HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

Lodging House Fire.
The lodging house of Mrs. Maggie Whitlock, at the corner of Court and Front street, caught fire last evening about 6:30 o'clock, and was seriously damaged before the flames could be checked.

The origin of the fire is a mystery, as the occupants had left for the hop fields early in the morning, and the fire in the stove had not been burning for several hours. It is thought that a smoldering spark caused the blaze.

Two hose carts were on the scene of the fire in rapid time, and they were soon followed by an engine, but the light frame structure was susceptible to the flames, and it was only by hard work that the contents were saved. The loss will be several hundred dollars.

Ute Indians Mad.

Durango, Colo., Sept. 2.—A report received here says that the Wiminche Ute Indians at Navajo, threaten to revolt if not accorded better treatment by the federal government.

Their leader, Chief Ignacio, claims the interior department has repeatedly broken faith with his people, and that none of the treaties with them are being lived up to. He asserts the Indians are not receiving enough ration allowances to live on, and the irrigation ditches promised have not yet been started. The Indians predict a long and cold winter, and declare they will get enough food if they have to fight for it. Superintendent W. M. Peterson, of the Fort Lewis school, has gone to Navajo to make an investigation.

Boy Shoots Sister.

Redding, Cal., Sept. 2.—Four-year-old John Conrad shot and killed his sister, Clara, aged 5 years, yesterday morning, at Cassell, in the northeastern part of Shasta county, 63 miles from Redding. It was an accident. An older brother, William, had been out hunting. When he returned he took the shells from the shotgun and placed them on a table in the room. John loaded the gun, pointed it out the window and discharged it. The shot killed his sister instantly.

Debs Scores Davis.

Indianapolis, Sept. 2.—The working man who finds it in his heart to vote for Henry G. Davis deserves the chain he wears. He is not fit to be a free man.

This was the declaration by Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for President, in the opening speech of his national campaign at Masonic hall last night. It was greeted with cheers.

Text-Book Law Is Effective.

Spahr, editor of the Outlook and Current Literature, disappeared mysteriously on the night of August 30th, from the steamer Prince Albert, which plies in the English channel, between Dover and Ostend. What Is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver Trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
