TEARFUL OR CHEERFUL?

Whether a woman is tearful or cheerful depends not on what she has materially, but what she is physically. Many an indulgent husband is driven almost to despair by the tearful outbreak of a wife who has "everything she wants." He wants to know what's the matter. But the wife can't tell. She only knows that she is depressed and despondent. Such a condition is usually related to some form of womanly disease.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Profluvium, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Keep the bowels healthy by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

PORTLAND DAY AT FAIR

Great interest is being taken by Portland business men in the meeting to be held next Friday evening at the Commercial Club, to arrange for the success of Portland at the state fair at Salem, says Manager Tom Richardson, who is taking an active part in arousing interest in the movement. Everything, he says, goes to indicate that each of the commercial and industrial bodies of the city will attend the meeting by liberal representation, and take an active part.

This meeting will also take up the proposition of arranging for a large attendance at the North Yakima and Walla Walla fairs. To the latter place, at least, there will, in all probability, be arrangements made for a big excursion, but it is already assured that Portland will have good representation at both fairs. As far as the Oregon state fair is concerned, the meeting will make all arrangements for insuring a large attendance, that Portland day will be something more than merely a name.—Telegram.

Good Spirits. Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

Knights Have a Good Time. San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 9.—For the first time since their arrival in this city several commanderies of Knight Templars closed their hospitable doors today to all visitors. It was not because the store of good things had been exhausted or that the gallant knights were tired. They had simply stayed the limit of the time in San Francisco and were absorbed in preparations for departure. The grand encampment practically concluded its business today.

The official program of festivities ends tonight, though few of the commanderies will leave San Francisco before tomorrow. Today was a great day for the exchange of badges and souvenirs. Mechanics' Pavilion, where the California commanderies have kept open house, has been besieged all week, and thousands of bottles of wine and as many more baskets of fruit have been handed out to the visitors. At the headquarters of the Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia commanderies badges galore have been given away and the punch bowls have been emptied again and again.

What Is Life? In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver Trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
