

SALEM DALLAS ROAD

The Gerlinger's May Be Able to Get People Interested

L. Gerlinger owner of the Salem, Dallas & Falls City railroad, and G. T. Gerlinger, manager of the same road, were in the city last evening for a few hours. They have recently returned from Portland, where they were in consultation with several parties who are interested in the proposed Salem-Dallas road.

Mr. G. T. Gerlinger in speaking to a Journal reporter last night, said:

"We have nothing to give out at the present time, although we may have a good item in the course of a few weeks. We still hope to be able to reach Salem with a railroad, as we believe that it would be a paying investment.

"The sawmill business has been fairly good, although it was demoralized for a time. Our mills at Falls City are cutting their capacity, and the demand is about normal."

The gentlemen went to Albany last night and expect to return to this city within a few days.

STOLE WAGER MONEY

J. H. Petersen, a wealthy livery stable man and logger of Portland made a bet with George Patterson at Talkington's saloon yesterday, but took Patterson's money and put it in his pocket. The latter swore out a warrant in Judge Judah's court and Petersen was arrested, charged with larceny. He was placed under $50 bonds to appear Tuesday. The amount taken was $10.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Coshow announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lois Coshow, to Mr. Chas. E. Fuller, the wedding to take place Wednesday, August 17, 1904, at the First Congregational church.

Salem Gravel Case.

The case of Salem vs. Minto Bros., et al was submitted yesterday and Judge Galloway took it under advisement.

Tonka, the usual cheat for vanilla, costs one or two cents for a certain amount; Schilling's Best vanilla a dollar.

One is strong; the other is fine. One is rank; the other is delicate. Nevertheless four-fifths of "vanilla" is tonka. The 98 cents accounts for it.

BABY SHOW PRIZES

Carnival Will Close Tonight With Mardi Gras Festivities

The carnival baby show drew a large crowd yesterday afternoon and much interest was manifested. After a careful inspection the awards were made as follows:

Edith May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Young, first prize, silver bread and milk cup, presented by Barrs Jewelry store.

Don, son of Mr. and Mrs. Massey, second prize, child's suit and hat, donated by Stockton & Co.

Lila Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Baum, third prize, pair of shoes, donated by Irwin & Petty.

The awards gave general satisfaction and the mothers, youngsters and friends enjoyed themselves during the afternoon.

The baby winning first prize is about six months old and is the granddaughter of Councilman J. W. Young and U. M. Parker, both gentlemen and their respective wives feel highly elated over their posterity.

The uniform rank Knights of Pythias has turned out in force to accept the invitation kindly extended them by the Carnival committee. Their brilliant uniforms made a very pretty feature of the parade.

Circulation Managers Aufrance of the Journal and Morrison of the Statesman accompanied by Press Agent Hodge of the carnival escorted the newboys of the two dailies through the carnival last night. It was a treat for the little fellows and they will boost for the carnival when ever it is in their power to do so.

The Women of Woodcraft drill team gave two fine exhibition drills yesterday, both afternoon and evening, the latter especially fine, with the colored light effects.

The Stadium drew large and appreciative crowds. Diavolo made two rides without accident. The Japanese foot jugglers, slight of hand performer, head balancer, and acrobats are the best in their line, in fact every number is a top notcher.

Dixieland has a good collection of darkeys and they know how to sing. Dreamland continues to mystify their large audiences and it is certainly one of the best exhibitions on the grounds.

The mirror maze and crazy house are two good illusions.

Tonight the Women of Woodcraft will give another drill at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Dr. Pomeroy, the team captain will come up from Portland today especially for the drill. The members of the team are as follows:

Miss Rose Shutz, Miss M. Schutz, Miss May Allen, Mrs. M. B. DeLong, Mrs. Josie Symes, Mrs. Anna Bernhart, Mrs. Fannie Erixon, Mrs. J. Capper, Mrs. F. Day, Mrs. Ida Rollo, Mrs. M. Betchel, Mrs. Verdie Van Patton and Dr. E. M. Pomeroy, captain.

This will be the closing day of the carnival and at midnight the Woodmen carnival will be at an end. The week has been an agreeable one and many pleasant memories will be left of their first visit of the Southern Carnival company to this city.

Mardi Gras festivities will prevail throughout the evening and the fun will be fast and furious.

Sure of Place.

Hon. Thos. B. Kay, of Salem, accompanied by his family, was in Albany yesterday, leaving on the bay train for Newport, where he will spend a short time. He is a prominent candidate for speaker of the next house of representatives, and says he will have no difficulty in securing the position.—Albany Herald.

LYONS TURNER STAGE

Has An Exciting Runaway Severely Injuring Driver Lake

Yesterday the stage which runs between Lyons and Turner had an exciting runaway. They were on the return trip from Lyons and when within about two and one-half miles from Turner the horses took fright and ran away, and after running a considerable distance they ran off an embankment and tipped the stage over. The driver, W. H. Lake, was thrown violently to the ground and his shoulder dislocated and sustained several other minor injuries. The other occupants of the stage, Miss Gardner, of Stayton, and Miss Ruby Heimken, of Salem, were not injured. Mr. Lake was taken to Turner and Dr. Ransom attended to his injuries.

Last of the Week.

This is the last day of the week, and tomorrow is Sunday, and that means that the good housewife must plan for her Sunday dinner, and she can be aided in this difficult problem by sending or telephoning to the old reliable meat market of E. C. Cross. The best in the line of meats is there, and at the cut prices, the meat war being on.

EWALD TRACT

NOW ON SALE

555.25 Acres

We are ready to write your contract of Sale, or to sell you outright any of the tracts now opened up in the Ewald Fruit Farms. Come in and see our big map of the tracts and let us explain to you the installment plan under which we are selling these desirable farms.

The Ewald Fruit Farms consist of 102 tracts, ranging in size from 4 to 8 acres, and lie in South Salem, within a half mile of the present City limits. FIVE MINUTES PLANK WALK from the terminus of the South Commercial street car line, and on the crushed rock Liberty-Jefferson county roads. These tracts are well watered and have a gradual slope towards the county roads near which they lie. There are about 200 acres of good fir timber, which are estimated to cut about 5000 cords of wood. Two hundred acres are under cultivation and about 150 uncultivated.

OUR TERMS OF SALE

You can buy for cash, part cash, or take advantage of our installment plan, which is: $5 down and $5 a month, without interest, for every tract. (This does not mean $5 an acre, but $5 for the WHOLE TRACT whether it contains 4, 5, 6, 7, or 8 acres.

Prices per acre vary according to location and character of land, making it necessary for you to call at the office for these figures.

Those having tracts reserved will please come in and take them up.
