SALEM SOCIAL EVENTS

Music Alumni.

The alumni of the College of Music held their reunion yesterday. Miss Ethel Raymond and Mr. Scott Bozorth, both former graduates, gave a selection, and Mrs. Margaret Holbrook gave a reading.

Miss Ellen L. VanPatten, of the class of 1904, was then introduced to the association.

The officers elected for the coming year were: President, Scott Bozorth; vice-president, Mrs. Mary S. Denton; secretary, Miss Ellen VanPatten; treasurer, Miss Lela Tarpley.

After Many Years.

Yesterday the Willamette University echoed with the memories of the past, and all day the class rooms and society halls were filled with a crowd of men and women who had sat and studied there many years ago. A business meeting was held in the afternoon, and in the evening an open meeting was held in the college chapel. The addresses were made by members of the alumni of the University, and were full of thought and feeling for the good old days, which would never come to them again, but were being enjoyed by the present generation. The alumni was well represented last evening; the platform of the chapel was filled with a company of bright, useful and energetic people.

The exercises were opened with an invocation by Dr. Wm. Heppie. The class of 1904, was then introduced by the president of the association, Ida H. Vaughn. Miss Ethel Raymond, '01, then gave two selection in her inimitable manner, which were accorded much appreciation from the audience, to which she responded with an encore. The speakers of the evening were Miss Sophia Townsend, '03, who spoke on the subject "After One Year." She gave a very humorous view of the subject, but it was much enjoyed by all. Prof. J. T. Matthews, '39, subject was "The Beginning of the Willamette University," and it was very interesting, and well handled by Prof. Matthews. Hon. H. H. Hewitt, '70, of Albany, was the next speaker. His theme was on the "Mind of Man." His address was full of deep thought and advice for accomplishing the most good in the world, and it was much appreciated by his fellow students and the audience.

Mr. Scott Bozorth, '96, gave a bass solo, "Israel" which was very good. The program closed with an invocation by Dr. Coleman.

After the entertainment the annual banquet of the alumni was held, to which the members and a few invited friends were present.

It was held in the halls of the Philodorian and Philodorian societies and after a good social time, refreshments were served, and at which time the annual love feast took place. Mr. M. G. Royal, of the class of 1875, was toast master, and the task was most ably performed by him. The first toast, "The State of Oregon," was responded to by I. Manning, after which Mayor Frank Waters spoke on "The City of Salem." He said Salem had done much to aid and support the University, and thus they were more closely united. Mrs. Ida T. Vaughn responded to the toast, "The Court of Last Resort," and said some very witty things about it. The past of the University was ably told by Prof. W. C. Hawley, and he told many interesting things of the school and its work. Dr. Coleman spoke of the present and future of the University in a very entertaining way, and closed with saying: "We shall live to see Willamette University four times what it is today."

Miss M. E. Reynolds' talk was of the faculty and their patriotism to the school. B. F. Irvine, '77, the editor of the Corvallis Times, responded to the toast "The Press," and it was the most eloquent speech of the evening. Prof. T. H. Crawford, '60, was the best story teller of the evening; his stories of Capt. R. Lawson and Judge Denny were much enjoyed.

C. P. BISHOP, Prop.

Portland, told of the life of the classes in 1880, when she was a student, and brought to light some new pranks of the students in that day. Hon. P. H. D'Arcy, on behalf of the younger set of '90 and '00, gave a very interesting talk.

Mr. Royal, the toast master, referred to the proposed alumnae endowment fund, and after which Mrs. Vaughn read a tribute in memory of Larella Griffith Miller, written by B. F. Irvine. This closed the reunion, which was one of the most pleasant ever held, and will be remembered long by those who were fortunate enough to be present.

Enjoyable Musicals.

The pupils of Miss Eva F. Cox gave a very enjoyable musical last evening at the Presbyterian church, assisted by Mrs. Hallie Parrish-Hinges. The program consisted of 18 numbers, which were well played, and reflected great credit upon their instructor. The first number was "Cavaller's Farewell March," played by Frances Smith, Marguerite Putnam, Maud Hill and Miss Cox and was very good. Miss Lillian Slater gave two selections, (a) "Souvenir Valse," (b) "Robin's Lullaby," which were given in perfect time. "Vesper Bells" was played by Emmert Johnson with good expression. Lela Slater gave a double number, "Onita" and "Nita-Spanish Dance," which were very pleasing. Earl Hinges rendered "Don Juan Minuet" in an excellent manner. "To Arms" was rendered in faultless time by Madeline Walker and Miss Cox. Alice Clough played "Meditation" very creditably. "Trot du Calaller," was well rendered by Joy Turner, Edith Ragan, Rex Turner and Lowell Will. Mary Davidson gave "Summer Songs," Sudds, in very good style and showed careful training. "The Legend" was excellently rendered by Lela and Lillian Slater. A pleasant composition, "Rondino," was played by Joy Turner and Frances Smith, which was much enjoyed. Maud Hill gave "Australian Song" from Pachet in a very creditable manner. Edna Savage gave a pretty number, "Valmont-Reverie," in perfect time and showed careful study. "The Old Oaken Bucket" was delightfully rendered by Joy and Rex Turner and was well received.

Mrs. Hinges then favored the audience with a solo, entitled "A May Morning," which was given in her usual charming style. Miss Frances Smith played a difficult composition, "Nadia-Mazurka-Wachs," with careful precision.

Joy Turner gave "Under the Rainbow" in good time and expression. The last was a delightful number, "Polonaise," Ghika, and was rendered by Miss Frances Smith, Miss Blanche Brown, Miss Cox and Lela Bell, and was the crowning feature of the evening, being played with great feeling and faultless time.

The musicale was attended by a large number of people who were delighted with the evenings performance.

A Home Wedding.

A quiet but pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiggins, at 631 Court street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Ethel, became the wife Mr. Ira Reynolds, of Portland. Dr. Heppie, pastor of the First M. E. church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends.

The Wiggins home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A luncheon was served, and the bridal couple took the afternoon train for Portland, where they will make their future home.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiggins, of this city, and is a handsome and accomplished young lady. She has been the director of the kindergarten the past winter and spring, and has a host of friends in this city.

The groom resides in Portland, and is associated with the Balfour, Guthrie Company, of that city, and is a very popular young man in business and social circles.

"Miscellaneous Shower."

The young ladies of the Christian church gave a "miscellaneous shower" at the home of their pastor, Dr. Errett, last evening, in honor of Miss Mabel Sachem, who will be married next Wednesday to Dr. Ramus Mortenson, of Yoncalla, Oregon. The Errett home was artistically decorated. The hall was in red. Strings of small red hearts and garlands of Crimson Rambler roses were artistically arranged. The parlor was a bower of flowers, every space was filled with syringa's bloom, roses and ferns. Miss Celeste Liston received the guests at the door. Between the hours of 7 and 9 the home was filled with a merry crowd of young people, and the evening passed very pleasantly. Miss Blanche Liston and Miss Minnie Williams served fruit frappe in the dining room, which was replete in red and yellow. The table was very pretty. A huge bunch of red poppies graced the center, while from the chandelier yellow ribbons were draped to the corners of the table, and the whole was a very pretty scene.

Miss Schoemaker was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

The family home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lucas, in South Salem, was a scene of a merry gathering yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the 50th wedding anniversary of the aged couple. A number of their friends were present, and all spent a most enjoyable afternoon together at the close of which a bountiful dinner was served, to which all did ample justice.
