PORTLAND DAY AT FAIR

to horses going for big money, especially in the 2:15 pace, for the $2000 purse. where the first heat was made in the semi-respectable time of 2:13 1/4, but gradually dropped until the fourth jaunt, when it hit the 2:18 1/4 jog. It was a mesly shame to see hard, cold cash go at such a sacrifice, but it is part of the race horse business.

The first race, the 2-year-old trot, was won by Tongue's colt, Brent's Louladi second. Time 2:32 1/2, 2:31 1/4.

The 2:25 trot for a $400 purse was won by May Tilden, in two straight heats, Gyr Falcon second, Bessie Jones third, Lord Kitchener fourth and Seatle Maid fifth. Time 2:27 1/4, 2:26 1/2.

There were 12 starters in the 2:15 pace for the Greater Salem Stake of $2000, and, aside from its slowness, was fairly good. Hassalo took the first heat in 2:13 1/4, but in the third and fourth heat he fell back to seventh.

Queen B. was second in the first heat, but captured the next three and the race. Time 2:14 1/4, 2:16 1/4, 2:18 1/2. Cavallero took third money. Tidal Wave, Prince Charles, Economizer, Olive M., Derbertha, Starkey and Cavalier also started.

The Running Races.

The fourth race was the five-furlong dash.

The entries were Zadoe, Snark, Caroburn, Riceful, Anna Marie, Hogarth, Vaughn, Pencil Me. Snark won, followed by Hogarth and Pencil Me.

The next event was the Salem Stakes, a handicap for all ages.

Redon, Bummer, Nonie, Titus, Judge Thomas, Aurora B., and Lady Usk started. The latter was about the craziest freak that ever hit the track. She caused trouble from the time she left the paddock. First, she broke away and dashed down the track for about half a mile, then bucked her rider in the air and finally wound up by running the full mile and again throwing her rider. When the bunch finally started Usk was glued to the line, and refused to budge until the dash was about half finished. Titus was first, Bummer second and Redan third. Time .48.

The last event was the six furlong race, with the following starters: Urbano, Chickadee, Lady Myrtle, Agnes Mack, Albermale, Duke of Richelieu, Wartimes, Ilowaho. Wartimes won, Urbano second and Ilowaho third. Time, 1:14 1/4.

Fair Notes.

The butter and cheese exhibit was insignificant. Or rather, the butter exhibit was. There was no cheese exhibit. Yet these are industries of some size.

It was a little rough on Salem's reputation for good-looking men to put two prize-winners for homeliness at the entrance gate.—Lansing and Longeore.

D. G. Henry, a Polk county farmer, saw the Agricultural College exhibit at the fair. He was pleased, and said: "I sent two boys to the college, and neither of them would become a farmer. I sent one to a Salem business college, and he is willing to be a farmer."

"Largest aggregation of county, legislative, state and federal officials ever at the fair," said an old hayseed. All the legislators had free tickets to come on and to get in on. There has been no way devised for free feeding on an off-year, when there is no senator to elect.

Rev. Wm. A. Daly, of Portland, greeted his many friends at the fair today.

President Morehead, of the State Press Association, is attending the fair.

There will be a Grange conference at the auditorium in the pavilion at 10:30 a. m. Friday. The state officers of the Grange will be present, and all granges represented at the state fair will be represented.

SENATORS ARE IN TOWN

Were Given a Reception at the Ilihee Club Wednesday Night

Senators Mitchell and Fulton have been in the city several days, attending the state fair and seeing their constituents. They have met many friends from all over the state, and were given a very cordial greeting by friends of both gentlemen at the capital.

A reception was tendered the senators at the Ilihee club Wednesday evening, which was largely attended by the prominent people of this city. The morning Mayor Waters had a conference with Senator Mitchell about the improvement of the Willamette at this point. Senators Mitchell and Fulton have got all the information possible from personal inspection, talking with the mayor and others, and the senator has promised to take the matter up with the engineers' department personally, and possibly will visit Salem with some of the United States engineers at an early day.

Friends of Senator Mitchell sent beautiful bouquets of flowers to the rooms at the Willamette hotel in morning. The senators return to Portland Friday.

HIGGINS WINS FIGHT

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The Republican state convention nominated Lieutenant-Governor Frank W. Higgins for governor by acclamation, Governor Woodruff withdrawing.

M. Linn Bruce, of New York City, was nominated for lieutenant-governor. The platform expresses confidence in Roosevelt, and pledges unwavering support; endorses the national platform and the administration of Odell. Special emphasis is expressed in the importance of maintaining the gold standard and the policy of protection.

Largest Eye Practice In Salem . . .

But that's easy to understand. We have convinced spectacle and eye glass wearers that we understand our business. We have recently fitted complicated cases on which all others failed, and these customers are becoming so numerous you cannot go any place in the county, but what a testimonial-bearer lives there. We also give you valuable advice, which is free. Eyes tested free, and when glasses are required our prices are the cheapest.
