SKIN DISEASES

Altoona, Pa., June 20, 1903. I was afflicted with Tetter in bad shape. It would appear in blotches as large as my hand, a yellowish color, and scale off. You can imagine how offensive it was. For twelve years I was afflicted with this trouble. At night it was a case of scratch and many times no rest at all. Seeing the good the medicine was doing a friend who was taking it for Eczema, I commenced it, and as a result the eruption began to dry up and disappear, and to-day I am practically a well man. Only two tiny spots are left on the elbow and shin where on the whole body was affected. I have every confidence in the medicine, and feel sure that in a short time these two remaining spots will disappear. S. S. S. is certainly a great blood purifier, and has done me a world of good. I am grateful for what it has accomplished, and trust that what I have said will lead others who are similarly afflicted to take the remedy and obtain the same good results that I have. 125 East Fifth Ave. JOHN F. LEAR.

While washes, soaps, salves and powders relieve temporarily, they do not reach the real cause of the disease. The blood must be purified before the cure is permanent. S. S. S. contains no potash, arsenic or mineral of any description, but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Send for our book on the skin and its diseases, which is mailed free. Our physicians will cheerfully advise without charge any who write us about their case. The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

A Masher Foiled. Masher met maid last night as the latter was using the garden hose on the lawn in one of the residence districts of the city. It was getting just a little too dark for the fair sex to be out without an escort. Evidently so thought the masher, for he broke in. "Ah, how are you Dolly?"

No answer. The maid twisted the nozzle down so as to send the stream a little farther out on the lawn. "Why, Dolly," resumed the masher, "you're willing to take a walk, ain't you? We had a date, you know."

More silence. "Oh, well, if you won't come, I'll go to you."

And he started. When he got within three feet of the object of his devotion when—Bang—a swift, straight stream of Elk creek struck him in the face. And then it played up and down his frame. And then the masher fled. He had borne scathing looks, he had stood silence, but water put him out.—Baker City Herald.

Ringling Brothers' great canvas pavilions cover more than 15 acres of ground and constitute a veritable city of tents. The mammoth stage for the spectacular production of "Jerusalem and the Crusades," which is embodied in the hippodrome amphitheater, is the largest ever constructed and is absolutely impervious to rain.

New National Labor Party. Chicago, Ill., Aug. 29.—A number of delegates have arrived for the convention called by the Chicago Federation of Labor for the purpose of forming a new political party of workmen, farmers, single taxers, turner societies, and economic reform bodies. The radical views entertained by the organizers of the new party are expressed in the official call for the convention. Among other things the promoters accuse both the Republican and Democratic parties of betraying the confidence of the working people, and state that, instead of political freedom in the United States there is being reared both a political and industrial despotism unsurpassed even in Russia.

Reunion of Spanish War Veterans. Wapakoneta, O., Aug. 29.—Streets and buildings here are gaily decorated in honor of the Spanish war veterans whose annual state reunion opened today. Scores of visitors from every part of the state arrived last night and this morning. In addition to the opening exercises held in the city hall this forenoon the day's programme included a military parade at noon and an elaborate floral parade later in the day. The reunion will extend over tomorrow. Sandusky, Hamilton and Findlay are contesting for the honor of entertaining next year's reunion.

Minnesota State Fair. St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 29.—Bigger and better than ever before, the Minnesota state fair was opened to the public today with a record breaking attendance for a first day. Several large and magnificent buildings have been constructed during the past year and all of these are well filled with a comprehensive display illustrating the resources and industries of the state. Probably the most important feature is the live stock exhibit which surpasses and previous display of pure bred cattle held in the Northwest.

A Real Estate Bargain. 320-acre farm in Minnesota to exchange for a farm in the Willamette valley, also three dwellings in Des Moines, Iowa, to exchange for residence property in Salem. 8-20-3t DERBY & WILSON.

WOODMEN ATTEND THE FAIR Thousands of Choppers Will Camp at St. Louis Next Week

Rock Island, Ill., Aug. 29.—The Modern Woodmen's society's executive council, in session today at the society's head office, located in this city, approved the committee's programme for Modern Woodmen of America Day at the St. Louis fair. The parade of Woodmen Foresters, of whom over 5000 will be encamped at St. Louis for the week of September 5-12, will take place on Thursday morning. The parade will be reviewed by the head officers of the society, and a distinguished body of guests, including Governors Dockery, of Missouri; Van Sant, of Minnesota, Cummins, of Iowa, and Bailey, of Kansas, who have already accepted invitations. Governors LaFollette, of Wisconsin; Bliss, of Michigan; Yates, of Illinois, and Mickey, of Nebraska, are also expected, but acceptances have not yet been received. After the parade a reception will be tendered the Woodmen officials and their guests by President Francis. Addresses will be delivered in the afternoon by President R. D. Francis, Head Consul A. R. Talbot, Past Consul W. A. Northcutt, and the governors present. The famous Woodmen quartet, of Shelbyville, Ill., will also present a special repertoire of songs.

Children's Day at the Fair. St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 29.—The exposition management designated this as National Children's Day and young America certainly did its utmost to make the occasion one of the most memorable in the history of the fair. At 9 o'clock this morning the gates were thrown open for the free admission of all children under fifteen years old. They came in droves, some accompanied by their parents, but the vast majority free to enjoy the occasion without being checked by parental solicitude. Throughout the day they swarmed through the big buildings, got themselves tangled up in all sorts of unexpected places and made the lives of the Jefferson guards miserable. They "did" the Pike for all it was worth, swarmed about the waterways until it looked as though the life-saving corps would have to give many exhibitions not on the schedule, and they ran up and down Art Hill and roamed through the forestry reservations until forced to remain quiet by sheer exhaustion.

Hops Fruit Big Crop?

The crops in this line are not the largest, but good. As a result many will need repairs made on their driers. We are prepared to do quick and good work in this line.
