POPULISTS NOMINATE OFFICERS

Thos. E. Watson and Thos. H. Tibbles Their Standard Bearers

Springfield, Ill., July 6.—Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, for President, and Thomas H. Tibbles, of Nebraska, for vice-president, were nominated by the Populist convention today. The names of William V. Allen, of Nebraska, and Samuel W. Williams, of Indiana, were also placed before the convention for President, but before the list of states had been completed in the roll call, their names were withdrawn, and Watson was nominated by acclamation. Ex-Senator Allen made good his word that he would not enter into any scramble for the nomination, and while the nominations were being made he twice instructed the chairman of the Nebraska delegation to say that his name must not go before the convention. In the face of this, however, he received over 40 votes.

Whether Mr. Watson will accept the nomination, no one in the convention seemed to know, and all efforts to secure some definite information from Mr. Watson's friends failed. Watson was quoted as saying if the Democrats at St. Louis nominated Hearst, he would support him for President.

Williams, of Indiana, received only a few votes, and soon withdrew, moving to make Watson's nomination unanimous.

The Platform.

The committee on resolutions in its report to the convention reaffirmed adherence to the basic truths of the Omaha platform of 1892, and of the subsequent platforms of 1896 and 1900. The platform then demands that all money be issued directly by the government, every dollar to be a full legal tender; demands postal savings banks; upholds the right of labor to organize, and favors the enactment of legislation for the improvement of the condition of the wage-earners; demands the initiative and referendum; favors prohibition of the alien ownership of lands; demands the withdrawal of special privileges of trusts and monopolies, and declares the government should own and control the railroads, telegraphs and telephone systems and should provide a parcels post. The platform was adopted unanimously.

The bride wore an elaborate champagne colored costume.

Immediately after the congratulations, a wedding dinner was served, and the couple took the afternoon train for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller, and is well and favorably known in this city, where she has been employed. Babe Deserted in the Brush.

Eugene, Or., July 6.—The body of a new born girl baby was found last evening at 7:30 hidden in a clump of thick underbrush on the banks of the Willamette, in the northern suburbs. L. M. Beebe, residing in the vicinity, heard the wail of an infant while looking for a cow. The child had lain there several hours, and was almost dead from exposure. It is being cared for by neighbor women, and will live. Officers have a clue to the identity of the young girl who has thus sought to hide her shame.
