.

The forty-second public recital of the College of Music was given last evening at the First M. E. church before a good-sized audience. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar was banked with ferns and marguerites, while the choir gallery was a mass of roses and ferns; garlands of ivy were draped around the pillars with pleasing effect. The program consisted of 10 numbers, vocal and instrumental, and every number was well given, and reflected great credit upon their instructor. Those taking part were: Vocal, Misses Una Baker, Bessie Thompson, Ida Evans and Mrs. M. L. Dorris; instrumental, Ruth Heppel, Elizabeth Will, Jennie Sanders, Waldo Heppel, Margaret Fisher, Ellen L. VanPatten and Lela Tarpley.

The ushers for the evening were Misses Margaret McGee, Oda Welch, Ellen L. VanPatten, Lela N. Tarpley. Tonight, at the M. E. church, at 8 o'clock, the closing exercises of the Oregon Institute (the preparatory school) will be held. Rev. Albert Henry, D. D., pastor of the First M. E. church, North Yakima, Wash., will give the address to the graduating class.

Wedding Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Prunk announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss E. Lena Prunk, to Mr. Hiram H. Saxton, to take place Monday, June 27th, at the home of the bride's parents.

Old Machine Shattered.

On Monday the entire force arrived and the old guard machine was routed. Talk to one of them today, and you get a meek statement that Corleyou will be chairman, and that they are for him. They have heard from the little fellow who represents the district, and who are direct from the people. They find a mighty sentiment among the mass of Republicans in favor of Roosevelt. The last of old reorganization displaced on the national committee by new men includes Kerens, of Missouri; Sheldon, of New York; Stewart, of Illinois; Hawley, of Texas. The old machine has been shattered. Roosevelt is the leader. His picture now hangs in public places and looks forth from the badges; his name figures in the conversation among the groups of men and the cheers of the crowd.

Revive Frozen Fish.

That fish, cold-blooded as they are, can be frozen and thawed back to life, if not exposed to the sun or allowed to get more than 12 to 14 degrees below the freezing point is asserted in the Medical Times on the strength of a series of experiments recently made made by the Washington state fishery commission. "If exposed to a temperature of zero they will not survive. Fish can be taken from the Columbia river and the Alaskan waters in a frozen condition and resuscitated in other rivers and lakes, or carried to any part of the world under the same conditions with the same results."

Manufactured at Home.

Eugene Eckerlen has just placed in his saloon a complete new outfit of bar fixtures. The bar and backbar are 24 feet in length, and are built of solid Manila mahogany. They are the work of Otto Schellberg, with the Brown-Lehman Company, of this city, and are as fine pieces of mechanical skill as can be made in any work shop.

Linn's First Sheriff.

Mr. Isaac Hutchins died at Detroit last night, at the age of about 80 years. He had the distinction of being the first sheriff elected in Linn county, taking his office in 1849, and being re-elected four times, the elections then being annual. He was a pioneer of '46 or '47, a man of splendid character and attainments.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness, Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause—you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Daniel J. Fry, Special Agent.

GOODALE LUMBER CO.

PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

city. His birthplace was in East 20th street, New York city, and the date October 27, 1858, which made him the youngest President when he succeeded to that high office three years ago. His father, Theodore, belonged to an old and wealthy Knickerbocker family, and his mother was a descendant of Archibald Bullock, first president of Georgia during the Revolution.

As a young man Roosevelt was exceedingly frail from a physical viewpoint. He was sent to private schools during his early school years and preparation for Harvard university to avoid the rough treatment of boys in public schools. He was a devotee to all athletic sports at Harvard and when he graduated from that institution in 1880 his health was very much improved. After extended travel in Europe, he returned to this country, studied law for a few months and then plunged at once into the maelstrom of municipal politics. He was elected in 1881 an assemblyman from the 21st assembly district of New York. At Albany he was promptly dubbed a "silk stocking" and a "freak of a popular election." Mr. Roosevelt, then but 23 years old, soon succeeded in making himself the storm center. His best known work in the legislature at this time was in connection with the passage of the acts abolishing the fee system in cans. Mr. Hewitt won. Roosevelt next attracted notice as a hunter of big game. He delighted in hunting the grizzly bears and other fierce animals of the west.

President Harrison in 1889 appointed Mr. Roosevelt United States civil service commissioner. President Cleveland retained him in office, although Mr. Roosevelt resigned in 1895 to become president of the New York board of police commissioners. His service as police commissioner was of a most strenuous type and he was credited with effectually stopping the police, blacking of saloonkeepers.

President McKinley appointed Mr. Roosevelt assistant secretary of the navy, which office he resigned at the outbreak of hostilities with Spain. Returning to the Bad Lands, Mr. Roosevelt organized his famous regiment of Rough riders for service in Cuba. The history of Roosevelt and his famous regiment of Rough riders during the Santiago campaign is well remembered. Returning to the United States after the campaign was over, Col. Roosevelt found himself already talked of for the Republican gubernatorial nomination of New York. He was nominated and elected governor over Augustus Van Wyck, the Democratic candidate by 17,786 votes.

From the governor's chair to the vice presidency was but a step, although an unwilling one, for Mr.
