X-RADIUMS

Salem has a young man for mayor who is trying to push motor lines, more railroad connections, broken rock streets, better light and water supply, and everything that will tend to build up the town. That kind of a mayor ought to be abolished say some of the sleeping patriots, who have made their piles, and don't want to be disturbed. Keep up the good work, mayor. As for the sleepers, "disturb them not, but let them rest," and everybody sing.

The people up the valley ought to be grateful for even three hours of a visit from Secretary Shaw, when Portland had him only three days. That was not too long to see all of Portland, and Portland is about all any great man gets to see of Oregon, because all the greatness of Oregon really resides in Portland.

New Hop Firm.

Sam G. Rundlett, who has been with the firm of hop buyers of T. A. Livesley for the past six years, has now become a member of the firm of Charles Livesley & Co., hop buyers of this city. The new partnership will make one of the strongest and best posted firms in the line of this great industry. Both gentlemen thoroughly understand the hop business and have a wide acquaintance among the growers.

What Is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver Trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Carpentry.

A. Olinger, the old reliable carpenter, has again opened a shop with W. T. Rigdon, the Court-street undertaker, and is ready now to take orders for job work on immediate call. Rigdon's phone, 2271, 142 Court street. 1m A. OLINGER.

Haberdashery

Your "Toggery" wants are as well looked after here as your clothing wants. We have the correct "little things" that mark a man as a "good dresser." Furnishings must be right in order to secure a place in our stock. Our store is aglow with the smartest and newest ideas in Neckwear, Shirts, Gloves, Hosiery, etc.

The things you'll see here are "different."

HATS

We're hatters, of course, as well as clothiers and haberdashers. Our hat business receives our special care. Every new and correct shape is here. We sell only the best makers' best hats. We never hitch fancy prices onto our clothing, hats, or toggery, because of its excellence.

We will be pleased to satisfy any wardrobe need you may have.

SALEM SOCIAL EVENTS

Prescott-Purvine Wedding.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday, August 31, 1904, at 11 o'clock, when Miss Emily Purvine became the wife of Mr. Eugene T. Prescott, of LaCenter, Wash. Rev. H. A. Ketchum, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of this city, performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The Purvine home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Everywhere were masses of late summer roses, and other flowers, intermingled with bright colored autumn leaves, arranged in pleasing effect. At 11 o'clock Mrs. Jordan Purvine sang "Oh, Promise Me," after which the bridal party entered the parlor, led by the maid of honor, Miss Violet Anderson, and the best man, Mr. Monroe Purvine, who were followed by the bride couple. They took their places beneath a large bell of white chrysanthemums, where the ring ceremony was performed. Little Miss Pauline Remington acted as ring bearer.

After the congratulations the wedding party repaired to the dining room where a light luncheon was served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Purvine, and is well-known in both Marion and Polk counties, where she has always been a favorite. The groom is the brother of A. W. Prescott, of this city, and formerly resided here, but is engaged in business at LaCenter, Wash., where the couple will make their future home.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. They left on the afternoon train yesterday for LaCenter.

The Question Of

What Watch

To buy is a hard one for the average man to decide. Dozens of grades are sold under the same name, and it puzzles any but an expert to decide where practical utility stops and extravagance begins. We are and will gladly help you in this matter. Our stock embraces the best watches made. Come in and look them over—we're always pleased to show—whether you buy or not. And, REMEMBER, repairing is our specialty. Our prices are right.
