

GRAHAM DENIES CHARGE

Made by Kay That He Promised the Latter His Support

The matter of the speakership of the next legislature is coming apace with considerable animation and warmth. As indicated yesterday, Mr. Graham has come out in an interview stating his side of the case. The statements from his point of view seem to justify his position, and the whole controversy brings to mind a number of similar features in the history of Oregon legislators. Many years ago one A. N. Gilbert—"Big Andy"—sat in the legislature from this county and became a candidate for speaker. He would have won out but for the opposition of one of his colleagues, and this resulted in the election of George W. McBride. The result was largely influential in shaping the political aspect in Oregon for many years, as Mr. McBride afterwards became secretary of state, United States senator and world's fair commissioner. Some years later Hon. T. T. Geer was a candidate for speaker when the astute Tilmon Ford, his colleague, thought best to transfer that office of prestige to Multnomah county. The result is well known.

A similar condition existed two years ago when Mr. Kay of this county declined his support to Frank Davey. In the light of these facts, it is evident that Mr. Graham's position is not a new one.

Mr. Graham's Interview.
Mr. Graham said:
"It is certainly to be regretted that owing to a misunderstanding that has arisen between Hon. T. B. Kay and myself in regard to his candidacy for the speakership of the house that he should rush into print and endeavor to place me in a bad light before the people of Marion county."

"The Marion county delegation was called together by Mr. Kay to meet at Salem on Monday the 8th inst., but as I did not know there was a meeting called for that date I went into the county on business, and the first intimation I had of a meeting was when Mr. Kay phoned me that there would be a meeting and asked me to return. It was impossible for me to return before nearly 4 o'clock, and then found that Hon. J. S. Ritchie and Hon. J. H. Settlemier were the only members that had been at my office, but owing to Mr. Settlemier having to return on the evening train, I did not have an opportunity of discussing the matter with him at length, and only had a conversation with Mr. Ritchie in regard to the matter. I do not consider there has been any meeting of the whole delegation, and there certainly was not one held at my office as stated in yesterday's Statesman.

"Mr. Kay is laboring under a misunderstanding when he says I pledged myself to support him, and I regret very much that he has construed the conversation I had with him into a pledge. I have never been accused, excepting by Mr. Kay, of not keeping my word, and when I agree to do a thing I always stand by it.

"I do not wish to be understood that I am opposed to the election of Mr. Kay, because I think it would redound to the benefit of Marion county if he were elected. But I think should Mr. Kay not be successful, and I can only say I trust he will land the coveted prize, that Marion county's interests would best be served by having one of its delegation in a position to do some good for the county. I intend looking out for the interests of Marion county first, and Kay and Graham next.

"I am not taking the position I have with the promise of any reward, and Mr. Kay told me yesterday he had been misquoted in regard to the statement he had made in regard to the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, and he also denies the statement in last night's Journal, The chairmanship of a committee such as the one mentioned entails a great deal of work and responsibility, and Mr. Kay, who was chairman of this committee, was severely censured and criticized on a number of matters that came up before that committee.

"Mr. Kay's statement that I am sacrificing the interests of Marion county for Multnomah county is hardly worth considering, as I have the interests of Marion county at heart and her interests are mine first, last and all the time, but Mr. Kay must not think he is all of Marion county.

"Mr. Kay two years ago refused his support to Hon. Frank Davey, of Marion county, who was a candidate for Speakership of the house at that time, and he did not consider then that the best plan was for the Marion county delegation to be united, but he does think so now, and because he is a candidate for speaker. In other words, Mr. Kay looks at the matter wholly differently than he did two years ago.

"I am not taking the position I do with the hope of a traitor's reward from the successful candidate, should he not be from Marion county. I am taking this position from what I consider to be the broader view of Marion county's true interests.

"In case Mr. Kay should not be successful, I still hope to be in a position to not only materially assist Marion county, but possibly Mr. Kay as well."

Back to the Jungle.
As stated in yesterday's Journal, Governor Chamberlain had under consideration the matter of permitting the murdered, Frank Guglielmo, to return to the Multnomah county jail until the supreme court will have decided in the matter of a stay of execution. His excellency has decided that under the statute the prisoner must be returned, and therefore this morning Superintendent C. W. James started for Portland with the young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Wild, and son Lowell, Miss Minzenmiller and Miss Nellie Peterson left this morning for their summer's outing at Newport. Miss Ida Stege will take charge of Mr. Wild's music store during his absence.

SUMMER NORMAL SCHOOL

What Prof. Kraps Has Done This Season

The Capital Summer Normal closed yesterday the largest and best session in the history of the school.

The total enrollment for the summer was one hundred and seventy-six. Professor Kraps was assisted by County Superintendent B. T. Moores and Professor J. T. Matthews of Willamette university.

Mr. J. S. Graham principle of the North Salem school, gave several very interesting lectures on "Political parties." The classes in stenography, typewriting and Latin will continue for some weeks to come. Professor Kraps is certainly demonstrating his ability as a normal teacher and Salem is to be congratulated upon his establishment of so large and successful a school in her midst.
