

LIBERTY MOTOR LINE

Large Meeting to Discuss the Proposition

Line May Be Extended to Liberty and Possibly on to Rosedale

There was a large attendance of farmers and fruit growers at the Liberty meeting Friday evening to discuss the construction of an electric motor line. A number of prominent Salemites were present, and there was a general discussion of the plan submitted by Manager Welch, of the Citizen's Light & Traction Company. He estimated the cost of track and equipment to Rosedale, 4 1/2 miles, at $30,000, and cost of operation $4000 a year. His company would put up $15,000 and the people who want the line would be expected to put up the balance.

As a result of the discussion there was a motion adopted to appoint a committee of three from Salem, two from Liberty and two from Rosedale to raise the subsidy. Encouraging speeches were made by Mr. Ward, L. M. Gilbert, Captain Smith, J. G. Graham, F. N. Derby, J. M. Kyle, J. L. Stockton, Mr. West, of Rosedale and E. Hofer. It was the unanimous sentiment of the speakers that a motor line would be a grand step for both city and county.

The idea was brought out that the increase in the value of the land along the line on both sides of the road would alone raise the subsidy required. At the rate of two dollars per acre for the land benefited, and if only half paid, there would be enough with what could be raised in Salem to make the extension possible. Mayor Waters presided at the meeting, and spoke in the most encouraging manner of the prospects of such an extension. His recent acquisition of the 500-acre tract for suburban homes shows the way the wind is blowing, and the first mile of the extension would in itself be profitable from the business standpoint. If the city is ever to use broken rock on the streets, that material could be hauled from the rockpit more cheaply and distributed on the streets of Salem better than in any other manner.

profitable enterprise in the development of the suburbs.

With a better spirit prevailing in the city of Salem, there will be demand for more homes in the new wards of the city.

The extension of a motor line towards Liberty will make all the property on both sides suburban, and quadruple in value.

One hundred-foot front lots will sell readily for more than five-acre lots are worth on a country road.

Development of the suburbs is a real proposition, and it is fortunate that such men as Mayor Waters is taking hold of it.

The addition of hundreds of suburban homes means a great deal to all lines of business, and to the educational institutions of the city.

OREGON NATIONAL GUARDS

Will Go Into Camp at American Lake Next Week

Captain Murphy says he has assurances of a full company from Salem of 60 men and three officers for the National Guard encampment at American Lake, next week, if he can get the co-operation of the employers to a fuller extent. The Salem company will rank with any of the 4500 men from three states who will rendezvous near Tacoma, if they can all go. Several employers have signified a willingness to be put out considerable in order that our city may send its full quota, and other employers will be seen this week in time to try and get their consent. Under military regulation men can be forced to go, even at the loss of their jobs, but Captain Murphy and the local military board do not wish to resort to such harsh measures, but feel that some effort should be made to get the men to keep their encampment engagement. The boys will receive $1.50 per day and rations, the government furnishing transportation also. Look out for the proud appearance of the Salem company of the Oregon National Guard next Wednesday.

Conscientious Thoroughness.

The manufacturer whose product shows that he slurs over the minor details of construction is not the manufacturer who acquires a permanent place in the estimation of the consuming public. In G. W. Johnson & Company's ad, elsewhere in this issue, the fact is emphasized that the Schloss clothing handled by them, is made with conscientious thoroughness, and that, therefore, a Schloss suit, while costing actually less than ordinary clothing wears twice as long. It is a point worth considering.

RAGLANS LOSE GAME

Heavy Hitting on the Part of the Visitors Give Them Victory

The baseball game between Salem and Albany yesterday resulted in a victory for the visitors by the score of 8 to 3. The pitching of Gregory was the feature of the game, that southpaw allowing but four hits and striking out 11 men. Davis court and Suess each made a home run in the first inning. Harper made a beautiful catch of a long foul fly. Emerson was hit pretty freely. The Raglans played good ball, but were unable to land effectively on the sphere. Jay McCormack umpired his first game of league ball this year. He takes the place of Derrick, who resigned. He gave satisfaction to both teams. The score was as follows:

COM'R JONES COMING

Will Visit the Chemawa Indian School

The Journal is informed today that Commissioner Jones and Chief of Finance Slater of the department of Indian affairs, will be at Salem, and will visit the Indian school, if possible, en route up the coast.

These officials are now in California, and when they arrive in Oregon will be met by Congressman Hermann, chairmann of the committee on Indian affairs, who will be at Salem with them. The occasion of their visit will be a marked event.

Moved to Independence.

H. M. Edgar, of Salem, has purchased the bicycle repair shop of H. C. Miller on C street and taken possession. Mr. Edgar comes with the intention of expanding the business and putting in larger machinery and more tools. It is his purpose to do all kinds of machine work from the repairing of a bicycle to a threshing machine. He is an experienced mechanic, having run the Salem iron works for the past two years.

Mr. Edgar has been unable to rent a residence in Independence for love or money and with his family occupy the back of his machine shop for the present.—Independence Enterprise.

Bought Four Claims.

Dr. W. W. Ogelsby returned Tuesday from the Bohemia district, where he purchased four claims—a group on White creek. With F. P. Talkington, of Salem, he will at an early date begin development. The ore is free milling and shows well. Ed Jenks and Ben Curry were the previous owners. These claims are on the spur of Adams mountain.—Cottage Grove Leader.

COUNTY OFFICERS CHANGE

Very Little Difference in Personnel Will Be Noticed

The terms of the county officials do not expire until Monday at noon, but as the first Monday in July, the date set for the installation of the new officers falls on a legal holiday, the real term of the present officers will end tonight, this being the last day for the transaction of business.

The only official affected at the present time is Sheriff Colbath, as all the other occupants of county positions were re-elected, except Assessor Lembecke, who holds over until January 1st. Mr. Colbath has not decided what he will follow in the future, but will engage in some line of business. Deputy Sheriff James L. Skipton will remain in the office for a few weeks until the new officials get the run of the business.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Palmer will enter the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, a position formerly held by him.

In the recorder and clerk's offices it is the understanding that no changes will be made in the deputies. Sheriff Culver has not officially announced the appointment of his assistants, but it is generally understood that Harry Minto will be first deputy.
