GAMBLERS AND FOOLS.

In an interview recently Henry P. Lyman, president of the American Surety Company, is quoted as saying that 25 per cent of the defalcations of the time are caused by race track gambling alone.

Mr. Lyman ought to know. His company goes on the bonds of many of the young men who go wrong. "Every day or so," he says, "we are called upon to make good for some young fellow who had bet money that didn't belong to him on horses that lost."

The man who bets on any sort of game manipulated by professional gamblers is a fool. Horse racing is that sort of a game.

It matters not whether the game is one in which a hand is dealt, a wheel turned or a horse runs. It is all the same. The chances are all against the outsider. The cards are stacked against him. Deception, fraud and trickery are a part of the program. Swindling is reduced to a fine art. In the long run the professional wins. For that he is a gambler.

The gambler knows that the man who goes against his game is a fool, though he is careful to keep his opinions to himself.

Even the victim knows that the average man who bets against the gambler will lose. But he figures that he may be the exception. There are a few prizes even in a lottery. Maybe he will be the lucky one.

There is no law, however, against a man making a fool of himself.

WANTED TO WRITE.

Andrew Carnegie once wanted to become a newspaper reporter, but changed his mind. Had he become a newspaper man, Carnegie might have grown rich in experience, but it is doubtful if he would have had such trouble in trying to die poor. Carnegie's fate is at once a lesson and a warning to newspaper men. Never aspire to riches, but grow old and finally die with the satisfaction of having lived a life worth living, and with having performed a great work of humanity, unselfishly and without hope of temporal reward.

WHAT A CHANGE.

Judge Parker says, "One term is enough for me." That's all right, Judge, but when you get to feeding on the flesh pots of Egypt and taste the sweets of power, your good resolution—born amid the quietude of Ulster—will get an awful wrench.

Clarence De Ryder, a loop-the-loop artist, was killed in Salt Lake this week. He wasn't "de rider" he thought he was.

The button trust got in a hole, and is now in the hands of a receiver. What else could be expected.

BLACK HAND SOCIETY

Kidnaps a Young Italian Boy and Sentiment is Very Strong

New York, Aug. 18.—The belief is gaining ground that the kidnapers of little Antonio Mannino, becoming alarmed at the activity of the police, fled to Italy with him. A few minutes before the steamer Nord American sailed for Naples and Genoa yesterday two men having a boy between them boarded the steamer, with the boy crying. Today it was found that two men and a boy are on the sailing list of the vessel, but their residence is not given. The Italian consul will be asked to see that the vessel is thoroughly searched on its arrival in Italy. A meeting of prominent Italians was held today to begin a vigorous war on the "Black Hand" society.

Veterans Ride in Autos.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 18.—Business and pleasure divided the time of the visitors to the Grand Army national encampment today. The sessions of the G. A. R. encampment and the meetings of the several auxiliary organizations were cut short in order to permit the delegates to take part in the great automobile ride this afternoon. Thanks to the generosity of the automobile owners of Boston and vicinity several thousand machines of various descriptions were placed at the disposal of the entertainment committee. In these gaily decorated vehicles the veterans left Symphony hall at 1 o'clock this afternoon and in two divisions began a 20-mile tour over the historic road leading through Cambridge, Arlington, Lexington and Concord.

Returning to the city this evening the visitors will be treated to still another elaborate feature of entertainment arranged in their honor. This will be the great electrical parade which promises to be one of the most novel and gorgeous spectacles ever witnessed in this city. It will be a parade of illuminated floats, proceeding over the surface railroads, representing sixteen of the most important events of American history, including the birth of the nation, the purchase of the Louisiana territory, the civil war and the acquisition of the Philippines and other insular possessions.

Another notable event of the evening will be the great camp-fire of the Woman's Relief Corps. In order to accommodate the large crowd expected it has been decided to hold the meeting in Mechanic's building. Governor Bates and Mayor Collins will deliver addresses of welcome in behalf of the state and city respectively, and other speakers will be General John C. Black, Mrs. Sarah Winans, national president of the W. R. C., and Miss Clara Barton.

Big Log Rolling at McCook.

McCook, Neb., Aug. 18.—Two thousand members of the Modern Woodmen of America are attending the big log rolling begun here today under the auspices of the Southwestern Nebraska Log Rolling association. Band contests, competitive drills and amusements of various kinds are features of the three days' program. Governor Mickey, Congressman Norris and other men of wide prominence are to be among the speakers.

UNDERGROUND ROAD

Tests Made Are Successful and Traffic Will Commence

New York, Aug. 18.—The secret test of the new underground railroad was made last night, when a train was sent through for the first time. This morning the tracks were opened for a trial of the express service. Four cars made the distance from the city hall to Harlem in 15 minutes, and the tests were successful in every way.

To Notify Populists.

New York, Aug. 18.—The local committee has completed all arrangements for the notification of the Populist candidates for President and vice president at Cooper Union tonight. Although Thomas E. Watson of Georgia, the nominee for President, and Thos. H. Tibbles of Nebraska, the nominee for vice president, will deliver the principal addresses of the occasion, there will also be on hand other orators of note, among them ex-Senator William V. Allen of Nebraska and Judge Samuel W. Williams of Vincennes, Ind. Preceding the notification there will be a reception to Messrs. Watson and Tibbles at the Union Square hotel.

Iowa Editors in Session.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Aug. 18.—There was a large attendance of editors and publishers today at the opening of the joint convention of the Upper Des Moines Editorial association and the Western Editorial association. The visitors are the guests of the Commercial club of Council Bluffs. At the initial session this afternoon the speakers include S. G. Goldthwaite of Boone, E. T. Childs of Dunlap, P. S. Junkin of Corning and Elmer E. Johnson of Rockwell City. Congressman Walter I. Smith has accepted an invitation to address the meeting tomorrow.

Cause Not Known.

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 18.—Miss Lida Ackerman, a young girl whose home is in this city is in the last stage of an attack of lockjaw, the cause of which is a complete mystery to physicians here. She was first stricken three weeks ago, and despite every precaution taken grew steadily worse, and her life is now despaired of.

The girl suffered no cut anywhere on her body and she does not remember swallowing anything that might have caused the trouble. Doctors who have charge of the case say it is the most remarkable they have ever met with.

One Woman Among the Thousands.

We received a letter from Waycross, Ga., from a woman who had been troubled with female complaint for a long time, until she was reduced to almost a shadow. It effected her mind she could not remember anything, would get confused and so nervous and irritable she could hardly sleep. She described her case as one similar to thousands of other women, and then ends the letter by saying she had gained 18 pounds last month and never felt better in her life, having no trace of her former troubles, and she ate her meals with a relish. She commenced the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic just six weeks before she wrote the letter from which we copy the above. This tonic is in tablet form, and should be taken right after meals. It turns the food you eat into strong, rich blood, feeding the nerves and curing disease by making healthy flesh. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. Pale, thin people should use this Tonic. For sale by Dr. C. S. Stone, druggist.

Low Rates to California.

The triennial convolve Knights Templar will be held at San Francisco, September 5 to 9, and the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. will be held at the same point September 19 to 25. For these occasions the Southern Pacific company will place in effect the extremely low rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip not to exceed $25.00, the rate from Portland. Those who are planning a trip to California should take note of these rates. 8-11-eod

Carpentry.

A. Olinger, the old reliable carpenter, has again opened a shop with W. T. Rigdon, the Court-street undertaker, and is ready now to take orders for job work on immediate call. Rigdon's phone, 3271, 142 Court street. 129 A. OLINGER.

DANISH TORPEDO BOATS

Collide During Maneuvers and One Went to the Bottom

Copenhagen, Aug. 18.—During the maneuvers of the Danish training squadron in the strait between the Baltic and Cattegatt seas today the torpedo boats Hayresen and Storen collided. The former sank, but the crew was saved. The Storen was slightly damaged.

Mexican War Veterans.

Bedford, Ind., Aug. 18.—The annual reunion of Mexican War veterans of Indiana began here today. The city is elaborately decorated in honor of the visitors. Indiana furnished nearly 4000 soldiers in the Mexican war, and the reunions of the state association were formerly well attended. During the last few years, however, death has thinned the ranks to such an extent that there are now scarcely 250 surviving veterans and of this number many are debarred from attending the annual reunions by their age or infirmities.

John Redmond Coming Over.

London, Aug. 18.—John Redmond, leader of the Irish National party, is among the passengers on the Teutonic sailing today for America. Mr. Redmond is to be one of the chief participants in the great Irish convention to be held in New York the latter part of August.

Democrats of Idaho.

Lewiston, Idaho, Aug. 18.—The Democratic state convention is in session here with a full attendance from every county of the state. The convention will name candidates for governor and other state officers to be chosen at the coming election.

BROODED OVER HIS TROUBLE GRAND ARMY CHIEF The Dalles, Aug. 18.—About 8:30 last Sunday evening Marcus Klum sent a bullet through his head, killing himself instantly, on the streets of Kent, Sherman county. A few minutes before the fatal tragedy was enacted he had been in Wiley's saloon, and stepped out, walked about a block then raising a pistol to his head, fired. Some time since young Klum was arrested and was bound over to the September term of circuit court for Sherman county, on the charge of having stolen money from the till in Wiley's saloon. He had brooded over his troubles considerably, and the supposition is that, rather than face trial, and probable conviction, he preferred death. Mrs. Fuller Dead. Bar Harbor, Aug. 18.—Mary Ellen Fuller, wife of Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States supreme court, died suddenly last night while sitting on the piazza of their summer cottage "Sorroato," of heart disease. Motorman is Dead. Chicago, Aug. 18.—Michael Ryan, the motorman who stayed at his post in yesterday's grade crossing catastrophe, died early this morning. The coroner began an investigation today.
