STOLE EASTERN JUDGE

Carried Him to California and He is Feeling Nervous

Omaha, Aug. 24.—Judge McKeon, of New York, who said he had been kidnaped several weeks ago and carried to California for ransom, arrived here this morning on a visit to his sister. He is still in a nervous condition as the result of his captivity. He says he will proceed against the kidnapers when he reaches New York.

Two Probate Orders.

The probate court transacted a small amount of business today. Lena Stanfield King resigned as co-executrix of the estate of Conrad Snowden, and her bondsmen were released.

The sale of property belonging to Glover Perin, deceased, was confirmed.

MAYOR WATERS OFFERS TO BUILD CARLINE

required electric power and energy; to furnish all necessary cars at all times, both passenger and freight, and to thoroughly equip said road with the latest improved rolling stock, and to make at least six (6) trips per day, and more if required for passengers, and to operate the whole extension in a satisfactory manner, employing every reasonable means for the safety of both passengers and freight traffic, and I will agree to have the same in full operation within . . . days after the completion of the work of furnishing poles, ties, grading, etc., as above enumerated and specified, or, if in my judgment, found expedient, I shall commence the fulfillment of my part of the agreement at the same time, and without waiting for all materials to be first laid on the ground, working ahead with you as fast as you furnish and lay the required and above mentioned materials, etc.;

Provided, however, that, after the satisfactory fulfillment of all obligations given under this agreement by the parties concerned, including myself, the right of way, the road bed, ties, poles, timbers, grading, wires brackets or arms, and material of whatever name or nature required or used in the construction, maintenance and operation or in any way employed or used in and about the said proposed extension, shall become the property of the said Frank W. Waters, his successors or assigns; said ownership and proprietorship to determine as soon as and immediately upon the operation of said cars upon said railroad in a manner satisfactory to all obligees under this agreement.

FRANK W. WATERS.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 24th day of August, 1904.

DIED.

JOSEPH.—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. G. Haas, on 12th and Chemeketa streets, Tuesday, August 23, 1904, Mrs. Hannah Joseph, of heart failure.

Deceased was born in Liverpool, England, January 6, 1826, and was married on March 11, 1842, to George Reese, of Bristol, England. Mr. Reese died one year later. In 1848 she was married to D. W. Joseph, who died several years ago. They emigrated to this country in 1870, living a number of years in Wisconsin, and the last number of years of her life in Oregon. She spent six years in New Zealand. She leaves no relatives, but one daughter, Mrs. F. G. Haas, of this city. Deceased was a devout Christian, having united with the Presbyterian church about 40 years ago, and was a constant member of that religious organization ever since, and was a woman of lovely character, who has a host of friends to mourn her loss.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian church of this city tomorrow, Friday, at 2 o'clock p. m., and the services will be conducted by Rev. F. W. Cliffe, of the First Presbyterian church. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. At the request of deceased the W. C. T. U. are urged to meet in a body.

Mrs. F. G. Haas, the daughter, will not be able to attend the funeral. She underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday, and is still at the hospital, although she is getting along as well as could be expected.

KILLED MANY SHEEP

Antelope, Or., Aug. 24.—Mob law reigns supreme on the ranges of Central Oregon, and as an added evidence to the Silver Lake slaughters of last spring, over 1000 thoroughbred sheep belonging to Morrow & Keenan, of Willow Creek, Crook county, were killed last Friday evening at Little Summit Prairie, 40 miles east of Prineville. This fact was announced last evening by telephone message from young Keenan, a son of one of the owners of the massacred sheep, who has been acting as camp-tender for the four bands owned by his company, and grazed in the Little Summit region.

Young Keenan states that while the herder was alone and occupied with the care of his flock during the late afternoon, he was accosted by three unmasked horsemen, who departed after a short conversation. Almost immediately following their disappearance a band of about 20 horsemen, with faces blackened, emerged from the timber unobserved until they had approached within a short distance of him, when a command to throw up his hands was given and complied with, after which he was bound hand and foot and blindfolded by means of a grain sack being tied over his head. Leaving him near a tree and behind it for protection from the bullets, a general fusillade with Winchesters was commenced by the mob, which lasted nearly two hours, or until sundown, by which time the entire band had either been killed or scattered in every direction.
