MANY MARINES DESERT

Boys in Blue Tire of Sea Faring Life and Leave

Bremerton, Wn., Aug. 10.—Because of an epidemic of desertion which is depleting the ranks of the marines on board the vessels of the Pacific fleet anchored here, and which is rife among the navy yard force, also, a system of renewed watchfulness has been inaugurated to prevent restlessness or discontented marines from taking French leave of Uncle Sam's service.

During July there were 73 desertions from the cruiser New York alone and the other vessels of the fleet suffered like losses. The books of the navy yard show numerous have been the instances of failure to report for duty at the expiration of leave of absence that marines contemplating trips to Seattle or elsewhere away from Bremerton, while off duty, are now closely questioned, and in suspicious cases are given warning against desertion on pain of the maximum penalty.

It has been the custom of deserting marines to doff the blue uniforms and brass buttons of the service for citizen's clothes when planning escape, and a marine now seen in citizen's clothes when going off duty is kept under surveillance, unless his reputation is such as to place him above suspicion. When once in Seattle, attired in citizen's clothes, it is a comparatively easy matter for a marine to successfully desert, either as a sailor on outgoing vessels, or by train or on foot.

A strict watch is kept at the barracks, where the boys in blue usually have stored in their quarters trinkets, photographs, etc., and if these are missing from the walls the marine to whom they belong is under suspicion. The provision against carrying bundles through the navy yard gates prevents any wholesale moving on the part of the deserter. Many of them go to Seattle in uniform, where they buy a cheap suit of citizen's clothes and make their escape.

Y. M. C. A. Still Growing.

New York, Aug. 10.—The year book of the Young Men's Christian associations, which were issued today, shows an increase in most of its figures. The number of associations has grown from 1736 to 1813, and the membership from 350,455 to 373,503. This is an increase in four years of 118,030 members and of 374 associations. The active membership of the associations remains about the same. The chief growth has been through employed boys and men not affiliated with churches. A notable increase has been made in the amount of property owned, so that now 475 associations own buildings and other property worth nearly $30,000,000, an increase of about $2,000,000 in the year.

The railroad associations, numbering 197, have 69,426 members, having more than doubled in membership in five years. The religious meetings report a total attendance of over 4,000,000 men and boys last year.
