

ITALIAN STRIKE RIOTS

Rome, Sept. 19.—Strike riots occurred near Milan this afternoon. General Escard, in charge of the troops, was riding in a carriage, accompanied by a detective, when the strikers attempted to stop the vehicle. The detective was struck on the head, and drew a revolver and shot the ringleader dead. Other strikers arrived, and a riot ensued.

"On the Bridge at Midnight"

Bordering on the melodramatic, but devoid of all the sensational, shop-worn devices so commonly used in the drama of today, Mr. George Klimt's $10,000 production of "On the Bridge at Midnight" comes to us heralded as a most remarkable production. It is a comedy drama, sweet pure and wholesome, with delicate portions of the pathetic and a romantic love story throughout, together with a magnificent lot of exceptionally fine scenery. The play takes its name from the incident of showing a "jack-knife" bridge in full operation before the audience, allowing a large steamer to pass through the draw, the whole being done by one piece of scenery, which is carried by the company, and takes a score of men to handle. A fine company of actors are engaged with the production.

The Convention of the Oregon Irrigation Association
Association will be held at Ontario, Oregon, September 19th to 21st, inclusive. For this occasion a rate of one and one-third fare fare, on the certificate plan, from all points on Oregon lines to Portland and return.

Russian Assaulted Wife.
Albany, Or., Sept. 19.—Because of a desperate assault on his wife with a butcher knife at an early hour yesterday morning, Harry Ackerman, a Russian Finn, was lodged in the county jail, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon.

Ackerman, who recently came to Albany, and is an employe in the Albany tannery began a spree as soon as he received his week's wages Saturday night. The carousing had continued until nearly morning, when Ackerman's wife came up town, and endeavored to persuade her inebriate spouse to return home. Falling in this, Mrs. Ackerman returned to their rooms in a lodging house, and knowing the ugly disposition of her husband when drunk, locked the doors.

Soon afterward Ackerman went home, and, placing a ladder against the house, climbed to a window, and attacked the wife, choking her into insensibility. When she recovered, he again assaulted her, this time seizing a murderous looking butcher knife, with which he made a vicious thrust at her. The woman threw up her hand to ward off the blow and received a bad slash on the hand and arm. Her screams attracted other roomers in the place, and the brawl was ended, the police being called to take charge of the wife-beater.

Prince Herbert Dead.
Freidrichsruhe, Sept. 19.—Prince Herbert Bismarck died this morning at 10:15 o'clock. The end was painful.

Since he ceased to be foreign minister, on the retirement of his father in 1890, Prince Herbert Bismarck had taken part in public affairs only as a member of the reichstag. His attitude was more of a man not appreciated by his sovereign, and who was waiting in the background for an opportunity to resume his career.

Flyer Ditched.
Kansas City, Sept. 19.—A Union Pacific passenger train was ditched near Junction City, Kansas, this afternoon. Telephone reports says that 15 are dead. The train was presumably Flyer No. 4 coming east, in four sections, and running an hour late.

X-RADIUMS

The time is coming when you must stir up the ground and put out some rose cuttings. We want plenty of roses for the eastern visitors next year.

An exchange has a learned article on how a bee stings. It has been a settled conviction in the past that she did it with her stinger.

Advice to young politicians: Young man, before you begin to wear wide brimmed hats and assume the airs of incipient statesmanship, get a firm hold on a few well-defined political principles, and be prepared to give a reason for the faith that is in you that the humblest citizen can understand. Then keep your ear close to the ground and you will have no trouble.

Sewing is to be recognized as one of the common branches in the Salem public schools. Boys as well as girls are to be taught plain sewing, and the girls are to learn darning. The boys have always understood that pretty well.

The Eugene dailies generally have two or three good-sized editorial controversies raging at the same time. But when it comes to an outsider attacking them or their town they generally fight together. They also never forget to help each other when there is need, as witness this from the Register:

The Guard's press is out of business and undergoing repairs. The last two issues of the Evening Guard were printed on the Register press, a fact noticeable by the cleanest print the Guard has worn in many years and made the subject of general comment by its readers, some thinking a new press had been installed in that office.

Astoria Daily News: From the number of irrigation items in the inland paper it would seem that there is a long thirst due country editors.

The Aurora Borealis has been established five years and has never had a libel suit.—Capital Journal.

We are not quite sure yet whether Bro. Hofer is throwing bouquets or is mean enough to insinuate that we are running a Sunday school paper.—Aurora Borealis.

Woodburn Independent: If the saloon keepers of Salem win in the twenty-nine cases brought against them the county will have a pretty bill of costs to pay.

North Bend Post: Minister Barrett at Panama is advising Americans to keep away from Panama as it is no place for an American.

The Josephine county caves are natural wonders or else they are wonderful stimulants to the imagination of newspaper writers who visit them. They probably are both.
