

GREAT STORMS IN EAST

Atlantic Coast Swept by Wind and Rain for Many Hours

Small Crafts Were Driven Ashore by the Fierce Gale With Loss of Life

New York, Sept. 15.—The severe storm which struck this city last night increased to cyclonic violence this morning. Many boats anchored in the harbor are in danger. Nineteen barges in tow of the tug Ashton overturned and were washed ashore at Tompkinsville, and telegraphic communication is badly crippled.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 15.—This city is in the grip of a severe storm, and three inches of rain has fallen since last night.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 15.—During the storm last night the tug Durham, of Philadelphia, sunk in the Delaware river off the mouth of Christian creek, and eight persons aboard her were drowned. Two were saved on a barge in tow of the tug, which went ashore.

New York, Sept. 15.—A fishing smack and a three-masted schooner went down off the Holland light house during the storm, and it is not known whether the crews were saved. Near Sandy Hook and Cape May barges and sailing craft were blown ashore. Two barges were washed up at Sandy Hook without crews, and the crew of one barge, about to founder, was rescued by the Long Beach life savers.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Following the heavy thunder storm last evening a severe earthquake shock was felt throughout Northern New York. In this city many buildings trembled.

Malone, N. Y., Sept. 15.—This city experienced a distinct earthquake shock during the heavy storm at 9 o'clock last night.

Robbers Are Located.

Des Moines, Sept. 15.—The five bandits who robbed the Rock Island express, near Letts, on Tuesday, have been located near Winfield, a town near the scene of the holdup. A special train, with a heavily armed posse, are on the way from Muscatine to effect their capture. The robbers were found hiding in a haystack, and are heavily armed.

After Jerome.

New York, Sept. 15.—The call of David B. Hill upon District Attorney Jerome today has given rise to the report that Jerome has been asked to become the Democratic gubernatorial nominee.

RUSSIAN CRUISER LENA WILL STAY

Has Asked Permission of United States to Dismantle in San Francisco

Washington, Sept. 15.—The navy department this morning received a dispatch from Admiral Goodrich, at San Francisco, stating that Captain Bertinsky, of the Lena, formally asked permission to dismantle his ship. He further desires to know to what extent the United States desires the ship to be dismantled. This question will probably not be answered for a day or two, or until the state department communicates with the Russian ambassador, now at Bar Harbor.

Mukden, Sept. 15.—It is reported here that the Japanese were compelled to evacuate Liao Yang on account of the fearful stench arising from the dead bodies. The Japanese are fortifying the approaches to Mukden by way of the Liao river. Preparations for their advance are being continued. A small detachment of Japanese are moving northward from the Taitse river. Kuroki is now going east, while to the westward preparations are being made to send a large force up the Liao river. The Japanese already have 100 barges ready for this purpose. With these they intend to ascend as far as Tie Pass. It is stated that the Japanese are preparing in a turning and flanking movement, and will not engage in another big battle before the occupation of Tie Pass. These preparations are expected to occupy one month.

Tokio, Sept. 15.—Field Marshal Oyama reports today that the Russian position in the direction of Mukden is unchanged. He adds: "We buried 3100 Russians at Liao Yang."

New York, Sept. 15.—According to a dispatch from Berlin, the Russian government is negotiating for the purchase of more ocean-going steamers from the trans-Atlantic lines.

Searched Vessels.

London, Sept. 15.—Lloyd's Algiers correspondent reports that the Russian war ship Terek stopped the British steamer Treperdet near Gibraltar and examined her papers. The British steamer Margit Groedel arrived at the Dardanelles and reports that she was searched by the Terek on September 6th.

Struck Mine in Harbor.

Chefoo, Sept. 15.—The British sailing vessel Lucia, which was supposed to be running the blockade, struck a mine at Port Arthur today, and sank. Only one of the crew was saved.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 15.—General Stoessel, in command at Port Arthur, reports that the Japanese are constructing fortifications on Samaan mountain, and other points. They continue to bombard the forts and harbor. On September 23 they threw 250 shells into the town. The Japanese are issuing proclamations demanding the Russian troops to surrender. A report from Alexieff states that the Japanese are massing their forces west of Port Arthur.

Senator Hoar Comfortable.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 15.—Senator Hoar is a little more comfortable today, but shows no gain in strength.

PORTLAND DAY AT FAIR GREAT SUCCESS

Thousands Come From Metropolis and Many More From Other Points

Portland Day at the Fair brought a great throng from the metropolis and other parts of Oregon were well represented. The first trains from Portland arrived at 10 o'clock, carrying several thousand people, and they were met by as many more Salem friends and relatives.

The fine stock parade was held at 10 o'clock, and was a magnificent exhibition.

Evening Program.

The evening program will be of unusual interest, as both Mrs. Hallie Parish-Hinges and Miss Ethel Raymond will sing. Mrs. Hinges will sing "May Morning" and Miss Raymond "For This." McElroy's band will complete the program with several selections.

Salem Day.

The races on Wednesday, Salem day, were attended by an immense crowd. The harness events were slow and lifeless. Some horsemen say the track is slow, others that the fog and smoke weakens the animals, while some people on the outside hint that horses were about the first essential of a horse race. At any rate the time was not creditable.
