METAL MINERS TROUBLE

Is Not Within the Jurisdiction of President Mitchell

New York, Aug. 29.—John Mitchell left for Indianapolis this morning. He said he would not see Chairman Cortelyou relative to the possible interference by President Roosevelt in the mining troubles in Colorado. The metal miners are not within his jurisdiction, and the coal miners had no difficulties of a serious character.

A Good Hair Tonic.

There is no better tonic for the hair than sunshine. Just pure, free, unadulterated sunshine. It has more potency than any compound mixed in the chemist's laboratory and is more efficient than any drug found in the apothecary's shop.

Sit outdoors in the sunshine an hour every day. Loosen the hair and let the sun shine on it and the air blow through it. In the summer days, go without a hat as much as possible. The hair needs to be ventilated to keep it healthy.

There is no danger of getting too much sunshine on the hair. It will bring it to its normal color, and even if it gets a bit sunburned it will not hurt it. The sunburn will soon wear off.

Airing and sunning the hair every day not only keeps it sweet and clean, but is good for the scalp also. The sun will soon cure any disease of the scalp and make it healthy and active, and a healthy scalp makes strong, beautiful hair. No danger of the hair falling out when the scalp is all right. Wash the hair about every three or four weeks in warm water and a good, pure soap. Use nothing else on it. Rinse it thoroughly in tepid water and sit out doors and let the sun and air dry it. Or in the winter time sit by a sunny window until the hair is dry.

Brushing the hair every day, "a hundred strokes," as our grandmothers used to say, will make it soft and glossy as silk.

This is all that is needed to keep the hair in fine condition. Just cleanliness, sunshine and brushing. If your hair is harsh or thin, or uneven, or scraggly, or stringy—no matter what the trouble is, just try the sunshine treatment a few months, sitting in the sunshine every day, the air freely circulating through the hair, and you will find all your hair troubles and scalp diseases disappearing and a clean, sweet-smelling, healthy head of hair will be sure to result.—Medical Talk.

The four Hildreds, now with Ringling Brothers' great circus, are the most sensational riders in the circus profession. The performers work as a unit on the bare back of a racing horse, turning the most difficult acrobatic stunts in this flying position, and jumping to and from the back of the swiftly fleeing animal at the same instant. They are the only riders who ever achieved the feat of jumping backward to the back of a running horse.

STABBED BY HIS FRIEND

Hillsboro, Aug. 28.—Bert Oakman, who stabbed and instantly killed his friend, Frank Bennett, here Saturday night, is thought to be in hiding in a forest.

A cordon of men has been thrown around the forest. He may try to break through, reach Portland, and go with the circus that shows there Monday. Yesterday morning he was wearing glasses as a disguise.

Oakman is 29 years of age, has sandy hair, nearly red; florid complexion; has good teeth, and no filling of any kind, a matter of which he was prone to boast. He is about 5 feet, 9 inches, has a light blue eye, with slightly red lids, a prominent nose, and has a scar on the upper cheekbone, which looks as though it had been too tightly sown after an accident of some kind. He was wearing a rather light suit, with a fairly prominent stripe, when the murder was committed. He usually wore a derby hat, well cocked on the back of his head, and is rather prepossessing-looking. Oakman is inclined to be bow-legged. He weighs about 160 or 170 pounds.

Caught a Forger.

There was a display of pugilism today, which was soon settled in favor of the officers, says The Dalles Chronicle. This morning a man attempted to procure a Colt's automatic gun at Sexton & Walther's by a forged order, and also tried to get a sight draft cashed in the name of E. R. Hamilton. Marshal Wood was informed of these operations, and found the man on Second street, and arrested him. Soon afterwards he saw the sheriff, and Mr. Sexton told him to take him down to the office, and he would be down in a little while. When the sheriff arrived, before locking his prisoner in jail, as usual, he proceeded to search him. Mr. Wood was standing near, and saw the man doubling his fist, preparatory to dealing a blow to the sheriff. Quick as a flash the marshal gave him one of his hundred-pound dynamite blows under the chin, and he fell to the floor. As soon as he recovered the fellow showed fight in a determined manner, and it took the combined efforts of the sheriff, marshal and Constable Harper to place him in the cell. He soon cooled down and became tractable. His name could not be learned, but E. R. Hamilton is signed to the sight draft, and it is learned that he has gone under the name of E. A. McDonald and E. A. McMillan. The charges against him are forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses. He is a big, burly fellow, and has a very determined look on his face but hereafter he will keep a weather eye open for hundred-pound dynamite blows when he attempts pugilism.

BAKER CITY CLOSED

Baker City, Or., Aug. 29.—Baker City was a closed, dry town yesterday for the first time since it was founded, almost 50 years ago. The saloon men all closed promptly at 12 o'clock last night, and neither love nor money could tempt any of them to sell a drink of intoxicating liquor during the day. The closing of the saloons was the result of a voluntary determination on the part of the proprietors to obey the law.

All places of business were closed, save those exempt under the law, or those that opened in response to business necessity, which the law permits.

SIXTH WEEK OF STRIKE

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 29.—The sixth week of the textile strike, involving 25,000 persons, was ushered in today. There is no more indication of a resumption of operations than when the bitter contest began. The strike so far has cost the workers $800,000 in wages, and they have spent $50,000 from their treasury. It is learned that the Southern manufacturers are securing much of the business hitherto handled by the local mills, and the manufacturers are becoming uneasy.

DEFEND BISHOP POTTER

Episcopal Minister at Vancouver Attacks His Abusers

Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 29.—In his sermon at St. Luke's Episcopal church yesterday upon the text: "He that shall humble himself shall be exalted," the rector, W. C. Shepard, alluded incidentally to Bishop Potter's connection with the "Subway Tavern" in the following terms:

"A few weeks ago Bishop Potter, of New York, encouraged the opening of the 'Subway Tavern,' a place with a bar where everything from lemonade to whiskey may be bought and drunk. It was, on his part an attempt to solve the liquor problem an attack, from his point of view, upon the devil with the devil's own weapons. His action was inspired by an ambition to bring about eventually a great social reform, his idea being to provide a place to which men who would frequent saloons anyway might resort without coming in contact with the other vices which invariably cluster about the grogshops. In fact, Bishop Potter's saloon, as it is called, is to a large extent, to New York City what the canteen was to the army post.

"He foresaw, of course, the storm of criticism and abuse which the act would bring down upon his head. He was not blind to the fact that newspapers would jeer at him; that religious journals would consign him to perdition, and that a thousand pulpits from Portland, Me., to Portland, Or., would make him a target for their cheap attacks.

"But he humbled himself. He chose the path of scorn and persecution. He bared bosom to the shafts of prejudice and ridicule. He humbled himself, indeed.

"We read in the sectarian press that Bishop Potter is a 'blasphemer, and a Judas;' that he has incurred the curse of the Almighty,' and that when the Subway Tavern was opened 'the devils in hell grinned with delight.' Let us rather say that God rejoices mightily over the zeal of his servants and that he appreciates and will reward the self-sacrificing, the self-abasing efforts of those who are trying, according to their opportunities and convictions, to do something for the world's uplifting. For such as these, not for the selfish, not for the slothful, not for those who shrink from offering themselves up on the altar of self-sacrifice, shall come, by and by, the everlasting exaltation, the throne of power and the crown of glory."

ALASKA CABLE FINISHED

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 29.—Alaska was brought into communication with the rest of the United States yesterday afternoon, amid the cheers of hundreds of Americans, the tooting of steamboat whistles, and the crash of bands playing the "Star-Spangled Banner."

The cable between Seattle and Valdez was spliced at a point about 10 miles north of Seattle at 4:40 o'clock in the afternoon, though for several hours before the final joining of the two ends messages had been sent from Seattle men, guests on board the cableship Burnside to Sitka, and responses had been received.

The steamship Queen carried 300 of Seattle's prominent citizens out to meet the cable ship, and witness the splicing of the cable. In the party was Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia.

Condition Unchanged.

Worcester, Aug. 29.—The following bulletin was posted this afternoon: "The condition of Senator Hoar is practically unchanged today. He is cheerful and taking some nourishment."
