"I felt courage and thought I would never regain my health."

"Three years of delicate health trying doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines" without benefit might well sap the courage of any woman. And yet Mrs. Bryant proved that the question of the cure of womanly disease is only a question of using the right remedy. A few doses of 'Favorite Prescription' restored her courage and revived her hope, because she could see "a decided change from the first." Three months' use of the medicine restored her to perfect health.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Sarah Bryant, President of Memphis Social Science Club, residing at 371 Atkinson Ave., Memphis, Tenn., writes: "I suffered with delicate health for three years, trying doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines until I lost courage and thought I would never regain my health; but a few doses of your 'Favorite Prescription' made me change my mind. Could see a decided change from the first, so I kept on taking it for three months faithfully and am now in perfect health."

GARDEN SPOT OF WORLD

Salem Contractor Returns From Eastern Oregon Plains

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gray returned last evening from Prineville, where they have been spending the summer. Mr. Gray thinks that Eastern Oregon has wonderful resources, as he says that intense heat is the natural order of things at this time of the year, but it is interspersed with wind storms, sand storms and water spouts and other little etceteras, that make life a burden. He says he would not exchange one square foot of Willamette valley soil for 100 square feet of that country, and is still of the opinion that this is the garden spot of the world.

POST OFFICE RULES

Changed So as to Allow Unstamped Parcels to Be Mailed

Washington, Aug. 22.—Merchants and manufacturers of this city will be much interested in the series of regulations soon to be issued by Third Assistant Postmaster-General Madden for the execution of a provision of the postoffice appropriation bill designed to facilitate the mailing of large quantities of circulars, catalogues, cards, calendars, samples of merchandise, etc., practically identical in size, weight, shape and general appearance. The provision of the bill referred to is as follows:

"That hereafter, under such regulations as the postmaster-general may establish for the collection of the lawful revenue and for facilitating the handling of such matter in the mails it shall be unlawful to accept for transmission in the mails quantities of not less than 2000 identical pieces of third and fourth class matter without postage stamps affixed; provided, that postage shall be fully prepaid thereon, at the rate required by law for a single piece of such matter."

Every merchant who has had occasion to send out even a few thousand circulars or catalogues appreciates the tedious and expensive work of stamping each separate piece of matter. The government also finds it costly business to properly cancel each stamp, for if the individual pieces of mail matter differ materially in shape and size from an ordinary letter they cannot be run through the automatic canceling machines, but must be laboriously hand-stamped.

The general scope of the regulations has been ascertained and can be stated here.

Any person desiring to avail himself of the privilege conferred by the new law will be required to file an application with the postmaster of the city or town in which his business is located. After the approval of the application by the postmaster the applicant is registered in a book provided for that purpose, which constitutes a permanent record, obviating the necessity for subsequent applications.

Upon receipt of a lot of mail matter, amounting to 2000 or more pieces meeting the requirements of the law, the postmaster will select a few pieces at random, which he will open and examine to determine their identical character. He will then weigh several pieces to ascertain the average weight and rate of postage per piece, after which he will weigh a sufficient number to make a pound, and from that basis will determine the total amount of postage to be paid.

There is an important distinction between the manner of ascertaining the amount of postage to be paid on matter mailed under the new law and on second-class mail matter (which goes at the pound rate) which all merchants and others who may intend to avail themselves of the new statute should clearly understand.

The publisher's rate is levied on the total amount of matter mailed at the statutory rate per pound, without regard to the number of pieces required to make a pound. Under the new law, however, the rate per piece on the entire lot of matter offered for mailing will be the same as if a single piece had been mailed. In other words, a sample of merchandise on which the rate is one cent per ounce will be chargeable at one cent for each piece, although it may weigh but half an ounce, or even less—that is to say, the privilege of mailing matter in bulk under the new law will not result in any reduction to the total amount of postage to be paid.

Inasmuch as the new law involves the opening of a system of accounts not heretofore provided for, and because the total weight of any given lot of mail will afford no indication of the amount of postage paid thereon, it will be necessary for the department to take special measures to prevent the defrauding of the revenues by collusion between postmasters and their patrons.

A very skillfully prepared system of forms and reports will be employed for this purpose, however, and it is believed that without imposing any unnecessary restrictions upon the execution of the law it can be administered with entire safety to the government.

Shave Yourself

It is a pleasure and real home comfort with the genuine "Three Star," the original and mechanical perfect Safety Razor. Over five million users appreciate daily the value of this marvel of simplicity; Star Safety Razors, in use every day since 1875, are still giving absolute satisfaction today.
This speaks for the quality and merit of the "Star." Saves Money, Time and Inconvenience. The expense of being shaved by a barber amounts to about $40 to $50 a year to the average gentleman. It is impossible to estimate the value of time lost in the barber shop, as you are very often compelled to wait until the barber gets ready to call "next." To shave comfortably with the Star takes from three to five minutes—and requires absolutely no experience. It is impossible to cut your face or even scratch same while shaving yourself.
